Australia My friend and I are planning a three-month trip to Australia. We're looking for some awesome vacation ideas. Any recommendations? – Terry S. Posted by MitchS 3 days ago Go to the beaches! Australia has more than 11,000 of them, and some of the really great ones are very close to Australia's big cities. My favorites? Bondi Beach is probably the most well-known. _____. My favorite beach near Perth is Cottesloe. If extreme is your thing, you can try kite surfing or paragliding. June to November is the best time to go. Posted by Fran W 2 days ago Visit the Upper Murray River in the Snowy Mountains in New South Wales and take an exciting white-water rafting trip! You can go for the day, or you can go on a rafting and camping trip for two days or more! The best time to go is between July and January. _____. We saw lots of birds, kangaroos, and other wildlife, too! Posted by DH 2 days ago Try volunteering for a few weeks or more! I did some volunteering last year, and it was great. _____. These cities have great sightseeing, museums, restaurants, and shopping, and they are the starting point for some great volunteer trips. I traveled with a group called the Green Team. They can arrange trips for you that last from one week to six months! If you're not sure you'll like volunteering, you can try it for a day by going on a "taster" - a short and inexpensive "test trip." If you like it, you can arrange a longer trip. _____! If you decide on a longer trip, they'll give you your money back for the taster! Posted by Colin2011 1 day ago If you're looking for something really adventurous, go to A. J. Hackett's in Cairns. Built in 1990, it's Australia's oldest bungee jumping tower - right in the center of a tropical rain forest! You'll find 16 different kinds of bungee jumps and lots more adventures to choose from! _____. If you like wildlife and the environment and enjoy looking around underwater, you should go there! It has the best snorkeling and scuba diving in the world!
