The Fifth Edition of Interchange

Interchange, the world's favorite English course, has a long tradition of teaching students how to speak confidently. Millions of people all over the world attest to its effectiveness.

What Makes Interchange Special?

Jack C. Richards' communicative methodology: Refined over years and in countless classrooms, the Interchange approach is rooted in solid pedagogy.

Flexible units: Instructors can change the order of the activities in each unit, keeping lessons fresh and students engaged. Additional photocopiable activities and a full video program give teachers even more freedom to make Interchange their own.

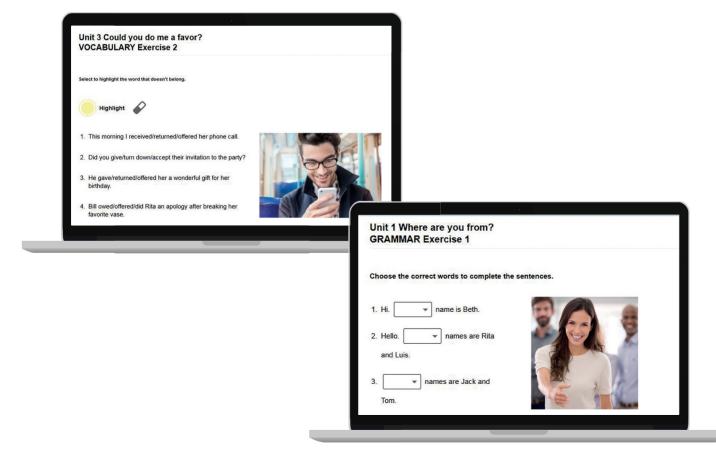

Students speak right from the start: The solid research and winning content give students the confidence to speak early and often.

What's New in the Fifth Edition?

50% new content: Readings, listenings, conversations, and Snapshots have been updated throughout the books.

Improved exercises for listenings and readings: We listened to teachers' requests for greater variety in the activities that accompany the listenings and readings.

New digital tools: Self-study for every student available online. An online workbook with fun games.

Student's Book overview

Every unit in Interchange Fifth Edition contains two cycles, each of which has a specific topic, grammar point, and function. The units in Level 1 contain a variety of exercises, including a Snapshot, Conversation, Grammar focus, Pronunciation, Discussion (or Speaking/Role Play), Word power, Listening, Writing, Reading, and Interchange activity. The sequence of these exercises differs from unit to unit. Here is a sample unit from Level 1.

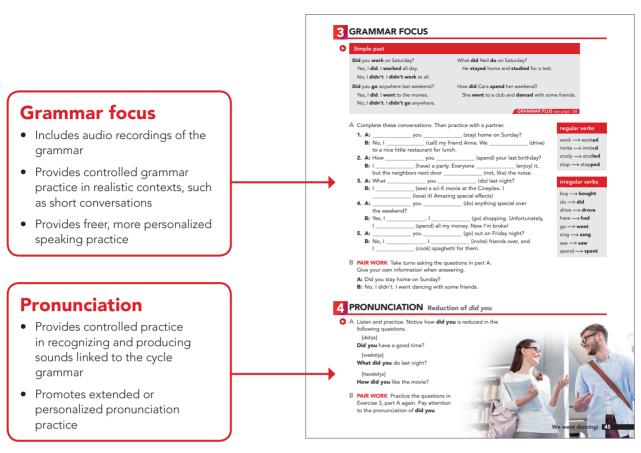

Cycle 1 (Exercises 1–8)

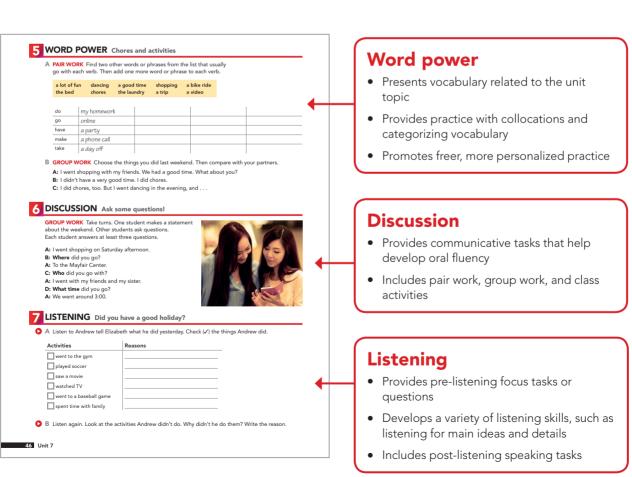

Topic: routine and leisure activities

Grammar: simple past

Function: describe past daily and free-time activities

Topic: vacations Grammar: past of be

Function: describe past vacations

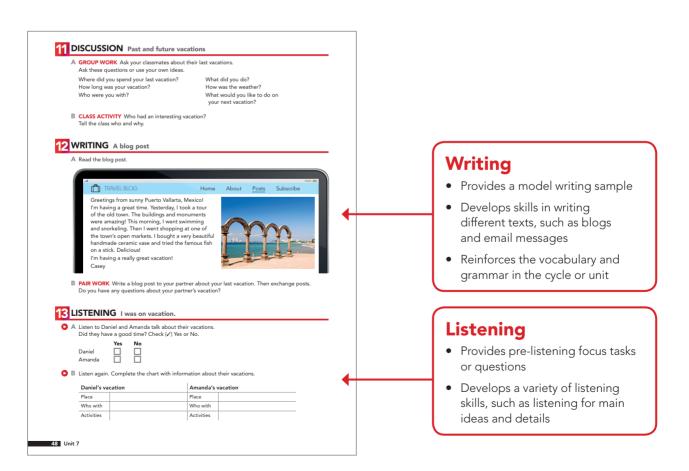

Conversation

- Provides structured listening and speaking
- Introduces the meaning and use of Cycle 2 grammar, useful expressions, and discourse
- Uses pictures to set the scene and illustrate new vocabulary

Grammar focus

- Presents examples from the previous conversation
- Provides controlled grammar practice in realistic contexts, such as short conversations

- Presents a variety of text types
- Introduces the text with a pre-reading task
- Develops a variety of reading skills, such as reading for main ideas, reading for details, and inferencing
- Promotes discussion that involves personalization and analysis

In the back of the book

Interchange activity

- Expands on the unit topic, vocabulary, and grammar
- Provides opportunities to consolidate new language in a creative or fun way
- Promotes fluency with communicative activities such as discussions, information gaps, and games

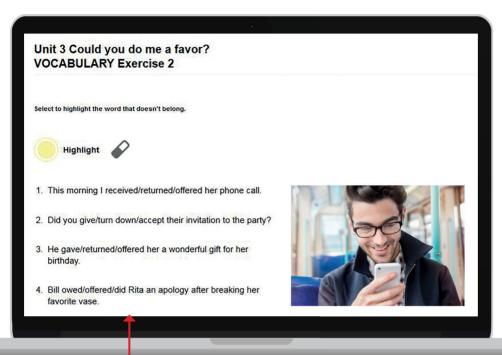

Grammar plus

- Explores the unit grammar in greater depth
- Practices the grammar with controlled exercises
- Can be done in class or assigned as homework

Online Self-study overview

Interchange Fifth Edition online Self-study provides students with hundreds of additional exercises to practice the language taught in the Student's Book on their own, in the classroom, or in the lab.

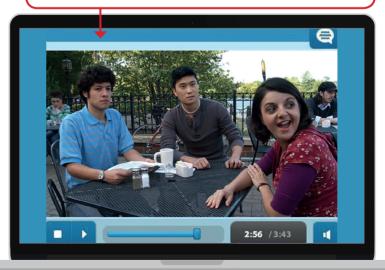

Interactive exercises

Hundreds of interactive exercises provide hours of additional:

- vocabulary practice
- grammar practice
- listening practice
- speaking practice
- reading practice

The complete Interchange video program

The entire Interchange video program for this level is included online with exercises that allow the students to watch and check comprehension themselves.

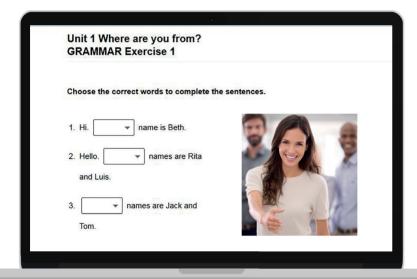

Online Workbook overview

The Interchange Fifth Edition Online Workbook provides additional activities to reinforce what is presented in the corresponding Student's Book. Each Online Workbook includes:

- A variety of interactive activities that correspond to each Student's Book lesson, allowing students to interact with workbook material in a fresh, lively way.
- Instant feedback for hundreds of activities, challenging students to focus on areas for improvement.
- Simple tools for teachers to monitor students' progress such as scores, attendance, and time spent online, providing instant information.

The Interchange Fifth Edition Online Workbooks can be purchased in two ways:

- as an institutional subscription,
- as part of a Student's Book with Online Workbook Pack.

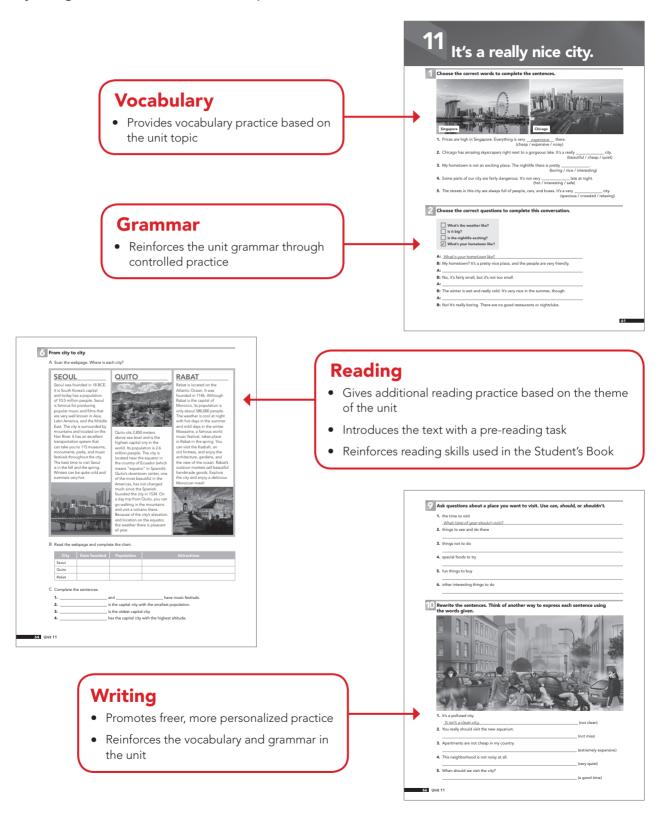

Games

 Fun, interactive, self-scoring activities in the Online Workbooks offer a fresh change of pace.

Workbook overview

Interchange Fifth Edition provides students with additional opportunities to practice the language taught in the Student's Book outside of the classroom by using the Workbook that accompanies each level.

Teacher's Edition overview

The Teacher's Editions provide complete support for teachers who are using Interchange Fifth Edition. They contain Supplementary Resources Overview charts to help teachers plan their lessons (for more information see page xx), Language summaries, Workbook answer keys, Audio scripts, Fresh ideas, and Games. They also include detailed teaching notes for the units and Progress checks in the Student's Books.

- Learning objectives for each exercise
- Step-by-step lesson plans
- Audio scripts
- Answers and Vocabulary definitions
- Stimulating and fun Games to review or practice skills such as grammar and vocabulary
- Alternative ways to present and review exercises in the Fresh ideas
- Tips that promote teacher training and development
- Options for alternative presentations or expansions
- Suggestions for further practice in other Interchange Fifth Edition components and online
- Suggestions for regular assessment using guizzes and tests

Complete Assessment Program

The complete assessment program contains oral and written guizzes and tests. It includes PDF and Microsoft Word versions of all quizzes, mid-term and final tests, the placement test program, audio, audio scripts, and answer keys.

In this section, you will answer questions about the use of English. Choose the word or words that best complete the sentence. For each item, fill in your answer on the answer sheet. You will have 15 minutes to complete this section.

Presentation Plus overview

Interchange Presentation Plus is a complete classroom presentation package, combining the contents of the Student's Book, the class audio, and the video program for each level of the series into a convenient one-stop presentation solution. It can be used with all types of interactive whiteboards or with just a projector and a computer to present Interchange core materials in the classroom in a lively and engaging way.

Presentation Plus simplifies several of the teaching tasks that take place in the classroom.

You can use Presentation Plus to display the answers for the exercises in an uncomplicated way, zoom in on a page to more efficiently focus students' attention on an activity or image, and even annotate pages for future lessons.

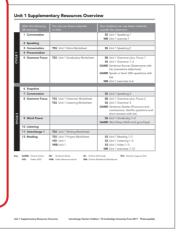

cambridge.org/interchange

Go online for a variety of materials to assist with your teaching of the series. Here you will find practical articles, correlations, language summaries, overviews of supplementary materials, ideas for games and extra activities, as well as a number of downloadable worksheets for projects and extra practice of vocabulary, grammar, listening, writing, and speaking.

Supplementary Resources Overviews

Indicate all the activities available in the various ancillary components that can be used after each exercise in the Student's Book units for extra practice, review, and assessment.

Downloadable worksheets

- Offer extra speaking opportunities
- Provide guidance for projects and extra practice of grammar, vocabulary, listening, and writing

Video Program overview

The Interchange Video Program is designed to complement the Student's Books. Each video provides further practice related to the topics, language, and vocabulary introduced in the corresponding unit of the Student's Book.

PROGRAM COMPONENTS

Video

The sixteen videos in each level's video program complement Units 1 through 16 of the corresponding Student's Book. There are a variety of genres: dramatized stories, documentaries, interviews, profiles, and traveloques.

Video Resource Book

The Video Resource Book contains the following:

- engaging photocopiable worksheets for
- detailed teaching notes for teachers
- answer keys for the student worksheets
- complete video transcripts

TEACHING A TYPICAL VIDEO SEQUENCE

The worksheets and teaching notes for each video are organized into four sections: Preview, Watch the video, Follow-up, and Language close-up. The unit-by-unit teaching notes in the Video Resource Book give detailed suggestions for teaching each unit.

Preview

The Preview activities build on each other to provide students with relevant background information and key vocabulary that will assist them in better understanding the video.

Watch the video

The carefully sequenced Watch the video activities first help students focus on gist and then guide them in identifying important details and language. These tasks also prepare them for Follow-up speaking activities.

Follow-up

The Follow-up speaking activities encourage students to extend and personalize information by voicing their opinions or carrying out communicative tasks.

Language close-up

Students finish with the Language close-up, examining and practicing the particular language structures and functions presented in the video.

Introduction to the CEFR

Introduction to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR)

The overall aim of the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) is to provide objective criteria for describing and assessing language proficiency in an internationally comparable manner. The Council of Europe's work on the definition of appropriate learning objectives for adult language learners dates back to the '70s. The influential Threshold series (J. A. van Ek and J. L. M. Trim, Cambridge University Press, 1991) provides a detailed description in functional, notional, grammatical, and sociocultural terms, of what a language user needs to be able to do in order to communicate effectively in the sort of situations commonly encountered in everyday life. Three levels of proficiency are identified, called Waystage, Threshold, and Vantage (roughly corresponding to Elementary, Intermediate, and Upper Intermediate).

The Threshold series was followed in 2001 by the publication of the Common European Framework of Reference, which describes six levels of communicative ability in terms of competences or "can do" statements: A1 (Breakthrough), A2 (Waystage), B1 (Threshold), B2 (Vantage), C1 (Effective Operational Proficiency), and C2 (Mastery). Based on the CEFR descriptors, the Council of Europe also developed the European Language Portfolio, a document that enables learners to assess their language ability and to keep an internationally recognized record of their language learning experience.

Interchange Fifth Edition and the Common European Framework of Reference

The table below shows how Interchange Fifth Edition correlates with the Council of Europe's levels and with some major international examinations.

	CEFR	Council of Europe	Cambridge ESOL	IELTS	TOEFL iBT	TOEIC
Interchange	Interchange
Level Intro	A1	Breakthrough				120+
Level 1	A2	Waystage				225+
Level 2
	B1	Threshold	KET (Key English Test)	4.0-5.0	57–86	550+
Level 3			PET (Preliminary English Test)
Passages
Level 1	B2	Vantage	FCE (First Certificate in English)	5.5–6.5	87–109	785+
Level 2	C1	Effective Operational Efficiency	CAE (Certificate in Advanced English)	7.0–8.0	110–120	490+ (Listening) 445+ (Reading)

Essential teaching tips

Classroom management

Error correction

- During controlled practice accuracy activities, correct students' wrong use of the target language right away, either by correcting the error yourself or, whenever possible, by having the student identify and/or correct the error. This way, the focus is on accuracy, and students can internalize the correct forms, meaning, and use of the language.
- During oral fluency activities, go around the room and take notes on errors you hear. Do not interrupt students. Instead, take note of their errors in the use of target language and write these errors on the board. Encourage students to correct them first. Be sure to point out and praise students for language used correctly as well.

Grouping students

It is good to have students work in a variety of settings: individually, in pairs, in groups, and as a class. This creates a more student-centered environment and increases student talking time.

- The easiest and quickest way to put students in pairs is to have two students sitting close to one another work together. This is good for when students need to have a quick discussion or check answers.
- To ensure students don't always work with the same partner and/or for longer activities, pair students by name, e.g., Maria work with Javier.
- One way to put students in groups is to give them a number from 1 to 4, and then have all number 1s work together, all number 2s work together, and so forth.

Instructions

- Give short instructions and model the activity for the students.
- Check your instructions, but avoid asking, Do you understand? Instead ask concept questions such as, Are you going to speak or write when you do this activity?

Monitoring

- Make sure you go around the room and check that the students are doing the activity and offer help as necessary.
- Monitor closely during controlled practice, but don't make yourself too accessible during fluency activities; otherwise, students may rely on you to answer questions rather than focus on communicating their ideas to their partner or group.

Teaching lower-level students

- Teach the Classroom Language on page xxiii and put useful language up in the classroom, so the students get used to using English.
- Don't rush. Make sure all the students have had enough time to practice the material.
- Do a lot of repetition and drilling of the new target language.
- Encourage students to practice and review target language by doing activities in the Workbook and Self-study.
- Elicit answers from your students and involve them in the learning process. Even though they are beginners, they may have a passive knowledge of English. Find out what they already know by asking them questions.
- Use the optional activities within the Teaching Notes and the Supplementary Resources Overview charts at the beginning of each unit in this Teacher's Edition to add variety to your lessons.

Teaching reading and listening

- Reading and Listening texts are meant to help the students become better readers/ listeners, not to test them. Explain to your students why they need to read or listen to a text several times.
- Adapt the reading speed to the purpose of the reading. When the students read for gist, encourage them to read quickly. When students read for detail, give them more time.

My Plan for Unit 1

Use the space below to customize a plan that fits your needs.

With the following SB exercises	I am using these materials in class	My students are using these materials outside the classroom
With or instead of the following SB section	I am using these materials for assessment

Where are you from?

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-5

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use be and possessive adjectives in a conversation about people meeting for the first time

TIP

To learn your Ss' names, have them make name cards. Each S folds a piece of paper in thirds and writes his or her name on one side. Then they place the name cards on their desks.

[CD 1, Track 1]

- Focus Ss' attention on the picture. Ask: "Where are the people? What are they doing? How old are they?" Encourage Ss to make guesses.
- Set the scene. Arturo is meeting Alexa for the first
- Books closed. Write these questions on the board:
 - 1. Where is Alexa from?
 - 2. Where is Arturo from?
- Play the first part of the audio program. Elicit Ss' answers. (Answers: 1. Brazil 2. Mexico)

In Unit 1, students introduce oneself and others, and talk about oneself and learn about others. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to introduce themselves and others using be and possessive adjectives, and ask and answer Wh-questions to find out information about others and to state information about themselves. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to ask and answer yes/no questions to find out information about others and to state information about themselves.

• Write this on the board for the next task:

First name

Last name

Alexandra/Alexa

Arturo

- Play the first part of the audio program again. Ss listen to find out Alexa's and Arturo's last names. Then elicit the answers and write them on the board. (Answers: Costa, Valdez)
- Books open. Play the first part of the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently. Ss stand up and practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: Ss use their own information to practice the first part of the conversation. Before they start, ask Ss to underline the names and countries, so they know what information to substitute.
- Ask: "Where is Soo-jin from?" Play the rest of the audio program and elicit the answer. (Answer: South Korea)
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

SPEAKING

Learning Objectives: introduce oneself; check information about others

A Pair work

- Introduce yourself to the class using your first and last names. Explain that sometimes people misunderstand information like names, so it's important to ask polite questions to check information. Focus Ss' attention on the useful expressions box. Go over each expression. Point out the intonation of the questions.
- Have Ss ask you the questions from the box. Respond with information about yourself. Then model the example dialogue with a strong S, and spell your last name.

- Ss use their own information to ask and answer the questions with the classmate sitting next to them and then with three different classmates.
- Option: Review the letters of the alphabet.

B Class Activity

- Explain the task. Then choose a student and model the task for the class. Tell the class the student's name and how to spell it.
- Ss tell the class about the first person they spoke to in part A.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use be in a conversation between three people who have just met

A [CD 1, Track 2]

- Books closed. Set the scene. Alexa is introducing Arturo to Soo-jin. Ask: "What is Soo-jin's last name?" Play the audio program and elicit the answer. (Answer: Kim)
- Books open. Elicit or explain the meaning of What's . . . like? Ask the class: "Where is Arturo from? What's it like?" Ss check answers in the Conversation on page 2. (Answers: Mexico, really beautiful)
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read the conversation silently. Then they practice it.
- For a new way to practice this conversation, try Look Up and Speak! - download it from the website.

D B [CD 1, Track 3]

- Elicit names of cities in Mexico (e.g., Mexico City, Acapulco). Then read the two focus questions.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen to find the answers to the questions. Elicit the answers.

Audio script

Soo-jin So, Arturo, where are you from?

Arturo I'm from Mexico. Really? What city? Soo-jin

Arturo Puebla.

Soo-jin Interesting. What's it like there? Well, it's a really beautiful city, and the Arturo food there is great!

Answers

Arturo is from Puebla. It's a really beautiful city, and the food is great.

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural by linking words

[CD 1, Track 4]

- Explain that some English words sound unnatural when pronounced separately. Therefore, native speakers usually link these words.
- Play the audio program. Point out the linked sounds. Ask Ss to practice the sentences.
- Option: Play the audio program for the Conversation on page 3 again. Then tell Ss to practice linking sounds in selected sentences (e.g., This is Arturo.).

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objectives: make statements/contractions with be; use possessive adjectives to describe oneself and others; ask and answer Wh-questions with be

[CD 1, Track 5]

Statements with be and contractions of be

- Introduce yourself ("I'm . . . "). Explain that it's common to use contractions (e.g., I'm) when speaking. Tell Ss to go around the room and introduce themselves.
- Go over the contractions in the Grammar Focus box. Close your thumb and first finger to show how the pronouns + be become contractions. For example, your thumb (you) and first finger (are) contract to become you're.

Possessive adjectives

• Explain the difference between subject pronouns and possessive adjectives by writing this on the board:

I am Arturo. My name is Arturo. You are Soo-jin. Your name is Soo-jin.

- Play the audio program for the first Grammar Focus box.
- 🔀 For more practice with possessive adjectives, try the Chain Game – download it from the website.

• Ss complete the sentences individually or in pairs. Go over answers with the class.

- 1. My name is Aiko Yoshida. I'm from Japan. My family is in Nagoya. My brother is a college student. His name is Haruki.
- 2. My name is Matias. I'm from Santiago. It's a really nice city. My sister is a student here. Our parents are in Chile right now.
- 3. I'm Angelica, but everyone calls me Angie. My last name is Newton. I'm a student at City College. My parents are on vacation this week. They're in Las Vegas.

[CD 1, Track 6]

Wh-questions with be

• Write these questions and answers on the board:

Questions	Answers
Where's your friend?	She's my classmate.
Who's Soo-jin?	It's a very exciting city.
What's Seoul like?	He's in class.
Where are you and Vanessa	They're really nice.
from?	We're from Brazil.
How are your classes?	They're pretty
What are your classmates	interesting.
like?

Books closed. Ask Ss to match the questions and answers on the board.

- Books open. Ss check answers with the Grammar Focus box. Answer any questions.
- Play the audio program.
- Option: Divide the class into two groups. Group A asks the questions and Group B answers. Then change roles.

B

• Ss complete the questions individually. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

- 1. Who is/Who's that?
- 2. Where is/Where's she from?
- 3. What is/What's her first name?
- 4. Who are the two students over there?
- 5. Where are they from?
- 6. What are they like?

- Explain the second part of the task. Ss practice the conversations in pairs. Model the task with a strong S and then with another S.
- Ss complete the task in pairs.

C Group work

- Explain the task. Read the example questions in the box. Elicit possible Wh-questions from the class.
- Option: Ss look at the Conversations on pages 2 and 3 for examples of Wh-questions with be. (Answers: Where are you from? Who's Soo-jin? Where's she from? What's your last name again? What's Seoul
- Ss write five Wh-questions individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ss work in small groups. They take turns asking and answering their questions.
- Go around the class and write down any errors. Then write the questions or answers with errors on the board. Ss correct the errors as a class.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

Cycle 2, Exercises 6–12

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss school subjects

- Books closed. Ask Ss what school subjects they study in addition to English. Then ask Ss to name as many school subjects as they can.
- Books open. Focus Ss' attention on the pictures. Then read the list of school subjects in the box. Did the class name all of these subjects? Elicit or explain any unfamiliar subjects.
- Students write the names of the subjects under the pictures individually.
- Go over the answers with the class.

Answers

- 1. math 5. physical education
- 2. biology 6. literature
- 3. history 7. chemistry
- 4. geography 8. physics
- Discuss the questions with the class. Say the subjects aloud. Have Ss raise their hand when you say their favorite. Then call on individual Ss to name subjects they don't like.
- Option: Put Ss into small groups based on their favorite subject. Then each group decides on their least favorite subjects and gives reasons. Have groups share their answers with the class.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use yes/no questions and short answers with be in a conversation about finding out more information about someone

[CD 1, Track 7]

- Introduce the Conversation title. Ask: "How's it going?" Help Ss with responses (e.g., fine, not bad).
- Set the scene. A few days after meeting, Arturo sees Soo-jin and starts a conversation.
- Write these questions on the board:
 - 1. Are Arturo's classes interesting this semester?
 - 2. Are Arturo and Alexa in the same biology class?
 - 3. Is Arturo's class in the afternoon?
 - 4. Does Soo-jin invite Arturo to get coffee?

- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary. A semester is a part of the school year, usually about 15-18 weeks.
- Books closed. Play the audio program twice. Elicit answers to the questions on the board. (Answers: 1. yes 2. no 3. no 4. yes)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss look at the picture and read the conversation silently.
- Ss stand up and practice the conversation in pairs.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask yes/no questions and give short answers with be

[CD 1, Track 8]

Yes/No questions

- Write several statements with be about Arturo and Soo-jin or your own Ss on the board. For example:
 - Arturo is a student.
 - Julia and Elena are sisters.
- Focus Ss' attention on the statements. Point out that statements begin with a subject + verb.

Arturo is a student.

SV

Julia and Elena are sisters.

- Option: If you don't want to teach the terms subject and verb, use the numbers 1 and 2 instead.
- Explain that yes/no questions begin with a verb + subject. For example:

Is Arturo a student?

V S

Are Julia and Elena sisters?

- Ask Ss to change any remaining statements on the board to yes/no questions. Give help as needed.
- Ss study the Grammar Focus box questions.

Short answers with be

- Present the short answers in the Grammar Focus box. Point out that there are two ways of saying "no" for each pronoun, except for I.
- Ask yes/no questions with be about Ss in the class. Ss respond with short answers.

• Play the audio program. Focus Ss' attention on the stress in short answers (e.g., Yes, I am. No, I'm not.).

• Ss complete the conversations individually. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

- 1. A: Is Mr. Jones from the United States?
 - B: Yes, he is. He's from Baltimore.
- 2. A: Is English class at 2:00?
 - B: No, it isn't. It's at 3:00.
- 3. A: Are you and Giovanna from Italy?
 - B: Yes, we are. We're from Milan.
- 4. A: Are Mr. and Mrs. Flores Brazilian?
 - B: No, they aren't. They're Peruvian.
- Model the first conversation with a strong S and the second conversation with a different S. Then Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

B

• Explain the task. Ss write answers to the questions individually. Then they ask and answer the questions in pairs, giving the correct information for "no" answers.

C Group work

- Model the task with the first question. Ss write questions individually. Then they ask their questions.
- Option: Ss write questions in small groups. Collect the questions and give them to different groups. Ss take turns asking and answering the questions.

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: say hello and good-bye in various ways

TIP

To show Ss the purpose of an activity, write the learning objective on the board. At the end of the activity, ask Ss to say what they have achieved.

A

- Explain the task. Ss write the expressions they know in the chart.
- Copy the chart headings Hello and Good-bye on the board. Go over the first two examples with the class.
- Elicit the answers from the class and write them on the chart. Go over each expression as you write it. Then elicit more expressions and have Ss write them in the chart on the board.

Answers

Hello	Good-bye
Good morning.	Bye.
Hev.	Good night.

Have a good day. How are you? See you later. How's it going? See you tomorrow. What's up? Talk to you later. Good afternoon. See you. Good evening. Later.

(Note: Additional expressions are italicized.)

B

- Model the first greeting and response with a few Ss.
- Ss match the greetings and responses.

Answers

1. b 2. d 4. c

C Class activity

- Model the conversation with a S.
- Ss stand up and go around the room to practice greeting their classmates using expressions from the Hello column in part A. Then they practice using expressions from the Good-bye column.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for detail in conversations of people giving information about themselves

[CD 1, Track 9]

- Explain the task and the information in the chart. Ask the class: "What is William's last name? What else do we need to find out about him?"
- Play the first conversation in the audio program. Ss listen for William's last name, where he's from, and what he studies.
- Play the rest of the audio program. As Ss listen and complete the chart, copy the chart on the board.
- Elicit answers and have Ss write them in the chart on the board. Do not correct wrong answers.
- Play the audio program again. Stop after each conversation and discuss the answers on the board.

Audio script

Man Bill, this is my friend Amber. She studies history, too.

William Hi, Amber. I'm William Davis. But everyone calls me Bill.

Amber Nice to meet you, Bill. What's your last name again?

William It's Davis. D-A-V-I-S.

INTERCHANGE 1

READING

Learning Objective: scan and read for details in an article about names

TIP

Explain that in real life people read in different ways for different purposes. For example, they read manuals or recipes slowly and in detail, but they skim magazines or scan websites more quickly.

- Ask: "What names are popular in your country?" Elicit
- Focus Ss' attention on the title of the reading. Elicit or explain the meaning of trendy. Ask: "What do you think this article is about?" Elicit ideas.
- Ss scan the text quickly to find the names. Ask: "Are any of these names popular in your country? Can you think of other names like these?" Elicit names from the class.

- Explain the task. Read the statements.
- Ss read the article individually.
- Elicit or explain any unfamiliar words from the reading.

Vocabulary

trendy: fashionable, in style at this time unique: only one of its kind popular: everybody likes it space: the area outside of the Earth star: a small point of light in the sky moon: the shining round object that moves around the Earth planet: a large object in space that moves around the Sun

• Then they complete the task. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

- 1, 4, and 5 should be checked.
- Direct Ss' attention to the question at the end of the text and the name chart. Have Ss cover the answers at the bottom. Read the names with the class and ask Ss to say who made the names popular. Then look at the answers.

C Group work

- Explain the task. Read the questions aloud and give your own answers as a model.
- Ss complete the task in small groups.
- Call on students to tell the class about some of the names they discussed.

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-6

In Unit 2, students ask and answer questions about jobs, and describe routines and daily schedules. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to ask and answer questions about occupations using the simple present. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to describe routines and daily schedules using time expressions.

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss popular part-time jobs

- Books closed. Introduce the topic of jobs. Ask: "Do you have a job? What is it? Do your parents have jobs? What do they do?"
- List three jobs from the Snapshot on the board. Ss give their opinion on the best job. (Answers will vary.)
- Books open. Ss compare their ideas with the Snapshot.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

part-time job: a job for only a few hours or days babysitter: a person who takes care of babies or children when the parents are away fitness instructor: a person who leads exercise classes office assistant: a person who provides general support in an office sales associate: a person who sells things in a retail store social media assistant: a person who helps create and update content on social media tutor: a person who teaches private lessons

- Explain the task. Encourage Ss to give reasons for their opinions.
- Ss complete the task in small groups. Go around the class and give help as needed.

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: categorize types of jobs

• Ask Ss to look through the vocabulary list. Elicit or explain any new words. Model the pronunciation of new words.

TIP

If you don't have enough time to explain new words in class, ask Ss to look them up in a dictionary before class.

- Ss complete the word map individually or in pairs.
- While Ss are working, draw the word map on the board. Ask different Ss to come up and write their answers in the correct category. Go over answers with the class.

To provide variety, check answers in different ways. For example, write each answer on a separate card. Ss post the cards on the board in the correct category.

В

• Present and model the task. Ss write two more jobs for each category. Then they compare with a partner. • Ask different Ss to add their ideas to the board. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

Office work Food service cashier accountant receptionist chef web designer server sales manager dishwasher host/hostess secretary

Travel industry Entertainment business flight attendant dancer pilot musician tour guide singer front desk clerk actor/actress travel agent disc jockey

(Note: Additional examples are italicized.)

To review jobs, play the game Simon Says download it from the website. For example, if Simon says, "Be a singer," Ss act out the job.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: describe common occupations and workplaces

Group Work

- Brainstorm workplaces with the class. Write ideas on the board.
- Divide the class into teams and explain the task. Sit in the chair and ask a student to write a job on the board. Then model how to play by asking the example questions with Ss from different teams. Say, "Is this person a server?" to make a guess. Ss should answer Yes, he or she is./No, he or she isn't.
- Then teams play the game. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Make note of any grammar, pronunciation, or intonation problems to review with the class at the end of the game.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use simple present Wh-questions and statements in a conversation about jobs

A [CD 1, Track 10]

• Set the scene. Derek and Amy are talking about their jobs. Tell Ss to cover the text. Focus their attention on the picture. Ask: "What does Amy do? How does she like her job?" Encourage Ss to guess.

TIP

Give Ss (or ask Ss to bring) small cards to cover the text. That way, they can see the picture but not the text. Ask Ss to keep their cards for future classes.

- Play the audio program. Ss listen to check their
- Write these focus questions on the board:

True or false?

- 1. Derek has a full-time job.
- 2. Derek is always tired after work.
- 3. Amy doesn't like her job.
- Books closed (or text covered). Play the audio program again. Then check answers to the focus questions. (Answers: 1. false (He has a part-time job.) 2. true 3. false (She thinks her job is great.))
- Books open (or uncover the text). Play the conversation line by line, giving Ss time to repeat it.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

For a new way to practice this conversation, try the Substitution Dialog – download it from the website. Have Ss replace the underlined words:

A: What do you do, Derek?

B: I'm a server. I serve people food. And what do you do, Amy?

A: I'm a dancer. I work with incredible people.

B [CD 1, Track 11]

• Read the two focus questions aloud. Then play the second part of the audio program. Elicit answers from the class.

Audio script

Derek Amy	So, where exactly do you work? I work at a dance company, but I travel a lot, too.
Derek	Do you always dance with the same group of people?
Amy	Yes and no. I travel with a small group of people from New York. But I also meet new dancers and musicians in every city. Last month I worked in Rome.

Answers

Amy travels with a small group of people from New York. She meets new dancers and musicians in every city.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer simple present Wh-questions

[CD 1, Track 12]

Simple present statements

• Books closed. Write these sentences on the board. allowing space between lines:

I work part-time as a server. I work at Stella's Café downtown. I'm on my feet all day, so I'm always tired.

• Books open. Ask: "Who said this?" (Answer: Derek) Ask Ss to describe his job. Write the new version below the original:

He works part-time as a server. He works at Stella's Café downtown. He's on his feet all day, so he's always tired.

- Point out that the verbs for he, she, and it end in -s.
- Option: Repeat the activity with sentences about Amy.

TIP

Write the letter s on a card. Every time Ss forget to use the final -s, hold up the card. Write the word does on a separate card for the same purpose.

• Focus Ss' attention on the last column in the Grammar Focus box. Point out the spelling changes that occur with he/she.

Simple present Wh-questions

- Draw a chart with six columns on the board. Number the columns from 1 to 6.
- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 9. Ask Ss to find questions with the word do in part A. Then read the first question about Amy in part B. Write them in the chart:

1	2	3	4	5	6
What	do	you	do?
What	restaurant	do	you	work	at?
How	do	you	like	it?
Who	does	Amv	travel	with?

• Focus Ss' attention on the questions in the chart and in the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rule for forming Wh-questions in the simple present: Wh- + do/does + subject + verb?

- Ask Ss the questions in the Grammar Focus box. Ss use their own information for the first three questions.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen and repeat.

• Ss complete the task individually. Then they compare answers with a partner.

TIP

To build Ss' confidence, have them compare answers in pairs or groups before you check answers as a class.

Go over answers with the class. Then Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

Answers

- 1. A: What do you do?
 - B: I'm a full-time student. I study the piano.
 - A: And where do you go to school?
 - B: I go to the Brooklyn School of Music.
 - A: Wow! How do you like your classes?
 - B: I like them a lot.
- 2. A: What does Tanya do?
 - B: She's a teacher. She teaches an art class at a school in Denver.
 - A: And what about Ryan? Where does he work?
 - B: He works for a big computer company in San Francisco.
 - A: What does he do, exactly?
 - B: He's a web designer. He designs fantastic websites.
- 3. A: What do Bruce and Ivy do?
 - B: They work at an Italian restaurant. It's really good.
 - A: That's nice. What is Ivy's job?
 - B: Well, she manages the finances and Bruce works in the kitchen.
- 4. A: Where does Ali work?
 - B: He works at the university. He has a parttime job.
 - A: Really? What does he do?
 - B: He does office work.
 - A: How does he like it?
 - B: Not much, but he has/gets some extra money to spend!

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Model asking and answering the questions with a S. Have Ss take notes on their partner's answers so they can use the notes to write about their partner in Exercise 6.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and check for use of the simple present.

C Class work

- Model the task. Ask a S to tell the class about their
- Go around the class, giving each S a chance to speak.

6 WRITING

Learning Objective: write a biography

A

- Tell Ss to read the model biography silently. Explain any new vocabulary. Point out that the biography does not have the person's name.
- Ss write their biographies. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: Ss write the biographies for homework.

B Class activity

- Collect the biographies and number them. Then pass them around the class. Ss make a numbered list and write their guesses next to each number.
- Elicit Ss' guesses about each biography.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

Cycle 2, Exercises 7-12

7 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use time expressions in a conversation about daily routines

A [CD 1, Track 13]

- Point out the title and the picture. Ask: "What is this conversation about?" Elicit ideas.
- Books closed (or text covered). Ask: "Where does Kristina work?" Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answer. (Answer: She works at the National Bank.)
- Write these questions on the board:
 - 1. What time does Kristina usually start work?
 - 2. What time does Kristina eat dinner?
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen for the answers. (Answers: 1. at 1:00 in the afternoon 2. at 10:30 P.M.)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss read the conversation silently. Then they practice in pairs.
- Option: To review the simple present, ask Ss to describe Kristina's daily routine from memory.

D B [CD 1, Track 14]

- Read the two focus questions.
- Play the audio program. Elicit answers from the class.

Audio script

Kristina If you go to sleep at 8:00, what time do you wake up?

Taxi Driver Pretty early. I start work at 4:00 in the morning.

Kristina Four in the morning! Wow. What's your typical day like?

Taxi Driver Well, I get up at 3:00 A.M. Then I drive from 4:00 in the morning until 2:00 in the afternoon.

Kristina That's a long day!

Taxi Driver Yes, but I like it. I talk to people from all over the world and see many beautiful parts of the city.

Kristina That's nice. I only see the National Bank.

Answers

The taxi driver starts work at 4:00 in the morning. He finishes at 2:00 in the afternoon.

8 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: use correct syllable stress with two- and three-syllable words

A [CD 1, Track 15]

- Explain that some syllables have more stress. Read the examples, clapping on the stressed syllable.
- Play the audio program. Ss clap on stressed syllables.

D B [CD 1, Track 16]

- Ss complete the chart individually.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen and check their answers. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use time expressions with prepositions and adverbs to describe routines and schedules

[CD 1, Track 17]

Prepositions of time: at/in/on + time

- Draw three large circles on the board and label them at, in, and on.
- Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Ask: "What words follow at, in, and on?" Different Ss write the words inside the circles on the board.
- Elicit or explain the rules: at + times of day; night in + parts of day (except night) on + days of the week

For more practice with prepositions of time, play Run For It! – download it from the website.

Adverbs of time

• Elicit or explain the meanings of early, around, late, until, before, and after. Then play the audio program.

• Ss complete the task individually or in pairs.

• Go around the class and give help as needed. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

- 1. I get up at six on weekdays.
- 2. I have lunch at 11:30 on Mondays.
- 3. I have a snack around 10:00 at night.
- 4. On Fridays, I leave school early.
- 5. I stay up until 1:00 A.M. on weekends.
- 6. I sleep until noon on Sundays.
- 7. I have dinner at 7:00 on weeknights.
- 8. I read a book before I go to sleep.
- 9. On weekends, I go to bed at 1:00 A.M.
- 10. On Thursdays, I leave work at 9:00 P.M.
- 11. I work late on Wednesdays.
- 12. I study until 11:00 after dinner.

- Model the task. Rewrite one or two sentences on the board so that they are true for you.
- Ss work individually. Then they go over their answers in pairs.

C Pair work

• Model the task. First, Ss ask you the questions. Then Ss complete the task in pairs.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for specific information in a conversation about routines

A [CD 1, Track 18]

- Focus students' attention on the chart. Then play the audio program, stopping after each person talks about his or her schedule. Ss complete the chart individually.
- Play the audio program again.
- Go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Aaron

Madison What do you do, Aaron?

Aaron I'm a carpenter.

Madison Oh, yeah? So, what hours do you work? I work eight hours a day, from Monday to Friday. I get up around 6:00 A.M., and I work from 7:00 A.M. until 3:00 P.M. I get home pretty early, about 4:00 P.M. I go to bed at 10:00. And what do you do,

Madison?

Madison Well, I'm an accountant. It's a regular nine-to-five office job, so I get up at 7:00 A.M. and get home around 6:00 P.M.

That's OK, though, because I like to go out at night. I go to bed around midnight on weekdays. Aaron What about you, Kayla? Well, my hours are a bit different – I'm Kayla a nurse. I start work at 11:00 at night. I work until 7:00 A.M. Madison Wow! So what time do you get up? Kayla I get home at 8:00 and go to bed at about 8:30. And I sleep until 4:00 P.M. And what do you do in the evenings? Aaron Oh, you know. I have dinner, watch TV, Kayla see friends. It's a great schedule for me.

INTERCHANGE 2

READING

Learning Objectives: make predictions; read for specific information in an article about jobs

TIP

To help Ss focus on the task, tell them not to worry about words they don't understand. Encourage them to keep reading when they see new words.

- Set the scene. Explain that young people have jobs that didn't exist when their parents were young, especially jobs related to computers, the Internet, and smartphones. There are also jobs that weren't popular many years ago. Ask: "What are some jobs that parents don't understand?" Elicit ideas and write them on the board.
- Focus Ss' attention on the pictures. Tell Ss to cover the text. Ask: "Who studies people? Who helps people exercise more?" Encourage Ss to guess.
- Then set a time limit of one minute. Ss skim the article quickly to check their guesses. (Answers: Nico studies people. Lisa helps people exercise more.) Then elicit or explain Danny's and Carla's jobs.
- Have small groups discuss why these jobs, and others, are hard to understand. Have groups share their ideas with the class.

B

- Explain the task. Tell Ss to guess the meanings of any new words.
- Ss read the article and complete the task. Go over answers with the class.

- 3. Carla 4. Danny
- 2. Nico

• Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

posts: online messages, such as blog posts, comments, photos social media: electronic communication that lets people share information on the Internet fabrics: cloth, especially that people use to make sociologist: a person who studies society and relationships between people behave: to do or say things apps: short for "applications"; small computer programs that you can use on a smartphone or other device get fit: to exercise in order to be in good physical condition

C Pair work

- Read the focus questions with the class. Elicit ideas from the class for other jobs, hobbies, or school classes that are hard to explain.
- In small groups, Ss discuss the questions.
- Have groups share their ideas with the class.
- Option: Have small groups look back through the jobs in Exercises 1, 2, and 3 and find the three jobs that are most difficult to explain. Groups determine the reason each job is difficult to understand and then explain it to the class.

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

Progress check

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one's learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: "What did you learn in Units 1 and 2?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check () A little.
- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
 - 1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
 - 2. Ask Ss: "What do you need to practice?" Then assign exercises based on their answers.
 - 3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objectives: demonstrate one's ability to make an introduction using basic greeting and leavetaking expressions; demonstrate one's ability to ask for repetition or clarification

A Pair work

- Read the instructions aloud and focus Ss' attention on the picture. Explain that Ss should pretend they don't know their partners in this role play.
- Model the role play with a S. Explain how to use the conversation cues.
- Ss role-play the conversation in pairs. Encourage Ss to use appropriate body language and gestures, add follow-up questions, and ask for clarification where appropriate.

• Option: Ss introduce themselves without referring to the example conversation.

B Group work

• Each pair joins another pair. Ss introduce their partners to the other pair and ask follow-up questions.

If you don't have enough class time for the speaking activities, assign each S a speaking partner. Then have Ss complete the activities with their partners for homework.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to ask and answer questions about oneself and others

- Explain the task and model the first question. Ss should consider if the questions are Wh- or yes/no questions.
- Ss work individually to write the seven questions. Point out that there may be more than one correct question for each answer.
- Go over Ss' questions with the class.

Possible answers

- 1. What's your name?
- 2. Where are you from?
- 3. Are your classes interesting?
- 4. What's your favorite class?
- 5. Is your teacher American?
- 6. What are your classmates like?
- 7. Who is your best friend?
- Ss work in pairs. They take turns using the questions to interview each other. Encourage Ss to add followup questions.
- Option: Each S uses the questions to interview another S

3 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to ask about and describe common jobs

A

- Explain the task. Then elicit things a software engineer does and write them on the board.
- Ss complete the task individually or in pairs.

B Group work

- Ss compare their lists in small groups. Encourage Ss to ask Wh-questions about the jobs (e.g., What does a software engineer do? Where does a software engineer work?).
- Go around the class and check Ss' use of the simple present.

4 LISTENING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to understand descriptions of people's occupations and routines

A [CD 1, Track 19]

- Set the scene. Austin and Haley are talking about work and school.
- Play the audio program once or twice. Ss listen and complete the chart.

Audio script

Austin Hey, Dylan. How are you?

Dylan I'm great, Austin. Welcome to my house.

Oh, Austin, this is my friend Haley.

Austin Hi, Haley. It's nice to meet you.

Haley Nice to meet you, too, Austin.

Dylan Excuse me.

Haley So how do you know Dylan? Austin Oh, we work in the same office.

Haley Really? What do you do?

Austin I'm a web designer. I'm also in school.

Haley That's exciting! What do you study?

Austin I study art history.

Haley Oh, cool! How do you like it?

Austin It's OK. I'm very busy. I usually finish with work and school at 10:30 and get home at 11:00.

Haley That's late!

Austin Yeah. After work, I usually go to bed right away. What about you? What do you do?

Haley Oh, I'm a student. I study dance.

Austin Wow! Now that's exciting! Where do you study?

Haley At New York Dance.

Austin How do you like your classes?

Haley They're great. I dance all day long. It's hard, but I love it.

Austin What do you do after school?

Haley I have a new part-time job. I work in an office.

Austin Where is the office?

Haley Actually, I work in your office!

Austin You do? Well, stop by and say hello sometime.

Haley OK.

Answers

Austin

B Pair work

• Explain the task. Ss take turns asking and answering the questions in part A.

5 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to ask and answer questions about routines

A

• Elicit or explain the meaning of a perfect day. Model the task by having a S ask you the questions.

• Ss complete the task individually.

B Pair work

• Ss take turns describing their perfect day in pairs. Encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one's learning

- Focus Ss' attention on the Self-assessment again.
 Ask: "How well can you do these things now?"
- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: "What did you underline? How can you review it?"
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss' answers.

My Plan for Unit 3

Use the space below to customize a plan that fits your needs.

With the following SB exercises	I am using these materials in class	My students are using these materials outside the classroom
With or instead of the following SB section	I am using these materials for assessment

How much are these?

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-7

In Unit 3, students ask about and describe prices and discuss preferences. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to use demonstratives, one, and ones to ask about and describe prices. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to discuss preferences using comparisons with adjectives.

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: describe the meaning of colors

- Books closed. Ask several Ss: "What is your favorite color?" Write the colors on the board. Help with vocabulary for colors as needed.
- Ask several Ss to choose between pairs of adjectives for colors. For example, ask: "Is red exciting or sad? Is white jealous or hopeful?"
- Books open. Explain that colors have different meanings in different countries. Discuss the meanings in the Snapshot. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

hopeful: feeling positive about the future truthful: honest friendly: nice to other people; sociable powerful: strong jealous: unhappy because you want someone's things confident: believing you can do anything creative: good at thinking of new, unique ideas • Focus Ss' attention on the first two questions. Draw this chart on the board:

Positive meanings Negative meanings hopeful sad

- Ask different Ss to add adjectives from the Snapshot to the chart. Does everyone agree on the placement of exciting? Of creative?
- Ss discuss the remaining questions in pairs. Allow about five minutes. Then discuss the questions as a
- Option: Select three colors. In pairs or groups, Ss make lists of all the things in the room with those

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use demonstratives, one, and ones in a conversation about asking about prices while shopping

A [CD 1, Track 20]

- To set the scene, focus Ss' attention on the picture. Ask: "Where are they? What are they doing?"
- Write this focus question on the board: What color sweater does he buy?
- Books closed (or text covered). Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answer. (Answer: green)
- Option: Write these focus questions on the board:
 - 1. How much is the light blue sweater?
 - 2. Why does he buy the green sweater?

Then play the audio again. Ss check answers. (Answers: 1. $150 2. It's on sale./It's not too expensive.)

- Books open (or uncover the text). Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read along silently.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

I'll take it!: I'll buy it.

- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.
- For a new way to practice this conversation, try the Onion Ring technique – download it from the website.

B [CD 1, Track 21]

• Read the two focus questions aloud. Then play the audio program. Elicit answers from the class.

Audio script

Salesclerk We also have this beautiful blue watch.

Customer Oh, that's pretty. My sister likes watches.

Salesclerk It's on sale today only.

Customer How much is it?

Salesclerk It's $52.50.

Customer Hmm . . . I don't think so. I'll just take the sweater. Thanks for your help.

Answers

He looks at a watch. He doesn't buy it.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use demonstratives, one, and ones to ask about and describe prices

[CD 1, Track 22]

Demonstratives

- Books closed. Point to Ss' things and make statements with this and these (e.g., "This is Paul's pen. This is Lily's necklace. These are David's glasses.").
- Hold some things close to show how we use this or these for nearby things. Explain that this refers to a singular thing, while these refers to plurals.
- Option: Ss place their things in a bag. Each S takes out something and says whose it is (e.g., "This is Iris's pen.").
- Place something far away to show how we use that and those. Ss point to things and make statements (e.g., "That is Hector's book. Those are Tony's keys."). Explain that that refers to a singular thing, while those refers to plural things.
- To check Ss' understanding of demonstratives and review colors, ask about things in the room (e.g., "What color is this pen? What color are those books?").

One/Ones

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 16. Ask Ss to find examples of one and ones.
- For each example, ask: "What noun does one replace?" (Answers: the light blue sweater or the green sweater) Elicit the rule: One replaces a singular noun. Note that ones replaces a plural noun.
- Play the first part of the audio program.

To raise awareness of both the meaning and form of a new structure, always link the Grammar Focus to the Conversation.

Saying prices

- Play the rest of the audio program. Ss repeat the prices. Present additional examples as needed.
- For practice in listening for prices, play Bingo using prices instead of words - download it from the website.

- Model the first line of the first conversation.
- Ss complete the task individually. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

- 1. A: Excuse me. How much are those jeans?
 - B: Which ones? Do you mean these?
 - A: No, the light blue ones.
 - B: Oh, those are $59.95.
 - A: Wow! That's expensive.
- 2. A: How much is that backpack?
 - B: Which one?
 - A: The orange one.
 - B: It's $36.99. But this green one is only $22.25.
 - A: That's not bad. Can I see it, please?
- Ss practice the conversations in pairs.
- Option: Bring in two different pairs of sunglasses, pens, necklaces, or hats. Then Ss practice the conversations again using these things.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs to choose prices for the boots, baseball caps, and sunglasses.
- Model the example conversation with a S. Point out the useful expressions box. Elicit or explain the meaning of the words cheap, reasonable, not bad, and expensive. Elicit prices of sneakers to use as examples of each word. Then Ss take turns asking and answering questions about the items. Go around the class to check for the use of demonstratives and one or ones.
- Option: If you live in an English-speaking environment, have Ss go to a store to ask the prices of three things in English.
- Option: Bring in clothing catalogs. Ss use them to practice the conversations.
- For a new way to practice this conversation, try the Substitution Dialog – download it from the website.

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural by using correct sentence stress

A [CD 1, Track 23]

- Remind Ss that in each word, one syllable has more stress. Explain that important words in a sentence also have more stress.
- Read the examples, clapping on the stressed words.
- Play the audio program. Ss clap on each stressed
- Play the audio program again. Pause for Ss to repeat the sentences, stressing important words.

B Pair work

• Ss practice the conversations in part A of Exercise 3 again. Correct Ss' use of sentence stress as needed.

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: ask about prices of items for sale

A Pair work

• Place several items of different colors on your desk. Use things such as notebooks, watches, phones, or bags.

- Model the task with a S.
- Ss work in pairs. Tell Ss to ask about the price of more than one item.

• Ss change roles and try the role play again.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details in conversations about shopping

A [CD 1, Track 24]

- Set the scene. Two people are shopping. They want to know the prices of four things.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen and complete the color and price rows in their books.

Audio script

Woman Look at this! It's really awesome - and it's Man It's nice. But you have a tablet. How much is it? Woman Let's see . . . Wow, it's expensive! It's $499. I guess I don't really need it. Let's go.

Man Here are some great headphones for you! Woman Which ones? Those white ones? Man No, these. The blue ones.

Woman Oh, these are nice. Are they expensive? Man Not really. They're only $9.95.

Woman That's reasonable. I think I'll get them.

Man What do you think of these sunglasses? Woman They're . . . interesting. How much are they? Man They're only $11.50. That's cheap. Woman Try them on. They look great! Green is a good color on you.

Man OK. I'll get them.

Woman I love these T-shirts! Do you like them? Man Yeah, I do. Why don't you get one?

Woman Hmm, they're pretty expensive. I only have $20.

Man Hey! These T-shirts aren't bad. They're only $12. Woman Oh, those are nice, too.

Man So, what color? How about this red and yellow one? Do you like it?

Woman Not really. Hey, all these shirts are red and yellow. I think that's why they're on sale.

Man So do you want one?

Woman No, let's go. I'm hungry. It's time for lunch.

Answers

	1. tablet	2. headphones	3. sunglasses	4. T-shirt color	purple	blue	green	red and yellow price	$499	$9.95	$11.50	$12
Do they buy it?	No	Yes	Yes	No

B [CD 1, Track 25]

- Play the audio program again. Ss listen to find out if the people buy the things.
- Go over answers with the class.

INTERCHANGE 3

See pages T-116 and T-117 for teaching notes.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: identify common clothing items and materials

- If possible, bring in one thing made of each material: cotton, rubber, gold, silk, leather, silver, plastic, and wool. Write the names of the materials on cards. Put the items on your desk with the cards next to them.
- Say the word for each material. Ss repeat the word.
- Explain the task. Ss work individually to complete the exercise. Go around the class and give help. Make sure that Ss do not add -s to the adjectives (e.g., NOT wools socks, rubbers boots).
- Go over answers with the class.

Answers

- 1. a silk tie
- 2. a gold bracelet
- 3. a silver ring
- 4. a cotton shirt
- 5. a leather belt
- 6. plastic earrings
- 7. rubber flip-flops
- 8. wool socks

B Pair work

• Write the names of the eight things in part A across the top of the board. Ask the guestion in the book.

• Ask different Ss to write possible materials below each thing on the board. For example, under socks they can write wool, cotton, or silk.

TIP

Ss usually forget about 80 percent of new words after 24 hours. To help them remember more, recycle or review new vocabulary the next class.

C Class activity

- Model the sentence for the class.
- Ss make as many statements as possible. Point out that they can use other patterns (e.g., "I'm wearing ...").
- Option: Ss write four sentences about what they have or what they're wearing on a piece of paper. Collect the papers and read the sentences aloud. Then Ss guess who wrote the sentences.
- Option: Use the materials word cards. Ask Ss to place the cards next to other items in the classroom made of these materials.
- For more practice with vocabulary for materials, play Change Chairs - download it from the website. Give the first command: "Change chairs if you have a leather jacket."

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use comparisons with adjectives in a conversation about preferences

A [CD 1, Track 26]

- Elicit ideas and vocabulary based on the picture.
- Set the scene. Alex and Kristin are shopping. Ask Ss to listen for answers to these focus questions:
 - 1. What are they shopping for?
 - 2. Which dress does Alex prefer?
 - 3. Does Alex buy the dress?
- Books closed. Play the audio program. Then check answers to the focus questions. (Answers: 1. dresses 2. the one with lighter material 3. no)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read along silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

For a new way to teach this Conversation, try Say It with Feeling! - download it from the website.

B [CD 1, Track 27]

• Read the two focus questions aloud. Then play the audio program. Elicit answers from the class.

Audio script

Alex Wow! That dress is really expensive. I don't want to spend that much money.

Kristin Oh, look. There are some things on sale over there.

Oh, you're right. These dresses are really Alex nice. And they're cheap! I like this one. Is it silk?

Kristin Let's see . . . Yes, it is. It's perfect for the wedding.

Alex Great! I'll take it.

Answers

She buys a silk dress. Kristin likes it.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use adjectives to state preferences and make comparisons

[CD 1, Track 28]

Preferences

- Bring some items to class that are similar (e.g., two rings, two hats, two pens, two T-shirts).
- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 19. Ask: "Which dresses do Alex and Kristin prefer? Why?" Write the answers on the board and underline the words likes and better:

Kristin likes the black one better. It looks more stylish. Alex likes the other one better. The material is lighter than the black one.

- Point out that like better means prefer.
- Hold up two similar items (e.g., two hats). Ask two or three Ss: "Which one do you prefer?" Elicit the response: "I prefer . . . " or "I like . . . better." Repeat with other pairs of items.
- Option: Use two pairs of similar items to review ones.

Comparisons with adjectives

• Underline more stylish and lighter in the sentences on the board. Then draw two columns on the board, like this:

liahter more expensive more stylish nicer more beautiful prettier

TIP

To help Ss see the differences in grammar forms, use different colors on the board.

- Point out that column 1 has two one-syllable adjectives (light, nice) and one two-syllable adjective that ends in -y (pretty). The comparative forms of these adjectives end in -er.
- Point out that column 2 has adjectives of two or more syllables (e.g., expensive). The comparative forms of these start with more.
- Elicit more comparative adjectives for both columns. Ask different Ss to write them on the board.

- Point out the spelling rules in the Grammar Focus box. A final -y changes to -i when we add -er (prettier), and a single vowel + consonant doubles the consonant (bigger).
- Present the irregular forms: good better and bad worse. Then play the audio program.
- Hold up two items again. Ask: "Which . . . do you prefer? Why do you prefer it/them?" Elicit answers.
- Option: Ask Ss to look back over previous units to find more adjectives. (See pages 7 and 16.) Elicit the comparative forms and ask different Ss to write them in column 1 or 2

- Explain the task. Remind Ss to look at the pictures when answering.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then go over answers with the class.

Answers

- 1. A: Which of these jackets do you like more?
 - B: I prefer the leather one. The design is nicer, and it looks more expensive than the wool
- 2. A: These sweaters are nice. Which one do you prefer?
 - B: I like the gray one better. The color is prettier. It's more attractive than the brown and yellow one.
- 3. A: Which rings do you like better?
 - B: I like the silver ones more. They're smaller than the gold ones. And they're cheaper.
- Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

B Pair work

- Focus Ss' attention on the pictures in part A. Model the conversation with a S. Go over the useful expressions.
- Ss work in pairs. They talk about the items, giving their opinions.
- For more practice making comparative forms, play Tic-Tac-Toe – download it from the website.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write a paragraph about favorite clothes

- Have Ss read the questions and sample paragraph. Allow three minutes.
- Ask: "What are the writer's favorite clothes? What clothes doesn't the writer like so much?" (Answers: cotton T-shirts and jeans; shirts and ties, pants, suits.)
- Have Ss list their favorite clothes and adjectives that describe the clothes or why they like them. Then Ss list the clothes they don't like as much and the reasons.
- Ss work individually. They write a paragraph comparing their favorite clothes and the clothes they don't like.

• Ss work in small groups. They read each other's paragraphs and ask questions.

READING

Learning Objectives: skim for main ideas; read for specific information in an article about online shopping

TIP

To help Ss understand what reading strategy to use, focus their attention on the purpose of the task. For example: "Today we're going to practice skimming a text to find the main points.

- Set the scene. Ask: "How often do you go shopping? Do you shop online? What kind of things do you buy on the Internet?"
- Explain that this article is about unusual things people can buy online.
- Option: If Ss have access to the Internet, tell them to look at shopping or online auction websites to look for odd and unusual things for sale. If Ss have smartphones, they can look on shopping apps.
- Go over the task. Elicit some reasons from the class. Then they skim the text quickly to check
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

crazy: strange extraordinary: unusual or out of the ordinary online: using the Internet land: the surface of a planet certificate: an official document place a bid: compete against other people to buy something by offering a specific amount of money pet rock: a small rock used as a humorous "pet" in place of living animals or plants in the 1970s

- Explain the task. Ss read the article. Ss then answer the questions individually.
- Option: Ss work in pairs. One S answers questions a and b, while the other S answers questions c and d. Then they share their answers.
- Ss compare answers in pairs or small groups.

Answers

- a. sneakers, paragraph 3
- b. digital pet rock, paragraph 4
- c. someone to stand in line, paragraph 2
- d. a piece of land on the moon, paragraph 1

C Group Work

- Explain the task. Read the first sentence. Ask the class where they can find information about pet rocks in the article. (Answer: paragraph 4) Read the remaining questions.
- Ss work in small groups to discuss the questions. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Have groups share their discussions with the class.

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-7

In Unit 4, students discuss entertainment likes and dislikes and make, accept, and decline invitations. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to discuss entertainment likes and dislikes using yes/no and Wh-questions with do. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to make, accept, and decline invitations using would and verb + to + verb.

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss popular types of music

- Books closed. Ask: "What kind of music is popular in your country?" Help with vocabulary as needed. Write answers on the board.
- Books open. Point out the percentage signs. Ask: "What is this symbol called? What does this chart show?" (Answers: percent; music sales in the U.S.)
- Read out the names of the music styles. Ask: "What kind of music is popular in the U.S.? What music is unpopular? Does anything surprise you about the information?" Elicit answers.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

R&B: rhythm and blues hip-hop: music of African American origin, with rhyming words and a strong beat country: music from the southern and western U.S.

electronic: music created by electric instruments and computers Latin: music from any Spanish-speaking area (e.g., Latin America and Spain) jazz: music of African American origin, with a strong rhythm

- Brainstorm with Ss what the "other" category might include (e.g., reggae, salsa).
- Go over the discussion questions. Ss discuss them in small groups. Then elicit answers from the class.
- Option: What kind of music does the class like best? Take a poll.

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: categorize types of movies, TV shows, and music

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs or small groups. Allow them to use dictionaries. Remind Ss that some words can go in more than one category.
- Draw the word map on the board. Ask different Ss to write the answers on the board. Model the pronunciation of the words as you check answers.

B

- Ss add two more words to each category. Then they compare answers in pairs.
- Ask different Ss to write their new words on the board. Go over their answers and model the pronunciation.

Answers

TV shows	Movies	Music
game show	action	electronic reality show	horror	rap
soap opera	musical	reggae talk show	science fiction	salsa cartoon	adventure	classical documentary	animation	hip-hop
news	comedy	jazz
sitcom	drama	opera
sports event	western	рор

(Note: Additional examples are italicized.)

• Option: To help Ss remember the words in the categories, add names of popular TV shows, movies, and songs or musicians.

C Group work

- Explain the task. Ss work individually to rank their items from 1 to 6.
- Option: Review language for preferences from Unit 3.
- Ss compare their ideas in small groups.

3 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use yes/no and Wh-questions with do in a conversation about entertainment likes and dislikes

A [CD 1, Track 29]

- Set the scene. Seth and Leanne are talking about music. Ask: "Who do you see in the pictures?" (Answers: Taylor Swift, Drake)
- Books closed. Write these statements on the board:
 - 1. I can't wait for the Taylor Swift concert this Friday!
 - 2. I guess I don't listen to pop music a lot.
 - 3. I really like hip-hop.
 - 4. Drake is my favorite musician.
- Ask: "Who says these things Seth or Leanne?" Play the audio program and Ss listen for the answers.
 Then elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. Leanne 2. Seth 3. Seth 4. Seth)
- Point out the expressions I guess I don't listen to . . . , I really like . . . , and . . . is my favorite. Ask: "What do you think of Taylor Swift? Drake?"
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently.
- Ask these comprehension questions: "What kind of music does Seth like? What does he think of pop music?" Elicit Ss' answers. (Answers: Hip-hop. He doesn't listen to it.)

- Ss practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- For a new way to practice this conversation, try Say It with Feeling! download it from the website.

B [CD 1, Track 30]

- Read the focus questions aloud. Play the audio program once or twice.
- Ss compare answers in small groups. Go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Leanne What about bands, Seth? Who do you like?

Seth Well, they're not new, but my favorite band of all time is Maroon 5.

Leanne Maroon 5? Really?

Why? Don't you like them? They're classic!

Leanne No, I don't. I guess they have some good songs, but they're very . . . noisy.

Answers

Seth

His favorite band is Maroon 5. No, because she thinks their music is very noisy.

4 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer yes/no and Wh-questions with do to discuss entertainment likes and dislikes

D [CD 1, Track 31]

Yes/No and Wh-questions with do

 Ask Ss to find three questions with do or does in the Conversation in Exercise 3. Write the questions on the board, in columns:

1 2 3 4 5
Does she play the violin?
What kind of ... do you like?
Doesn't Drake play the guitar?

- Focus Ss' attention on the questions on the board. Elicit the rule for forming questions with do:
 - Wh-question + do/does + subject + verb?
- Elicit new questions from Ss and write them in the columns on the board.
- Point out the language in the Grammar Focus box.
 Play the audio program for the first and second columns.

Object pronouns

- Go over the object pronouns in the Grammar Focus box. Play the audio program for the third column.
- Ask Ss to find and circle the example of an object pronoun in the Conversation in Exercise 3. (Answer: her) Ask: "What does her refer to?" (Answer: Taylor Swift)
- Explain the task. Model the first answer.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then Ss compare answers with a partner. Go over the answers with the class.

Answers

- 1. A: I like Alabama Shakes a lot. Do you know them?
 - B: Yes, I do, and I love this song. Let's download it.
- 2. A: Do you like science fiction movies?
 - B: Yes, I do. I like them very much.
- 3. A: Do Vinnie and Midori like soap operas?
 - B: Vinnie does, but Midori doesn't. She hates them.
- 4. A: What kind of music does Maya like?
 - B: Classical music. She loves Yo-Yo Ma.
 - A: Yeah, he's amazing. I like him a lot.
- Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural by using intonation when asking questions

A [CD 1, Track 32]

- Books closed. Use your voice and gestures to demonstrate intonation. Explain that intonation is the rise and fall of the voice.
- Play the audio program. After each question, ask: "Is the voice going up or down?"
- Elicit or explain the rule: Yes/no questions have rising intonation, and Wh-questions have falling intonation.
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss repeat the questions. Ask different Ss to read the questions and check their intonation.

If Ss repeat things as a group, it's hard to hear if they're using correct pronunciation or intonation. Therefore, check some individual Ss' pronunciation.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Model the questions using correct intonation.
- Ss work in pairs. Go around the class and check individual Ss' use of intonation.
- Option: Ss look back at the Conversation in Exercise 3 on page 23 and mark (with arrows) rising or falling intonation above the questions. Ss then practice the conversation again in pairs, paying special attention to intonation.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: discuss entertainment likes and dislikes

A Group work

- Write two example questions on the board, e.g.: Do you like TV? What kind of TV shows do you like?
- Ask different Ss to answer the questions.
- Explain the task. Ss work individually to write five questions. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ss take turns asking their questions in small groups. Set a time limit of five to seven minutes. Remind students to pay attention to intonation.
- Go around the class and listen to Ss' responses.
- Option: Encourage Ss to give longer responses (e.g., No, I don't, but I love . . . , I'm a big fan of . . . , I prefer . . .).

B Group work

- Ss work in small groups. One S leads the discussion to make sure everybody speaks (e.g., What's your favorite . . . ? What about you, . . . ? What do you think, . . . ? It's your turn to ask a question.). Another S records the answers.
- The S who recorded the answers reads the responses, and the group decides the favorites. Then the Ss complete their charts.

TIP

Assigning each S in the group a role (e.g., note-taker, leader, English monitor, reporter) encourages all Ss to participate.

C Class activity

• Write these expressions on the board:

Our favorite ... is ... We all like . . . We don't agree on ...

- Explain that Ss can use these expressions to report their group's favorites.
- One S from each group reports the results to the class. Another S from each group writes the results on the board.
- Discuss the favorites as a class.
- For more practice with yes/no questions, play Twenty Questions – download it from the website.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about people's likes and dislikes

A [CD 1, Track 33]

- Set the scene. Alexis is on a game show. She is going to interview three men. The audience will choose one for a date.
- Play the audio program. Ss complete the chart.

TIP

If an audio program is long and contains many details, break it into parts. Pause the audio program after each part.

• Ss compare answers in pairs.

Audio script

Host [applause] Welcome to The Perfect Date, the show where we help people find their perfect date! Today, we're going to help Alexis. I'm going to introduce her to Jacob in Miami, Tyler in Chicago, and Andrew in Los Angeles. They're all waiting for her right now on video chat. Right, guys?

Jacob, Tyler, and Andrew Right!

Host So, Alexis, are you ready?

Alexis Yes, I'm ready.

Host Then go ahead!

Alexis OK. My first question is about music. Jacob, what kind of music do you like?

Jacob Oh, classical music.

Alexis Classical. OK. And how about you, Tyler?

Tyler Well, I like jazz.

Alexis And you, Andrew?

Andrew My favorite music is rock.

Host How about you, Alexis?

Alexis Well, I like pop music. I don't like jazz or classical music very much.

Host Hmm. The guys aren't doing very well, yet. Try another question, Alexis.

Alexis OK. Next I'll ask about movies. Jacob, what kind of movies do you like?

Jacob I like action movies.

Alexis And how about you, Tyler?

Tyler Oh, I like musicals.

Alexis And how about you, Andrew?

Andrew I love horror movies.

Host And what about you, Alexis?

Alexis I really like horror movies, too. [applause] Host That's better! We have time for another question. Go ahead!

Alexis OK. Jacob, what kind of TV shows do you like?

Jacob Well, I like to watch reality shows.

Alexis Tyler?

Tyler Uh, well, you know, I really like talk shows.

Alexis And, Andrew, how about you?

Andrew I like game shows a lot.

Host So, Alexis, what do you like?

Alexis Well, I like talk shows and game shows.

Host OK! Time is up! Now, who's the perfect date for Alexis? Go to perfectdate.cambridge.org to choose, or text us at the number on your screen.

Answers

Music	Jacob classical		Andrew rock	Alexis pop
TV	reality	musicals talk shows	game	horror talk and game shows

B Class activity

• Ss discuss the best date for Alexis as a class and give reasons for their opinions.

Possible answers

Andrew is the best date because he and Alexis like horror movies and game shows. They all disagree about music.

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

Cycle 2, Exercises 8–12

8 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use would and verb + to + verb in a conversation about making, accepting, and declining invitations

A [CD 1, Track 34]

 Play the audio program. Ss look at the picture and read the conversation silently. Then Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

B [CD 1, Track 35]

 Read the focus questions aloud. Then play the audio program. Elicit answers from the class.

Audio script

Connor So, do you like the concert?

Camila Well, the Purple Lips are a little noisy. But I like The Arcades a lot. Where is your brother? I don't see him.

Connor Um . . . he's at home.

Camila What? Why?

Connor He's in bed with the flu. See, here's his text.

Camila Oh, that's too bad!

Connor I know. Would you like to go to his concert next month?

Answers

She thinks it is OK. No, he didn't play because he is in bed with the flu.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use would and verb + to + verb to make, accept, and decline invitations

[CD 1, Track 36]

Would

- Refer Ss to the Conversation on page 25. Ask: "How does Connor invite Camila?" Write his question on the board: Would you like to go?
- Explain that we use Would you like to . . . ? for polite invitations. It is more polite than Do you want to . . . ?
- Ask Ss to find Camila's response. Ask: "What does she say?" Write it on the board:

Thanks, I'd love to.

• Point out that I'd = I would. Explain that there are different ways to accept an invitation. Camila uses one. Add two more to the board:

Yes. I would. Yes, I'd love to (go).

• Play the audio program for the first column in the Grammar Focus box. Ss read silently.

Verb + to + verb

• Refer Ss again to the Conversation on page 25. Camila invites Connor to have dinner at 6:00, but he doesn't accept. Ask: "What were his words?" Write them on the board:

Well. I'd like to. but I have to work late.

- Explain that we often use the structure verb + to + verb when making excuses. Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Elicit examples.
- Play the audio program for the second and third columns.

- Explain the task. Questions 1–3 require an acceptance or a refusal. Questions 4-6 require an invitation.
- Ss work individually. Go around the class and check their answers. If you notice common problems, stop and go over them with the class.

B Pair work

• Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. They take turns asking and answering the questions.

C Pair work

- Explain the task. With Ss, brainstorm three things to do. Model inviting a S to do one of those things. Your S partner uses some of the follow-up questions.
- Have Ss first think of three real or imaginary things they would like to do. Then they practice inviting each other. Remind Ss to use Would you like to . . . ? and to include follow-up questions.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write and respond to text messages

- Point out that Ss practiced oral invitations. Now they will make text message invitations.
- Focus Ss' attention on the text message. Ask Ss to guess its meaning. (Answer: Are you busy Saturday? Do you want to go to the beach? I don't know. I have to ask my parents. I'll be right back.)
- Discuss abbreviations. Explain that people use abbreviations because there is very little space on smartphone screens. Elicit the words the text message abbreviations stand for. (Answers: R = are, u = you, 2 = to, IDK = I don't know, BRB = be right back)
- Ask the class: "Who do you write text messages to? What do you write about? Which abbreviations do you use?"

B Group work

- Ss work in groups of three. Ss work individually to write a message to the other two Ss in their group.
- Ss exchange messages with the other Ss in the group. They read each message and write a response (e.g., Would u like 2 study English 2morrow? / Yes pls.). Then they return the responses. (Note: If Ss can't think of an invitation, encourage them to look at the Grammar Focus or at the Conversation on page 25 for ideas.)
- Option: In Ss' responses, they write questions asking for more information. They continue to exchange and return responses, answering questions and asking for more information until they accept or refuse the invitations.
- Option: If Ss have smartphones, they can practice sending text messages in class or for homework.

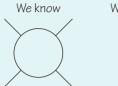

INTERCHANGE 4

See page T-118 for teaching notes.

READING

Learning Objectives: scan a time line for details; read a biography of an entertainer; develop skills in sequencing events

• Books closed. Draw these diagrams on the board: BEYONCÉ

• Ss brainstorm ideas in pairs. If they have difficulty, suggest possible topics (e.g., hit songs, age, full/real name, nationality). Then Ss come to the board and write things they know or would like to know in the correct diagram. Don't correct Ss if they are wrong. Just correct their language.

- Books open. Point out that the time line shows the history of Beyoncé's life.
- Focus Ss' attention on the pictures. Ask Ss to talk about who and what they see.
- Allow Ss two minutes to scan the article quickly and find the dates for the pictures. (Answers: 2008 and 2013) Remind Ss not to read the whole article but to look quickly for key words (e.g., Jay-Z, president).

- Explain the task. Focus Ss' attention on the first event on the time line. Tell Ss to find the sentence in part B that matches this event. (Answer: b)
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

performer: a person who sings or acts go platinum: to sell more than a million

(1,000,000) albums/records/CDs chill out: relax

fans: people who love a celebrity recording contract: a legal agreement between a musical performer and a recording company to sell the performer's albums album: a collection of songs on a CD or record Grammy Awards: a set of prizes given to people who work in the music industry hurricane victims: people who have been in a violent storm (e.g., Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans, U.S., in 2005) inauguration: a ceremony to celebrate a new start, such as a new job or a new building

• Ss complete the task individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.

• Ss compare answers in pairs. Then go over answers with the class.

Answers

- 8. a. She performs at a president's inauguration.
- 1. b. She is born in Texas.
- 3. c. She acts in a movie.
- 5. d. She wins five Grammys.
- 4. e. She releases her first solo album.
- 7. f. She has a baby.
- 2. g. Her group gets its first recording contract.
- 6. h. She helps hurricane victims.

TIP

If your Ss speak languages that have similar vocabulary to English, encourage them to look for cognates, or words with similar forms and meanings (e.g., solo, president).

- Focus Ss' attention on the diagrams on the board. Ask: "What did you learn? What do you still want to know? Where can you find this information?"
- Option: Books closed. Ask: "How much can you remember about Beyoncé?" Ss work in pairs to list facts.

C Pair work

• Read the questions aloud. Ss discuss their favorite musicians in pairs. Then ask Ss to share information with the class.

To review vocabulary from this reading, play Picture It! – download it from the website.

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

Progress check

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one's learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: "What did you learn in Units 3 and 4?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) A little.
- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
 - 1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
 - 2. Ask Ss: "What do you need to practice?" Then assign exercises based on their answers.
 - 3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

LISTENING

Learning Objectives: demonstrate one's ability to listen for prices; demonstrate one's ability to discuss likes and dislikes

A [CD 1, Track 37]

- Set the scene. Price Cut City is having a sale today. Ss will hear the prices of six items.
- Play the audio program once or twice. Ss listen and circle the correct price of each item. Then check the answers.

Audio script

Announcer Come in to Price Cut City today! Everything is on sale – for one day only. Here are some of our terrific sale prices. First, in the clothing department, we have great sales on both men's and women's jackets. We have leather jackets for only $70. That's right! All our stylish leather jackets are only $70. And wool jackets are on sale for $50. Just $50 for a wool jacket. Amazing! But that's not all. Every style and color of shirt is on sale. Designer silk shirts are now only $40. Again, that's $40 for a silk shirt. And cotton shirts are on sale for just $18. Unbelievable! Finally, in the electronics department, we have a great selection of computers. We have laptops for only $319. And we have desktop computers for $460. A complete computer system for only $460. What a deal! Remember, these prices are for today only, so come in and save at our one-day sale. Get everything you need . . . at Price Cut City!

Answers

leather jacket: $70 wool jacket: $50 silk shirt: $40 cotton shirt: $18 laptop: $319 desktop computer: $460

B Pair work

• Explain the task. Ss talk about the items in part A and give their own opinions about them in pairs. Are the things expensive, reasonable, or cheap? Where would they buy these items?

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to state preferences and make comparisons while shopping

- Focus Ss' attention on the pictures in Exercise 1 and explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Student A wants to buy presents for his or her family at Price Cut City. Student B is helping Student A choose presents.
- Model the example conversation with a S. Elicit other expressions and comparisons to use in the role plays.
- Ss practice the role play in pairs. Then they change roles. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: Have Ss give the items different prices and try the role play again.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to ask and answer questions about entertainment using the simple present

 Explain the task. Ss work individually. They write one more question in the first column. Then they write answers to the questions in the Me column.

B Class activity

• Explain and model the task. Say: "I usually watch TV at (7:00). When do you usually watch TV?" Ask different Ss until someone gives the same answer.

- Explain that you will write that person's name in the My classmate column. Point out that Ss should write a classmate's name only once.
- Ss go around the class and ask questions to complete the activity. Note any grammar, vocabulary, or pronunciation errors.
- Option: Go over any grammar, vocabulary, or pronunciation errors after Ss complete the activity.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to make, accept, and decline invitations using would and verb + to + verb

- Explain the task. Then ask a S to read the example invitation in the book.
- Elicit suggestions for other interesting activities and write them on the board.
- Hand out three index cards to each S. Explain the task. Ss write three different invitations individually (one per card). Point out that they should not put their names on the cards.
- Ss complete the task. Go around the class and give help as needed.

• Ask different Ss to read the three response cards. Elicit other ways of accepting or refusing an invitation. Encourage Ss to suggest silly or unusual excuses for refusals.

- Hand out three index cards to each S. Explain the task. Ss write one acceptance and two refusals. The acceptance cards should include a question about where or when to meet. Point out that they should not put their names on the cards.
- Ss complete the task. Go around the class and give help as needed.

C Group work

- Ss work in small groups. One S collects all the invitation cards, shuffles them, and puts them in a
- A different S collects all the response cards, shuffles them, and puts them in a different pile.
- Explain the task. Each S takes three invitation cards and three response cards. Then they read them silently.
- Model the task. Read an invitation card aloud. Ss accept or refuse the invitation by reading a response card.
- Ss take turns completing the task.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one's learning

- Focus Ss' attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: "How well can you do these things now?"
- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: "What did you underline? How can you review it?"
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss' answers.

My Plan for Unit 5

Use the space below to customize a plan that fits your needs.

With the following SB exercises	I am using these materials in class	My students are using these materials outside the classroom
With or instead of the following SB section	I am using these materials for assessment

What an interesting family!

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-7

In Unit 5, students describe families and talk about habitual and current activities. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to describe families and ask and answer questions using the present continuous. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to use quantifiers to describe families.

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: identify and discuss family relationships

- Write the word family in a circle on the board. Then write the words mother and father around the circle.
- In pairs, Ss brainstorm words for family members and make a list. Then they compare lists with another pair. Go around the class and note the words on their lists.

TIP

To avoid teaching words Ss already know, start by asking Ss the words they know. Then teach any remaining vocabulary.

- Ask Ss to find Joseph and circle his picture. Then ask: "Who is Keiko?" (Answer: his wife) Ask Ss to write wife under Keiko's picture and check (✓) wife in the vocabulary list.
- Ss complete the exercise in pairs. Go over the answers with the class and check pronunciation.

Answers

grandfather and grandmother (Betty) father (Robert) and mother aunt and uncle (Arturo) Joseph (husband) and his wife (Keiko) brother and sister-in-law (Nicole) cousin (Veronica) son and daughter (Emily) niece (Alyssa) and nephew

- As needed, teach other family words (e.g., greatgrandfather, great-grandmother, grandson, granddaughter, son, stepbrother, stepsister, only child, twins, parents, ex-wife, ex-husband). Use pictures to present additional vocabulary.
- Option: For more practice, ask questions about another person in the family tree (e.g., Deborah). Possible questions include: Who is Deborah's husband? Who is her sister-in-law?

B

- Explain the task. Ss draw their family trees individually. Point out that single Ss can include their grandparents, parents, brothers, and sisters, while married Ss can include their husband or wife. children, and grandchildren.
- Draw your family tree on the board while Ss complete the task.
- Model the task by describing your own family. Then encourage Ss to ask you questions. If needed, present or review words such as married, single, divorced, widowed, or deceased.
- Ss complete the task in pairs or small groups. Go around the room and encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions (e.g., How old is he? What does he do?).
- Elicit interesting things Ss learned about their partners.
- Option: Ask Ss to bring in pictures of their family. Ss show each other family photos in small groups. Encourage them to add two pieces of information for each photo (e.g., This is my brother. He's 27, and he's a lawyer.).

TIP

To personalize the class and make the language more meaningful, encourage Ss to bring their own materials to class.

To review the vocabulary of family, try Picture Dictation – download it from the website. Ask Ss to draw a family tree while you say: "Amanda has one brother and one sister. Her brother, Edward, is married to Jean. They have three children. Amanda's sister, Mary, is married to Mike. They have one daughter. Amanda has a husband. His name is Charlie."

For more practice matching words for family members with their meanings, play Concentration download it from the website.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for specific information on how people are related

[CD 1, Track 38]

- Focus Ss' attention on the pictures. Ask: "How are the people related?" Encourage Ss to make guesses.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen and complete the task.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use the present continuous in a conversation about families

A [CD 1, Track 39]

- Set the scene. Max is asking about Tina's family. Focus Ss' attention on the pictures. Ask: "How do you think they're related to Tina?" Elicit ideas.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen and read silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

B [CD 1, Track 40]

- Read the two focus questions aloud. Play the audio program once or twice.
- Go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Tina So, what about your parents, Max? Where do they live?

Max They live in California.

Tina Oh, where in California?

Max In Sausalito. It's a small city, but it's very nice.

Tina Are they still working?

Max Oh, yes. My mother is teaching at a university in San Francisco, and my father has a bookstore.

Answers

They live in Sausalito, California. Max's mother teaches at a university in San Francisco, and his father has a bookstore.

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural when using intonation in statements

A [CD 1, Track 41]

• Play the audio program. Point out the falling intonation. Ss repeat the statements. Ask different Ss to say the statements to check their intonation.

B Pair work

• Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Go around the class and check Ss' intonation.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions using the present continuous

[CD 1, Track 42]

Simple present vs. present continuous

Draw this chart on the board:

Usually

Riaht now

Tina's sister Tina's brother

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 31. Ask: "What does Tina's sister do? What is she doing right now?" (Answers: She works for a medical aid organization. She's treating patients in Cameroon.) Complete the chart. Repeat the procedure for Tina's brother. (Answers: He's a writer. He's traveling in Thailand.)
- Elicit or explain the difference between the two tenses (simple present = habitual actions; present continuous = actions that are happening right now).
- Compare the formation of the two tenses: She works. (subject + verb) She is working. (subject + be + verb + -ing)

Present continuous questions and statements

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 31. Ask: "Why can't Max meet Tina's family?" Elicit the answers, and write them on the board:
 - Tina's sister is not working in the U.S. right now. Tina's brother is traveling in Thailand.
- Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rule for forming yes/no and Wh-questions in the present continuous:

Be + subject + verb + -ing? (Wh-question) + be + subject + verb + -ing?

- Ask Ss to underline the time expressions in the Grammar Focus box that show the action is temporary or current: this year, now, these days.
- Play the audio program.

- Explain the task and model the first question.
- Ss complete the task individually. Encourage Ss to use contractions in statements. Review contractions as needed.
- Ss go over their answers in pairs. Then go over answers with the class.

Answers

- 1. A: Hi, Brittany. What are you doing?
 - B: Hey, Zach. I'm eating a sandwich at O'Connor's.
 - A: Mmm! Is it good?
 - B: Yeah. It's delicious. Wait, they're bringing my dessert now. It's chocolate cake with ice cream. Call you later! Bye!
- 2. A: So, Madison, how are you and your sister doing in college?
 - B: We're having a lot of fun, Mom!
 - A: Fun? OK, but is your sister going to class every morning?
 - B: Yeah, Mom. She's working hard and I am, too. I'm serious!

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Elicit some examples of opening questions that use the present continuous.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Encourage Ss to use contractions in statements. Go around the class and help as needed.
- Ss practice their dialogues in pairs.
- Option: Ss practice the conversations sitting back-to back or with their cell phones.

C Class work

- Pairs read their dialogue to the class.
- Option: Collect all of the written dialogues and distribute them randomly to new pairs. Each pair reads a new dialogue aloud.

DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions about current activities using the present continuous

Group work

- Explain the task and go over the topics in the box. Explain any new vocabulary and elicit other possible discussion topics.
- Model the conversation with one or two Ss. Encourage Ss to add follow-up questions and introduce new topics.
- Give Ss a few minutes to prepare things to say about what they are doing these days.

• Ss complete the task in small groups. Go around the class and note any common errors. Then go over them with the class.

TIP

To help you decide if additional controlled grammar practice is necessary, watch the Ss' performance during the speaking activities.

INTERCHANGE 5

See page T-119 for teaching notes.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

Cycle 2, Exercises 8-12

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss facts about different countries

- Books closed. Write these statements on the board:
 - 1. In Argentina, 80% of the population lives in rural areas.
 - 2. In Russia, 99.7% of the population can read and - Review percentages if needed. Ask Ss to guess if these facts are true or false. Then elicit their guesses.
- Books open. Tell Ss the answers. (Answers: 1. False (around 10% live in rural areas) 2. True) Ask: "Who was right? Do these facts surprise you? Why?"

- Go over the other facts about the countries. Explain any unfamiliar vocabulary. Then Ss mark each fact as True or False.
- Go over the answers with the class. Elicit a few examples of facts that surprised the Ss.
- Ss then discuss which facts surprised them and why in small groups. Ss discuss how they think their country compares to the facts in the quiz and then share other interesting facts they know.
- Have groups share their discussion with the class.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use quantifiers in a conversation about families

A [CD 1, Track 43]

- Ask the class: "How many brothers do you have? How many sisters?" Elicit answers.
- Draw this chart on the board:

Where from? Number of Typical? brothers/sisters?

- 1. Vicky
- 2. Luis
- Books closed. Set the scene. Luis and Vicky are talking about their families.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answers. Ask Ss to complete the chart on the board if they know the answers. Play the audio program again as needed and ask Ss to add to or change the information in the chart. (Answers: 1. China, no brothers or sisters, yes 2. Peru, two brothers and four sisters, no)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss look at the picture and read the conversation silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

For a new way to practice this conversation, try the Disappearing Dialog – download it from the website.

D B [CD 1, Track 44]

- Ask: "Why does Luis like having a big family?" (Answer: Because he gets lots of birthday presents.)
- Read the focus question aloud. Ask Ss to make predictions and write them on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen to find out if any prediction on the board is correct.

Audio script

So, do you like being an only child? Luis Vicky Of course. I get all my parents' attention. Yeah, I share my parents' attention with six Luis other people. Vicky Well, you probably never feel lonely!

Do you ever feel lonely? Luis

Vicky Sure. But it's OK. I have a lot of friends.

Answer

She gets all her parents' attention.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use quantifiers to state facts

[CD 1, Track 45]

- Explain that when people don't know the exact percentage of something, they use words like most or some. Point out the quantifiers in the Grammar Focus box.
- Explain that all these quantifiers come before plural nouns except one. Ask Ss which one does not. (Answer: no one)
- Play the audio program.
- Ask Ss to find two sentences with quantifiers in the Conversation on page 33. (Answers: a lot of families in China . . . , Many families . . .)
- Ask: "Who is from a big family? Raise your hand." Then elicit a statement about the class that starts with a quantifier (e.g., Most students in the class are from big families.). Ask more questions and elicit more statements with quantifiers (e.g., Are you single? Do you live at home? Are you an only child?).

• Explain the task. Model the first answer.

- Ss rewrite the sentences individually. Point out that more than one quantifier may be possible. Then Ss go over their answers in pairs.
- Go over answers with the class.

Possible answers

- 1. In the U.S., most high school students go to college.
- 2. Few people in Brazil are age 65 or older.
- 3. In India, no one votes before the age of 18.
- 4. Some people in Sweden live alone.
- 5. In Canada, not many people speak French at home.

B Pair work

- Explain the task and elicit the first answer. Write it on the board.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed. Then each pair joins another pair to compare answers.
- Option: Ss make statements about the true versions of the facts in the Snapshot on page 33 using quantifiers instead of percentages.
- For more practice with quantifiers, play Tic-Tac-Toe download it from the website.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write an email describing one's family

- Ss read the example email silently.
- Elicit information Ss can include in a description of their family (e.g., names, ages, jobs, where they live). Write all ideas on the board.
- For a new way to prepare for this Writing, try Mind Mapping – download it from the website.
- Ss write emails about their family. Encourage them to use quantifiers.

B Group work

• Ss read each other's emails in small groups and ask each other for more information.

READING

Learning Objectives: make predictions; read an article for main ideas and details about families

• Books closed. Ask: "Does your family spend a lot of time together?" Elicit answers from Ss.

- Books open. Read the title and go over the task.
- Explain that the first sentence of a paragraph usually gives you its main idea. This is called a "topic sentence."
- Ss read the topic sentences of the paragraphs. Ask: "Do families spend a lot of time together?" (Answer: Some families do, some families don't.)

- Go over the six questions. Then Ss read the article silently and answer the questions.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

fresh air: air outside buildings that is clean and cool barbecue: cooking food over a fire outdoors housework: work people do to take care of the home, such as cleaning make an effort: try to do something

- Ss compare their answers in groups. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Go over answers with the class.

Answers

- 1. Billy
- 2. Carla
- 3. Jane
- 4. Nick
- 5. Billy 6. Nick

C Group work

- Read the four questions. Then Ss discuss the questions in small groups.
- Go over the answers with the class.

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-9

In Unit 6, students discuss sports and exercise habits, and ask and answer questions about frequency of free-time activities. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to discuss sports and exercise habits. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to ask and answer questions about frequency of free-time activities.

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: identify and discuss common sports and fitness activities

• Books closed. Introduce the topics of sports and fitness. Ss brainstorm sports and fitness activities. Write Ss' ideas in two columns on the board:

Fitness activities Sports football walking baseball jogging basketball weight training

TIP

To make new vocabulary easy for your Ss to copy, make a vocabulary list on one side of the board. Add new words to the list throughout the class.

- Ask Ss to guess the sports and fitness activities people from the U.S. like best.
- Books open. Ss look at the Snapshot. Tell Ss the answers. (Answers: football, walking) Ask: "Who guessed right?"

• Elicit or explain any new vocabulary. Help Ss with the pronunciation of difficult words (e.g., weight, treadmill). If needed, explain that American football is different from international football. Players use their hands, throw and run with the ball, and wear safety equipment. In the U.S., international football is called soccer.

Vocabulary

ice hockey: a game played on ice between two teams who use a curved stick to try to get a puck into the other team's goal treadmill: a machine for walking or running bowling: a game where you roll a heavy ball down a long wooden lane to try to knock down ten wooden "pins" that are arranged in a triangle weight training: lifting weights to become stronger

- Go over the discussion questions and tasks.
- Ss complete the tasks individually. Go around the class and give help as needed. Then elicit Ss' answers.

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: describe sports and fitness activities using collocations with do, go, and play

- Go over the activities in the chart. In pairs, Ss match the activities to the pictures. Elicit or explain any unfamiliar vocabulary. Martial arts are traditional methods of fighting and self-defense, and include karate, judo, and taekwondo. Pilates is a fitness activity done on a machine or a mat that strengthens the body's core.
- Explain and model the task. Ask: "What age groups like bike riding?" Point out that there is no single correct answer.
- While Ss complete the task individually, write this conversation on the board:

A: What age groups like (bike riding)?

B: I think it's popular with (young adults).

- A: I agree OR I don't really agree. I think it's popular with (children).
- Model the conversation with one or two Ss. Then Ss use the model conversation to compare answers in pairs.

B Pair work

- Present the rules for these collocations: go + activities ending in -ing, except weight training play + games, such as sports played with a ball do + fitness activities and individual exercises
- Ss complete the task in pairs. To check answers, write the verbs do, go, and play on the board. Ask different Ss to write the answers. Give help as needed.

Answers

do	go	play
do martial arts	go bike riding	play golf do Pilates	go jogging	play soccer
do yoga	go swimming	play volleyball

- Option: Ss circle the activities and sports they enjoy. Then they compare with a partner.
- For more practice with sports and exercise vocabulary, play Sculptures – download it from the website.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use adverbs of frequency in a conversation about exercise

A [CD 2, Track 1]

- Use the pictures to set the scene. Ask: "Where are Riley and Aaron? What are they doing? What do you think they like to do in their free time?"
- Books closed. Write these sentences on the board:
 - 1. Riley does yoga often.
 - 2. Aaron exercises every day.

Ask: "Are these sentences true or false?" Play the audio program and elicit the answers. (Answers:

- 1. false 2. false) Elicit the correct answers. (Answers:
- 1. Riley runs on the treadmill/lifts weights often.
- 2. Aaron hardly ever exercises.)
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

Seriously?: Really?

couch potato: a person who watches a lot of TV and is not very active

- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently. Ask: "Are you more like Riley or Aaron?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

For a new way to practice this conversation, try the Moving Dialog – download it from the website.

B [CD 2, Track 2]

- Read the focus question aloud. Ask Ss to make guesses. Write their ideas on the board.
- Play the audio program. Then elicit the answer.

Audio script

Aaron What else do you like to do, Riley? Riley Well, I like to play the drums a lot. I play every day. It drives my mom crazy!

Aaron Hey, I play the guitar!

Riley Well, listen, we could start our own band! Why don't we play after class today?

Aaron Cool!

Answer

She plays the drums.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions about how frequently one engages in various free-time activities

[CD 2, Track 3]

Adverbs of frequency

• Write these sentences on the board:

exercise. just watch TV.

- Ask Ss to find the missing words in the Conversation in Exercise 3 and write them on the board. (Answers: hardly ever, usually) Explain that these are adverbs of frequency. Point out that they go before most verbs. Focus Ss' attention on the second column of the Grammar Focus box.
- On the board, write: I'm always late. Point out that adverbs of frequency go after the verb be.
- Point out the third column. Explain that the percentages show how often something happens.
- Now focus Ss' attention on the first column. Ask: "Where do these adverbs go?" (Answer: at the end of a statement or question)
- Play the audio program.

- Explain the task. Model the first example. Ss complete the task individually.
- Check the answers with the class. Then Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

Answers

- 1. A: Do you ever play sports?
 - B: Sure. I play soccer twice a week.
- 2. A: What do you usually do on Saturday mornings?
 - B: Nothing much. I almost always sleep until noon.
- 3. A: Do you often lift weights at the gym?
 - B: No, I hardly ever lift weights.
- 4. A: Do you always exercise on Sundays?
 - B: No, I never exercise on Sundays.
- 5. A: What do you usually do after class?
 - B: I go out with my classmates about three times a week.
- 6. A: Do you often go to the movies?
 - B: Yes, I go to the movies once a week.
- 7. A: Do you ever go bike riding?
 - B: No, I hardly ever ride a bike.
- 8. A: Do you sometimes walk to school?
 - B: Sure. I walk to school five days a week.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss ask and answer the questions in part A in pairs, using their own information.
- For more practice with adverbs of frequency, play Tic-Tac-Toe – download it from the website. Write different adverbs of frequency in the nine boxes.

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural when using direct address

A [CD 2, Track 4]

• Play the audio program. Use gestures to demonstrate falling intonation. Elicit or explain that direct address statements end with falling intonation.

• Play the audio program again. Ss repeat the statements individually.

B Pair work

- Explain the task and model it by writing an example statement.
- Ss write four statements in pairs. Then they practice them. Go around the class and check Ss' intonation.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions about how frequently one exercises

A Group work

- Focus Ss' attention on the directions. Explain that a poll has two parts. First everyone answers the same questions. Then you compare and summarize the
- In small groups, Ss take turns asking each other questions. One S takes notes. Go around the class and give help as needed.

B Group work

• Ss add up their points and compare the results of their poll to see who got at least six points. Then one S in each group reports the information to the class.

C Class work

• Explain the task. Model the example. Give groups a few minutes to decide who to tell about. One S in each group reports on another person from their group.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for key words and specific information in a conversation about exercise

A [CD 2, Track 5]

- Set the scene. Three people are talking about their favorite evening activities. Have Ss brainstorm things people do in the evening.
- Explain the task. Ss listen only for favorite activities and complete the first column in the chart. Write the chart on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss complete the task individually and compare their answers in pairs. Ask different Ss to write the answers on the board.
- Explain the task. Ss listen only for how often Joseph, Victoria, and Carlos do the activities. Ss complete the second column.
- Play the audio program again. Ss complete the task individually and compare their answers in pairs. Ask different Ss to write the answers on the board.

TIP

If Ss have difficulty understanding the audio program, try to find out where they have difficulty. Replay that part of the program and ask what they hear.

Audio script

Victoria So, what do you usually do in the evening, Joseph? Joseph Well, I exercise a lot. I like to go swimming after work.

Victoria Oh yeah? How often do you go swimming? Joseph I swim twice a week - on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Victoria Well, you are in great shape.

Joseph Thanks!

Carlos You're in great shape, too, Victoria. Victoria Oh, thanks, Carlos. I usually exercise in the evenings. I love it! My friends and I take a yoga class at a gym downtown.

Joseph How often do you go?

Victoria Three times a week. And what about you, Carlos? Do you ever go to the gym in the evenings?

Actually, I don't exercise very much. I play tennis about twice a month, but I'm not very good.

Answers

Carlos

How often? Activity Joseph swimming twice a week Victoria three times a week yoga Carlos tennis twice a month

B [CD 2, Track 6]

• Play the audio program again. Ss listen to find out who is most similar to them. Then they discuss their answers in pairs or small groups.

8 DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: discuss Olympic sports and athletes

Group work

• Focus Ss' attention on the picture. Ask: "What are the Olympics?" Elicit or explain that the Olympics are a series of sports contests that take place every four years in winter and in summer. See if Ss can name when and where any of the recent Olympics have taken place (e.g., Winter: 2014 Sochi, Russia; 2010 Vancouver, Canada; 2006, Turin, Italy; Summer: 2016 Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; 2012 London, U.K.; 2008 Beijing, China)

- Explain that you want Ss to discuss the questions for ten minutes. Point out that it's important to speak fluently, so it's OK to make errors.
- Ss take turns asking and answering the questions in small groups. Go around the class and ask follow-up questions.
- Option: If the groups want to discuss the questions in more depth, allow them to look up answers to the questions and additional information on their smartphones.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write about weekly activities

A

- Explain the task. Point out that Ss can write about any weekly activities, not just sports. Ss read the example paragraph silently.
- Ss make notes about their weekly activities individually.
- Ss write a paragraph based on their notes. Remind Ss to include their favorite activity, but not to reveal which one it is.

For a new way to teach this Writing, try Pass the Paper – download it from the website.

B Group work

 Explain the task and read the example question. In small groups, Ss read their own descriptions and group members guess which activity is the writer's favorite.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

Cycle 2, Exercises 10-14

10 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions with how in a conversation about exercise

A [CD 2, Track 7]

- Ss cover the text and look at the picture. Elicit ideas and vocabulary.
- Write this focus question on the board:
 Do Steph and Mick usually play tennis together?
- Then play the audio program and elicit the answer. (Answer: no)
- Write these focus questions on the board:
 - 1. How often does Mick play tennis?
 - 2. How well does Mick play tennis?
 - 3. How good is Steph at tennis?
- Play the audio program again and elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. three times a week 2. pretty well 3. not very good)
- Option: Have Ss close their eyes as they listen to the audio program.

 Ss read the conversation silently. Then they practice the conversation in pairs.

D B [CD 2, Track 8]

 Read the focus question and ask Ss to guess who wins. Then play the audio program. Ss listen to find the answer.

Audio script

Steph Good game, Mick.

Mick Thanks. You, too. And congratulations on the win. You play pretty well.

Steph Oh, no, not really.

Mick How often do you play?

Steph Once or twice a year. I'm just lucky today, I guess. Want to play another game?

Mick Um . . . sure. Just let me take a five-minute break.

Answer

Steph is the winner.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions with how

[CD 2, Track 9]

Questions with how

• Books closed. Write these questions and answers on the board in two columns:

How often do you work out? Pretty well. How long do you spend at Twice a week. the aym?

Not so good. Two hours a week.

How well do you play tennis? How good are you at sports?

• Ss match the questions in A with the answers in B.

 Books open. Ss check their answers in the Grammar Focus box.

- Focus Ss' attention on the first column of the Grammar Focus box. Elicit or explain the difference between how often and how long (how often = with what frequency, how long = in how much time).
- Focus Ss' attention on the second column. Ask: "How are how well and how good different?" (They have the same meaning, but good is an adjective and well is an adverb. Use how good with be and how well with other verbs.)

Short answers

- Point out that answering in complete sentences sounds unnatural. Therefore, people use short
- Play the audio program.

- Explain the task. Ss work individually to complete the questions. Check Ss' work as they finish. Ask Ss with correct questions to write them on the board.
- Ss check answers against the board. Then they practice the conversations in pairs.

Answers

1. A: How good are you at sports?

- 2. A: How long do you spend online?
- 3. A: How often do you go to the beach?
- 4. A: How well can you swim?

B Group work

• Explain the task. Ss take turns asking and answering the questions in small groups. Tell Ss to ask follow-up questions using how often, how long, how well, and how good.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details in a conversation about exercise

[CD 2, Track 10]

- Books closed. Set the scene. Four friends (Rachel, Nicholas, Zack, and Jennifer) are talking about sports and exercise.
- Play the audio program.
- Books open. Focus Ss' attention on the pictures and read the captions aloud. Ask: "What do you think each type of person is like?"
- Play the audio program again. Have Ss identify the four people.
- Go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Rachel

How good are you at sports, Nicholas? Nicholas Are you kidding? I'm terrible! But I love to watch sports. I go to basketball games all the time. I really love college basketball. I like to read sports news, too. I check a few websites every day.

Rachel Awesome! Zack Do you like sports, Rachel? Rachel

Oh, yeah. I like to exercise. But I don't watch sports very much, and I never follow sports news.

Zack How much time do you spend exercising?

Rachel Well, I guess I exercise about two or three hours a day. I do aerobics at home three times a week, and the other days I go swimming. Oh, and sometimes I ride my bike.

7ack That's great, Rachel. Hey, Jennifer, you're in great shape, too!

Thanks. I go to the gym six days a week. Jennifer

Rachel Six days a week? Wow!

I love the gym. I run on the treadmill Jennifer and then lift weights for about an hour.

Nicholas And what about you, Zack?

Oh, I'm too lazy to play sports – I really hate exercising. And I almost never go to any sporting events. In my free time, I like to sit with my feet up and watch my favorite TV shows.

Answers

Zack

1. Zack 2. Rachel 3. Nicholas 4. Jennifer

INTERCHANGE 6

READING

Learning Objective: skim and make inferences about items in a health and fitness quiz

A

- Read the title. Ask: "What is this? How is it different from a quiz in class?" Elicit ideas.
- Tell Ss to look over the quiz. Ask: "Where can you find this kind of quiz? What is the quiz about?" (Answers: in a magazine or newspaper; health and fitness)
- Go over the task. Then Ss skim the questions in the quiz. Ask Ss to write down the score they think they're going to get.

B

- Explain the task. Read the first question and ask Ss to choose the answer that is true for them.
- Ss read the guiz individually and mark their answers.
- Option: Ss work in pairs and take turns asking each other the questions. They complete the quiz for each
- Go around the class and elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

servings: portions of food junk food: food that is not good for you

- Ss add up their points. Then they read the Rate vourself! section.
- Ask: "Are the points the same as you guessed? More than you guessed? Fewer than you guessed? Do you agree with your score? Why or why not?"
- Option: Ss give the guiz to friends or family members for homework. Then they share the results in class.

C Group work

- Ss compare their scores in small groups. Ask Ss to list five things they can do to improve their health and fitness. Point out that they can use ideas from the
- Each group joins another group and shares ideas. Then elicit ideas from the groups.

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

Progress check

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one's learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: "What did you learn in Units 5 and 6?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) A little.
- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
 - 1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
 - 2. Ask Ss: "What do you need to practice?" Then assign exercises based on their answers.
 - 3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to listen and infer what people are doing

A [CD 2, Track 11]

- Explain the task. Ss will hear four sounds of people doing different things. Ss guess what the person is doing and write sentences using the present continuous.
- Model the task. Ask Ss to close their eyes. Then do something that makes a distinctive sound (e.g., write on the board, sharpen your pencil). Ask: "What am I doing?" Ss answer in the present continuous (e.g., You're writing on the board.).
- Play the audio program once or twice. Ss listen and complete the chart. Help with vocabulary as needed.

Answers

- 1. Someone is using/running on a treadmill.
- 2. Someone is weight training/lifting weights.
- 3. Someone is bowling.
- 4. Someone is playing a computer game.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Model the example conversation with a S. Elicit different ways of agreeing and disagreeing.
- Ss compare answers in pairs. Go around the class and check Ss' use of the present continuous.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to ask and answer questions about present activities

Group work

- Explain the task. Ss work in small groups. One S chooses a person in the room. The other Ss take turns asking present continuous yes/no questions until they guess the person's identity. The S who guesses correctly has the next turn.
- Model the example conversation. Take the role of Student A and ask other Ss to take the roles of Students B, C, D, and E.
- Ss play the game in small groups.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to ask and answer questions about oneself, one's routines, and one's family

A Group work

- Explain the task and read the instructions aloud.
- Ss read the questions in small groups. Then, as a group, they add two more yes/no questions about family life. Encourage Ss to use both the simple present and the present continuous.
- Explain the task. Ss take turns asking and answering the questions. They write the number of yes and no answers in the correct columns. Remind Ss to include their own answers.

B Group work

- Explain the task. For each question, Ss add up the number of yes/no responses in their group. Then they write a sentence to describe the group's responses using determiners (e.g., most, some, a few, all).
- Ss complete the task in groups. Then they read their sentences to the class.
- Option: Complete the activity as a class.

DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to ask and answer questions about free-time activities, routines, and abilities

Group work

• Explain the task. Ss choose three questions and check (✓) them individually. Then they ask each other the questions in small groups. When someone answers "yes," the S must add at least one follow-up question, including how questions (e.g., how well, how often, how good).

- Option: Ss think of their own questions beginning with Do you ever . . . ?
- Ask three Ss to read the example conversation. Elicit other possible follow-up questions.
- Ss complete the task. Go around the class and check for use of follow-up questions.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one's learning

- Focus Ss' attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: "How well can you do these things now?"
- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: "What did you underline? How can you review it?"
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss' answers.

My Plan for Unit 7

Use the space below to customize a plan that fits your needs.

With the following SB exercises	I am using these materials in class	My students are using these materials outside the classroom
With or instead of the following SB section	I am using these materials for assessment

We went dancing! Cycle 1, Exercises 1-8

In Unit 7, students describe past daily and free-time activities, and describe past vacations. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to discuss daily and free-time activities using the simple past with regular and irregular verbs. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to discuss vacations using the past tense of be.

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss free-time activities

- Books closed. Ask: "What do you do in your free time?" Help with vocabulary as needed. Write Ss' responses on the board.
- Option: Ask Ss to guess eight free-time activities. Later, Ss compare their ideas with the Snapshot.
- Books open. Ask different Ss to read the leisure activities aloud. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.
- Ask: "Do you think these are popular free-time activities? Why or why not?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Read and explain the four tasks. Point out that, for the third task, Ss should list the activities starting with their favorite. For the last task, Ss should list the activities they don't like.
- Ss complete the tasks individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Elicit Ss' responses.
- Option: Use Ss' responses to make a list of the top five activities for the class.
- For a new way to practice the Snapshot vocabulary, try Vocabulary Steps - download it from the website.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use the simple past in a conversation about past events

A [CD 2, Track 12]

- Set the scene. Neil and Cara are talking about their weekends. Ask Ss to use the pictures to predict what each person did. Elicit or explain vocabulary in the pictures.
- Option: Ss list all the words they can see in the pictures. Find out who has the most words.
- Books closed. Write these focus questions on the
 - 1. What did Cara do on Saturday?
 - 2. What did Neil do?
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answers. Then elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. She had pizza and then went dancing with some friends. 2. He stayed home all weekend and studied for the Spanish test.)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

For a new way to practice this conversation, try the Disappearing Dialog – download it from the website

B [CD 2, Track 13]

- Read the focus question aloud. Ask Ss to guess. Write some of their ideas on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss work individually. Then go over the answer with the class.

Audio script

Neil So, Cara, what did you do on Sunday? Cara I stayed home in the morning. I just watched TV and read.

Neil How about in the afternoon?

Cara Oh, I worked. I have a part-time job at the university bookstore.

Neil I didn't know you had a job.

Cara Yeah, I'm a cashier there. I work every Sunday from 1:00 to 6:00.

Answer

She works on Sunday afternoons.

For more practice talking about last weekend's activities, play the Chain Game – download it from the website.

TIP

To help Ss who are weak at listening, write the answers on the board. That way, they can see the answers

3 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objectives: ask and answer simple past questions; use simple past regular and irregular verbs

CD 2, Track 14]

Simple past questions with did

• Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 44. Ask Ss to find three questions with did. Then write them on the board. (Answers: What did you do last weekend? Did you go to the Treadmill? Did you go anywhere?)

TIP

Use a different color for target features (e.g., did + verb). This helps Ss visualize the grammar pattern.

Point out the questions in the Grammar Focus box.
 Elicit the rules for forming yes/no and Wh-questions in the simple past:

Did + subject + verb? Wh-question + did + subject + verb?

- Elicit more examples and write them on the board.
- Play the audio program. Have Ss repeat the questions and responses.

Regular and irregular verbs

• Point out the regular and irregular verbs to the right of part A. Then draw this chart on the board:

Regular verbs Irregular verbs work - worked do - did invite - invited drive - drove

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 44 again. Ask Ss to find the simple past forms of stay and study. (Answers: stayed, studied) Ask a S to write them on the board in the Regular column. Then ask Ss to find and circle the simple past of go and forget. (Answers: went, forgot) Ask a different S to write them in the Irregular column.
- Have Ss turn to the appendix at the back of the book.
 Tell them to use this list as needed.
- Option: Ask Ss to look for patterns in the list of irregular verbs (e.g., i → a: sit → sat, swim → swam, drink → drank).

TIP

Some Ss like to repeat things aloud. Others prefer to mouth words or sentences silently. Help Ss find learning styles they prefer.

Α

- Explain the task. Model the first conversation with a strong S. Then model it with a different S.
- Ss complete the task individually. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

- 1. A: Did you stay home on Sunday?
 - B: No, I called my friend Anna. We drove to a nice little restaurant for lunch.
- 2. A: How did you spend your last birthday?
 - B: I had a party. Everyone enjoyed it, but the neighbors next door didn't like the noise.
- 3. A: What did you do last night?
 - B: I saw a sci-fi movie at the Cineplex. I loved it! Amazing special effects!
- 4. A: Did you do anything special over the weekend?
 - B: Yes, I did. I went shopping. Unfortunately, I spent all my money. Now I'm broke!
- 5. A: Did you go out on Friday night?
 - B: No, I didn't. I invited friends over, and I cooked spaghetti for them.
- Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Then model it by asking different Ss to ask you the questions in part A. Give your own responses.
- Point out that Ss can avoid answering a question by saying I'd rather not say. They can also make up answers.
- Ss complete the task in pairs.
- For more practice with regular and irregular verbs, play Bingo download it from the website.

4 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: use the reduction of did you to sound more natural when asking past-tense questions

A [CD 2, Track 15]

- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the reduction of did you.
- Play the audio program again. Ss practice saying the questions with reductions.
- Tell different Ss to ask the questions. Check their use of reduced forms.

B Pair work

 Explain and model the task. Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and check Ss' use of reductions.

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: discuss daily chores and activities using do, go, have, make, and take

A Pair work

- Copy the chart onto the board. Explain the task.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and give help with new vocabulary.
- Option: Allow Ss to use dictionaries.
- Ask different Ss to write their answers on the board. Give help with any collocations they don't know.

Answers

my homework chores do the laundry dancing online shopping go a good time a lot of fun have a party make a phone call the bed a video take a day off a bike ride a trip

B Group work

• Explain the task. Model the conversation with two Ss. Then Ss complete the task and compare with a partner.

DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: discuss past activities and ask follow-up questions

Group work

- Model the example discussion with three Ss.
- Point out that a good listener shows interest in a conversation by asking follow-up questions.
- Ss complete the activity in groups. Remind Ss to use reduced forms of did you.
- Option: The Ss get one point for each follow-up question they ask. The Ss with the most points in each group win.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about past activities

A [CD 2, Track 16]

- Set the scene. Explain that Andrew is telling Elizabeth what he did, but things didn't go according to plan.
- Explain the task. Play the audio program and Ss complete the chart.
- Ss compare answers in pairs. Then go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Elizabeth So, did you have a good holiday yesterday?

Andrew Yes. It was nice to have the day off. Elizabeth Did you go to the gym?

Andrew No, I couldn't. It was closed. They were repairing the machines. Instead, a friend and I played soccer.

Elizabeth That's nice. At least you were able to get some exercise. Did you do anything else interesting?

Andrew Well, I wanted to see the new Matt Damon movie. I went to the movie theater, and it wasn't playing.

Elizabeth I hate when that happens.

Andrew I know. So, I went back to my house and watched TV for a while.

Elizabeth Did you do anything fun in the evening?

Andrew I had tickets for last night's baseball game, but it was canceled because of the rain. So, I went to my parents' house and spent the evening with them instead. My mother baked an awesome chocolate cake.

Elizabeth Oh, I love chocolate cake.

Andrew I know. That's why I brought you a piece. Here, enjoy!

Elizabeth Thanks, Andrew!

Answers

Andrew played soccer, watched TV, and spent time with family.

B [CD 2, Track 17]

- Explain the task. Read the questions aloud.
- Play the audio program.
- Go over the answers with the class.

Answers

Activities Andrew didn't do:

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use the simple past of be in a conversation about vacations

A [CD 2, Track 18]

- Books closed. Set the scene. Leah and Cody are talking about Cody's vacation. Write these focus questions on the board:
 - 1. Did Cody enjoy his vacation?
 - 2. Where did he go?
 - 3. How long was he there?
- Play the audio program. Elicit Ss' answers to the focus questions. (Answers: 1. yes 2. California 3. about a week) Go over any expressions Ss don't understand.
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read the conversation silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

D B [CD 2, Track 19]

- Ask Ss to predict what happened. Write their ideas on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen to find out if any prediction was correct.

Audio script

- Leah So, tell me! What happened?
- Cody Well, like I said, I went surfing every day. One day, I entered a contest and I won. I got first prize!
- Leah Wow! Congratulations!
- Cody But that's not all. Someone made a video of me surfing and posted it online. Do you want to see it?
- Leah Sure!

Answers

Cody went surfing. He won a contest. Someone made a video of him surfing and posted it online.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use the past of be in questions and short answers

[CD 2, Track 20]

Past of be questions

- Write these questions from the Conversation in Exercise 9 on the board, with was or were underlined:
 - 1. Was the weather OK?
 - 2. What was the best thing about the trip?
 - 3. How was your vacation?
 - 4. How long were you there?
- Focus Ss' attention on the underlined words on the board and elicit the rules for yes/no and Whquestions:

Was/Were + subject + verb?

Wh-question + was/were + subject + verb?

Was/Were and contractions

• Elicit when to use was and were. Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box if they aren't sure.

- Use the audio program to present the questions, short answers, and contractions.
- Explain the task. Model the first conversation with a S.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

Answers

- 1. A: Were you in New York last weekend?
 - B: No, I wasn't. I was in Chicago.
 - A: How was it?
 - B: It was great! But it was cold and windy as usual.
- 2. A: How long were your parents in Chile?
 - B: They were there for two weeks.
 - A: Were they in Santiago the whole time?
 - B: No, they weren't. They also went to Valparaiso.
- 3. A: Were you away last week?
 - B: Yes, I was in Madrid.
 - A: Really? How long were you there?
 - B: For almost a week. I was there on business.

DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: discuss past vacations and retell a story using the simple past

A Group work

- Books closed. Ss work in small groups. Assign different groups the topics transportation, weather, and food. Groups brainstorm words related to the topics.
- Ask a S from each group to write their words on the board. For example:

Weather Transportation Food car. bus rainy, sunny good, bad

• Books open. Explain the task and read the example questions. Ask Ss to think of more questions related to vacations. Write their questions on the board.

- Model the task by describing a vacation you took.
- Ss take turns talking about their vacations in small groups. Go around the class and note any errors.
- Write any errors you noted on the board. Ss try to correct them as a class.

It's best not to interrupt Ss during a discussion or fluency activity. Instead, listen and note any errors you hear. Go over the most common ones after the activity.

B Class activity

• Ss in each group vote for the most interesting vacation. Then one S from each group tells the class about it. Encourage other Ss to ask questions.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write a post about a past vacation

• Ss read the blog post silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary. Snorkeling is swimming while using a curved pipe called a snorkel to breathe. Ceramic means made from clay.

B Pair Work

• Explain the task. Tell Ss to use the questions in Exercise 11 for ideas about the topic.

- Ss write blog posts individually. Go around the class and check Ss' work.
- Ss exchange posts with a partner. Partners read each other's posts and ask questions about each other's vacations.
- Option: Ss find vacation posts from social media or travel websites and share them with the class.
- For a new way to teach this Writing, try Pass the Paper – download it from the website.

Amanda Oh, not really. I actually enjoyed my vacation a lot. A friend from college stayed with me for a week. We just talked and watched a lot

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for main ideas and details about vacations discussed using the simple past of be

A [CD 2, Track 21]

- Set the scene. Two friends, Daniel and Amanda, are talking about their vacations.
- Play the audio program. Ask Ss to listen to find out if they enjoyed their vacations. They check yes or no in the chart.

Daniel That sounds fun, too.

of old movies.

Daniel Oh, that's too bad.

Audio script

Amanda Daniel! Hi! Welcome back. You were away last week, right?

Daniel Yeah, I was on vacation.

Amanda Where did you go?

Daniel I went to San Francisco.

Amanda Nice! How was it?

Daniel Oh, I loved it! It's a really pretty city.

Amanda So . . . why San Francisco?

Daniel Oh, my sister lives there. I stayed with her. I went sightseeing, and she loves to shop, so we went shopping every day. Look, I got this sweater.

Amanda Nice! I didn't go anywhere on my last vacation. I didn't have enough money to go anywhere.

Answers

Daniel: Yes Amanda: Yes

B [CD 2, Track 22]

- Play the audio program again. Ss complete the chart with information about Daniel's and Amanda's vacations. Pause the audio for Ss to write as needed.
- Go over answers with the class.

Answers

Daniel's vacation

Who with: sister Place: San Francisco Activities: went sightseeing, went shopping

Amanda's vacation

Place: home Who with: a friend from college Activities: talked, watched movies

READING

Learning Objective: read for main ideas and details in online posts about past vacations

• Option: Ask Ss to bring in recent vacation photos. In pairs or small groups, Ss talk about the places.

- Ask Ss to cover the writing of the online posts and look at the pictures. Ask: "Where did each person go on his or her vacation? What do you think he or she did there?" Elicit ideas. Help with vocabulary as needed (e.g., China, mountains, desert, Egypt, lake, Bolivia).
- Option: Bring in a world map and help Ss find the Tianzi Mountains, Hunan Province, China; the Sahara Desert, Hurghada, Egypt; and Salar de Uyuni, Uyuni, Bolivia. Elicit Ss' knowledge about these places.

B

- Explain the task. Remind Ss to try to guess the meanings of any words they don't know.
- Ss read the three posts silently and complete the task individually. Then they compare answers in pairs or small groups.
- Option: Ask pairs or groups to find the place in each post where the sentences fit best.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

cable car: a vehicle that hangs from cables and carries people up mountains man-made: made by people, not natural desert: a large, hot dry area of land with little water and few plants land art: art that uses the natural materials of the earth in the landscape satellite: a piece of equipment that travels in space and sends signals to Earth prehistoric: of a time in the past before there were written records

Go over answers with the class.

Answers

1. 3 2. 1

C Pair work

- Ss discuss the questions in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- To check answers, have pairs share their responses with the class.

Answers

- 1. Marco took a cable car.
- 2. Letitia saw a piece of land art.
- 3. Kelly had a very active vacation.
- 4. Answers will vary.

My Plan for Unit 8

Use the space below to customize a plan that fits your needs.

With the following SB exercises	I am using these materials in class	My students are using these materials outside the classroom

How's the neighborhood?

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-6

In Unit 8, students ask about and describe places, and describe a neighborhood. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to ask about and describe places using there is/there are and prepositions of place. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to describe features of a neighborhood using quantifiers.

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: describe what you do at places in a neighborhood

Α

- Introduce the topic of neighborhoods. Ask: "What places do you need to find in a neighborhood?" Elicit Ss' answers and write them on the board.
- Focus Ss' attention on the picture. Elicit the names of places that might be in the picture (e.g., clothing store, gift shop).
- Model the task. Ask: "What's a clothing store?" Tell Ss to say "stop" when you read the correct definition. Read out possible answers (e.g., It's a place where you get food and small items for the home. It's a place where you can connect to the Internet.) until the Ss say "stop."
- Ss match the words and definitions individually. Then go over answers with the class.

Answers

1. f 2. a 3. c 5. d 7. b 4. q

- Ss take turns asking and answering the questions in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Go over any errors you noticed, including pronunciation errors.

B Pair work

- Present the example definition for coffee shop. Then elicit more possible definitions from the class (e.g., It's a place where you meet friends after class.) and write them on the board.
- Ss write definitions for each place in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

Possible answers

coffee shop drugstore gas station library post office

It's a place where you . . . drink coffee and eat small meals buy medicine and toiletries get gas for your vehicle read and borrow books mail letters, cards, and packages

C Group work

• Model the task. Each pair from part B joins another pair. Pairs take turns giving definitions and guessing places.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use there is/there are and one/any/some in a conversation about places in a neighborhood

[CD 2, Track 23]

- Books closed. Write this question on the board: When you move to a new neighborhood, what do you need to find?
- Elicit answers from the class and write them on the board.
- Set the scene. Greg just moved into a new neighborhood, and he is looking for two things. What are they? Play the audio program.

- Go over answers with the class. (Answer: He's looking for a grocery store and a laundromat.)
- Books open. Elicit information about the picture. Ask: "What other place does Mrs. Cook suggest? Why?" Then play the audio program again. Ss listen and find the answers. (Answer: She suggests a hair salon because Greg needs a haircut.)
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read the conversation silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objectives: ask and answer questions with there is/there are; answer questions with one/any/some/ prepositions of place

[CD 2, Track 24]

Is there/Are there?

• Before class, write these words on nine large cards:

is	There	a laundromat
one	are	grocery stores
any	some	near/around here

TIP

Cards are useful for helping Ss visualize grammar in an active way. They work well with grammar topics such as word order and substitution.

Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 50. Ask: "What question does Greg ask beginning with is there?" Elicit the question. Then ask four Ss to come to the front of the class. Have them stand in line holding up these cards:

S1: is

S3: a laundromat 54: near/around here

• Ask: "What question does Greg ask beginning with are there?" Elicit the question. Then ask five Ss to stand in line holding up these cards:

S1: are S2: there 93: any S4: arocery stores 55: near/around here

• Focus Ss' attention on the two questions in the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rule for forming questions with is there and are there. Is there + a/an + singular noun + near/around here? Are there + any + plural noun + near/around here?

One and some

• Ask four Ss to hold up these cards:

S1: there S2: is

S3: a laundromat 54: near/around here

- Point out that a singular noun and its article such as a laundromat can be replaced by one. Ask another S to take the card one and replace S3.
- Repeat the activity with plural nouns. This time, replace grocery stores with some.
- Play the audio program.

Prepositions

- Elicit or explain the meaning of the prepositions. Use the map. Ask: "What places are on Elm Street?" (Answer: Star Plaza Hotel, Bing's Café, Clifford Hotel) Ask Ss about other places using prepositions.
- Option: For more practice visualizing the prepositions in an active way, ask Ss to stand across from each other, next to the wall, near the board, etc.

A

- Explain the task and read the example questions. Ss write questions individually. Point out that there should be a preposition in each question.
- Ss compare their questions in small groups. They read out their questions and check for grammatical accuracy.
- Go around the class and give help as needed. Ask three or four Ss with correct questions to write them on the board.

Possible answers

All questions should follow these patterns: Is there + a singular noun + a preposition + a place?

(e.g., Is there a bank across from the hotel?) Are there any + plural noun + a preposition + a place?

(e.g., Are there any hotels on Elm Street?)

B Pair work

- Model the task two or three times using the map and the questions on the board:
 - T: Is there a bank across from the hotel?
 - S1: Yes, there is. There's one next to the arocery store.
 - T: Are there any gas stations on Pine Street?
 - S2: No. there aren't. But there's one on Main Street.

TIP

To make sure that Ss understand instructions, always model the task at least twice. If possible, model it with different Ss each time.

• Ss take turns asking and answering their questions in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

For a new way to teach this Grammar Focus, try Picture Dictation – download it from the website. Describe a town or city center to your Ss. Include streets and places.

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural by reducing there is/there are in long answers

A [CD 2, Track 25]

• Play the audio program. Point out the reduced forms. Ask Ss to practice the short conversations using the reductions. Point out that there is is often contracted to there's in writing, but there are is not.

- Go over the instructions and model the task.
- Go around the class and give individual feedback on Ss' use of reductions.

It's more important to recognize reductions than to produce them. Don't force Ss to produce reductions if they are not ready.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions with there is/there are and one/any/some/prepositions of place

A Pair work

- Model the task. Tell the class the name of a neighborhood that they are familiar with. Then model some examples, such as, "In the village center, there's a bank on Green Street. There aren't any restaurants on Tenth Avenue."
- Focus Ss' attention on the chart. Explain the task. Elicit what Ss will write to explain where. (Answer: a preposition and a place) Encourage Ss to look at Exercises 1 and 3 and to use their own ideas.

• Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and help where needed.

B Group work

- Explain the task. Model the conversation with three Ss. Point out that Ss should say, "Sorry, I don't know," if they don't know about a place.
- In groups, pairs take turns asking and answering about places. Go around and listen for Ss' use of there is/there are. Note any errors, but don't correct them.
- Have groups report who got the most "yes" answers. Then go over any errors on the board with the class.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about places

A [CD 2, Track 26]

- Read out the instructions to set the scene. Then play the audio program. Ss listen and complete the Location column in the chart.
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen, decide if the hotel clerk thinks the places are interesting, and check (✓) Yes or No.
- Go over answers with the class.

Clerk Actually, it's small, and it doesn't have any famous art, so some people think it's not very interesting.

Guest 1 Oh, then maybe we won't go there.

Guest 2 Hmm, one last question – is there a zoo in the city?

Clerk Yes, there's a very good one. The City Zoo is only about six blocks from here. It's in the park next to the train station.

Guest 2 Oh, good! That's not very far from here. Clerk No, it isn't. Definitely visit the zoo.

Guest 1 OK! Thanks a lot.

Clerk You're welcome. Have a good day.

Audio script

Clerk Good morning. Can I help you? Guest 1 Yes, please. We need some directions. Clerk Sure. What are you looking for?

Guest 1 Well, first of all, we're looking for the Flavors of Hollywood restaurant. How far is it from here?

Clerk Oh, it's just a few minutes from here - right across from the post office.

Guest 2 The post office on Western Avenue? Clerk Yes, that's the one.

Guest 2 Is Flavors of Hollywood a nice place? Clerk Well, I think so. The food is good, and there are some interesting things to look at in the restaurant from movies like Rocky, The Terminator, and

Titanic. Guest 2 Great! And where is the Museum of Modern Clerk Well, that's near the City Concert Hall. Guest 1 Near the City Concert Hall. OK, I know where that is. And what's the museum like?

Answers Place Location Interesting? Flavors of across from the Yes Hollywood post office on . Western Avenue Museum of near the City Nο

Cycle 2, Exercises 7–12

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: describe different neighborhoods

• Focus Ss' attention on the pictures. Elicit information about the pictures. Elicit or explain new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

suburb: an area outside of a city where people district: a part of a city that has a lot of one kind of business campus: the land and buildings that belong to a college or university industrial: connected with industry; having a lot of factories

- Ask pairs of Ss to brainstorm businesses and things that you might find in one of the neighborhoods. Elicit ideas from the class and write them on the
- Ss answer the guestions in small groups. Go around the groups and give help as needed.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions and use quantifiers in a conversation about a neighborhood

[CD 2, Track 27]

- Elicit information about the picture. Ask: "What is the woman doing? What floor do you think she lives on? What does the neighborhood look like?"
- Books closed. Write these focus questions on the
 - 1. What are Barry and Alana talking about?
 - 2. What does Alana invite Barry to do at the end of the conversation?
- Play the audio program. Ask Ss to listen for the answers to the focus questions. Then go over the answers. (Answers: 1. Alana's new apartment and neighborhood 2. She invites him to have dinner at the Italian restaurant downstairs.)

TIP

To reduce anxiety, point out that Ss will hear the audio program several times. Remind them that they aren't expected to understand every word.

- Write these additional focus questions on the board:
 - 1. Where is Alana's new apartment?
 - 2. Is Alana's new neighborhood safe?
 - 3. When does it get noisy in Alana's apartment?
- Play the audio program again. Elicit Ss' answers. (Answers: 1. downtown 2. yes, there isn't much crime 3. on the weekends) Then elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

downtown: the business center of a city convenient: easy to get to or find things traffic: the amount of cars and trucks using a road crime: illegal activities safe: not dangerous; without crime

- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read the conversation silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.
- Option: Ss practice the conversation in pairs again but change the details, such as the amounts of traffic, noise, and crime, and the restaurant type.
- For a new way to practice this conversation, try the Onion Ring technique – download it from the website.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions with count and noncount nouns and quantifiers

[CD 2, Track 28]

Count and noncount nouns

Write this chart on the board:

Count nouns Noncount nouns restaurant traffic café crime

- Ask: "Which nouns take a plural -s ending?" (Answer: restaurant and café) "Which nouns usually don't take a plural -s ending?" (Answer: traffic and crime) Explain that restaurant and café are count nouns because we can count them (e.g., one restaurant, two restaurants). However, we don't count traffic or crime.
- For more practice with count and noncount nouns, play Tic-Tac-Toe – download it from the website.

How many and how much

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 53. Have Ss underline questions with is there and are there (e.g., Is there much traffic? Is there much crime in that area? Is there a lot of noise?).
- Elicit or explain the rules: Is there + much + noncount noun? How many + count noun + are there?

Quantifiers

• Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Point out that quantifiers are used to describe different amounts of things (e.g., a lot, a few, any, many, much, none).

- Ask Ss to look at the Grammar Focus box. Ask "How are a lot, any, and none similar?" (Answer: They can be used with both count or noncount nouns.)
- Play the audio program.

- Model the first question. Ss complete the exercise individually. Then Ss compare their answers in pairs.
- Go over the answers as a class.

Possible answers

- 1. Yes, there's a lot. There's a little. No, there isn't much/any. No, there's none.
- 2. Yes, there are a lot/many. There are a few. No, there aren't any. No, there are none.
- 3. There's a lot/a little/none. There isn't much/any.
- 4. There are a lot/many. There are a few. There aren't any. There are none.
- 5. Yes, there's a lot. There's a little. No, there isn't much/any. No, there's none.
- 6. Yes, there are a lot/many. There are a few. No, there aren't any. No, there are none.
- 7. There is a lot/a little/none. There isn't much/
- 8. There are a lot/many. There are a few. There aren't any. There are none.
- Ss ask and answer the questions in pairs.
- Option: Ss repeat the task with a new partner.

B Group work

- Explain and model the task.
- Ss write questions individually. Then they take turns asking and answering the questions in pairs.

INTERCHANGE 8

See page T-122 for teaching notes.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write a paragraph about one's neighborhood

- Ss read the example paragraph silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.
- Point out that Kate wrote about what she likes and doesn't like about her neighborhood, the places in it, and what she does every day.

• Explain the task. Ss write their paragraphs individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.

C Pair work

• Explain the task. While Ss are asking questions, check for correct use of count and noncount nouns.

12 READING

Learning Objective: scan and read for details in an article about three neighborhoods

- Ss cover the text and look at the pictures. Ask: "What do you think this neighborhood in Tokyo is like?" Elicit ideas from the class.
- Go over the task. Point out that Ss should scan quickly to look for the word nightlife. Set a time limit.

TIP

When Ss scan an article, set a time limit. This encourages them to read quickly, focusing only on the task.

• Ss silently scan the article and check (✓) the neighborhood that is famous for nightlife. (Answer: Pigneto, Rome) Elicit answers from the class.

B

- Model the task. Ask Ss to read the first paragraph. Then elicit the main idea.
- Ss read the article in detail. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

hip: very fashionable at the moment indie: not controlled by anyone else live music venue: a place where musicians perform music for an audience festival: a series of special events or performances

boutique: a small shop that carries specially selected items

locally made: something that is created very close to where it is sold

- Ss write the paragraph letters next to the items.
- Go over answers with the class.

Answers

1. C	2. A	3. B	4. A
5 C	6. B	7 A	8 B

C Pair work

- Read the questions aloud. Model an example of your favorite neighborhood.
- Ss discuss the questions in pairs. Have some pairs share their answers with the class.

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

Progress check

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one's learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: "What did you learn in Units 7 and 8?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) A little.
- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
 - 1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
 - 2. Ask Ss: "What do you need to practice?" Then assign exercises based on their answers.
 - 3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to understand descriptions of and describe past events

A [CD 2, Track 29]

- Explain the task. Elicit or explain that a thief is someone who commits the crime of stealing, which is taking something that doesn't belong to him. When the thief enters a house illegally and steals, it is called robbing. A detective is a member of the police who tries to find out what happened.
- Play the audio program. Ss complete the task. Then go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Detective Hello, Jimmy. I'm Detective Roberts. Can I ask you a few questions about your

Hi, Detective. Um, sure. What do you want Jimmy to know about my weekend?

Now just tell the truth. Where were you at Detective

1:00 P.M. on Saturday?

Ah . . . 1:00 P.M. . . . on Saturday? Well, oh, Jimmy

I remember! I was at home. I watched the baseball game on TV. Yeah, the White Hats won, four to nothing. It was a great game.

Detective OK . . . OK. Where were you at 3:00 P.M.? Ah . . . at 3:00? Oh yeah, I went to my Jimmy martial arts class like I always do, every Saturday at 3:00.

Martial arts, huh? Well . . . OK. And what Detective did you do after that? At 5:00 P.M.?

Uh . . . oh, well, after class, I visited some Jimmy old friends of mine – Jordan and Stephanie Smith, on Lake Street.

Detective Yeah? Jordan and Stephanie Smith. We'll talk to them. Now, Jimmy, 6:00. Where were you at 6:00?

Jimmy Hmm . . . at 6:00? Well, I went home at 6:00

... yeah ... to ... uh ... clean the house. Detective Yeah, yeah, so you cleaned the house.

Now, listen carefully, Jimmy. Where were you at 8:00 on Saturday night?

Uh . . . at 8:00? Uh . . . oh, yeah . . . I Jimmy remember now. I was at home. I watched a terrific movie online. Yeah . . . it was great! Oh, you watched a movie? And what movie Detective did you watch? What was the name of the movie, Jimmy?

The movie? The name of the movie? Uh, let Jimmy me think a minute. It was a fantastic movie.

Detective

No, wait! I remember, it was, uh . . . uh . . . Jimmy well, it was exciting.

Detective OK, Jimmy . . Jimmy

. . . and I clearly remember that I went to bed at 10:30, uh, exactly . . . Yeah. I watched the movie, and I went to bed right after . . . uh . . . the movie. Yeah, boy, I was tired – a long day, like I said.

Detective Interesting, Very interesting, Jimmy. Come on, Jimmy. Let's go down to the police

The police station? Me? Why me? I was at Jimmy home on Saturday night!

Sure, Jimmy, sure. Detective

B Pair work

Ss retell the story in pairs.

DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to ask and answer questions about past activities

• Ss check (✓) the things they did individually yesterday. Then they add two more things.

B Group work

• Model the conversation with a S. Then Ss ask and answer questions about the things in part A in small groups.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to give and follow simple directions

A

- Explain the task. Ss create a neighborhood. They choose five places from the list and add them to My
- For plurals, tell Ss to be sure to draw two places on their maps.
- Ss complete the task individually.
- Go around the class and give help as needed.

B Pair work

- Read the instructions aloud. Ask two Ss to model the example conversation. Explain that Student A draws one gas station on the corner of Center Street and First Avenue and another gas station on Center Street across from the park on My partner's map. Point out that Ss cannot look at their partners' maps.
- Ss take turns asking and answering questions in pairs.
- Tell Ss to ask any additional questions to find the exact location of each place (e.g., Is it next to the grocery store?).
- Ss then compare maps. Ask: "Did you draw the places in the correct locations?"

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to describe a neighborhood

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Student A is a visitor in Student B's neighborhood. Student A asks questions and Student B answers them.
- Model the example conversation with a S.

- Go over the topics in the box. Explain or elicit any new vocabulary.
- Ss practice the role play in pairs. Then they change roles and practice again.
- Go around the class and check Ss' use of how many, how much, and quantifiers.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one's learning

- Focus Ss' attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: "How well can you do these things now?"
- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: "What did you underline? How can you review it?"
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss' answers.

What does she look like?

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-6

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: describe people's physical characteristics

Α

- Books closed. Explain that Ss will learn ways to describe what people look like. Ask questions about different Ss: "Is he tall or short? Does she have straight or curly hair?"
- Option: Ask Ss to bring pictures of friends or family members to class. Alternatively, bring magazine pictures of people to class.
- Books open. Focus Ss' attention on the expressions and pictures. Ask them to circle any words they don't know.
- Ask different Ss to read the expressions. Give help with pronunciation as needed. Point out that handsome usually refers to men and pretty to women, but good-looking describes both men and women. Also point out that adverbs such as fairly and pretty can modify the strength of different descriptions (e.g., fairly short, pretty tall).
- Write these headings across the top of the board: Hair Age Looks Height Other
- Ss work in groups. Ask Ss to brainstorm at least three more expressions to describe people. Then ask a S from each group to write their expressions under the correct headings on the board.

Possible answers

Hair: light brown hair, dark brown hair, gray hair, medium length hair, wavy hair, a ponytail Age: ten, in his or her teens/twenties/thirties, old Looks: thin, heavy, cute, beautiful, gorgeous Height: rather short, quite tall Other: blue eyes, green eyes, dark eyes, brown eyes

Don't give your Ss too much new vocabulary. If they already know the presented vocabulary, add more. If not, add just a few extra words they want to know.

In Unit 9, students describe people's physical appearance and identify people by describing how they look and what they're doing. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to describe people's physical appearance. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to identify people using modifiers with participles and prepositions to describe how they look, what they are wearing, what they're doing, and where they are.

- Explain or elicit the rules for using the new words: be + adjective have + noun
 - Then ask Ss to write have or be next to the expressions on the board. Stress that we use be with
- Option: Ss write sentences about famous people using expressions from the boxes (e.g., Chris Hemsworth is handsome.). Then they read their sentences to their classmates, who agree or disagree.

B Pair work

- Ss choose at least four expressions to describe themselves and their partners. They complete the chart individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ask two Ss to read the example conversation. Elicit other expressions for agreeing or disagreeing (e.g., That's true. No way!). Write them on the board.
- Ss compare charts in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: Ss work with different partners. This time, they sit back-to-back and describe each other from memory.
- For a new way to review, categorize, or expand on the vocabulary in this Word Power, try Mind Mapping – download it from the website.

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions to describe a person in a conversation

A [CD 2, Track 30]

- Ss cover the text. Ask Ss to describe the people in the picture.
- Write these focus questions on the board:
 - 1. Who are Justin and Lauren talking about?
 - 2. How does Justin describe her?
 - 3. How old is she?
- Play the audio program and elicit the answers.
 (Answers: 1. Justin's new girlfriend 2. She's really smart and pretty. She's tall and has beautiful brown hair. 3. Justin doesn't know.)
- Ss uncover the text. Play the audio program again.
 Ss listen and read silently.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

5 foot 10: 178 centimeters

rude: not polite

 Ss practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed. Option: Ss cover the conversation and look only at the picture. Then they practice the conversation again using their own words.

D B [CD 2, Track 31]

- Read the focus question aloud. Ask Ss to make predictions. Write their predictions on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answer to the focus question.
- Ss compare answers in small groups. Then go over answers with the class. Was anyone's prediction correct?

Audio script

Lauren So you don't know her age? Justin No. But I don't really care.

Lauren OK. Well, how old do you think she is? Justin Who knows? I think she's in her thirties.

Lauren And how old are you? Justin I'm 29.

Lauren Oh, cool, so she's older than you.

Possible answer

Tiffany is probably in her thirties. Tiffany is older than Justin.

3 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions about physical appearance and age

[CD 2, Track 32]

- Books closed. Write these questions and statements on the board:
 - 1. What does she look like?
- a. It's pretty short.
- 2. How old is she?
- b. She's pretty.
- 3. How tall is she?
- c. She's about 32.
- 4. How long is her hair?
- d. She's 5 foot 10.
- Ask Ss to match the questions with the answers. (Answers: 1. b, 2. c, 3. d, 4. a)
- Books open. Tell Ss to look at the Grammar Focus box to check their answers. Play the audio program.

Δ

- Explain the task. Read the first answer and elicit the question.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then they compare answers in pairs.
- Write the numbers 1 to 7 on the board. Ask different Ss to write the questions on the board. Then go over them as a class.

Answers

- 1. How old is your father?
- 2. How tall are you?
- 3. What color is your cousin's hair?/What color hair does your cousin have?
- 4. Does he wear glasses?
- 5. What does he look like?
- 6. How long is your sister's hair?
- 7. What color are your eyes?/What color eyes do you have?

B Pair work

- Explain the task and model the example conversation with a S.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and check Ss' grammar.
- For more practice asking questions about appearance, play Twenty Questions download it from the website.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about people's physical appearance and age

A [CD 2, Track 33]

- Focus Ss' attention on the picture. In pairs Ss brainstorm words or expressions to describe each person. Point out that they should describe the people, not their clothes.
- Each pair joins another pair and compares ideas. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Explain the task. Tell Ss to listen for key words (e.g., short, glasses) and not worry about understanding every word.
- Play the audio program. Ss complete the task individually.
- Go over answers with the class.

Audio script

- 1. I think Chris is good-looking. He's pretty tall, with dark brown hair, and he has a beard. I think he's about 30.
- 2. Courtney's 18. She has blond hair shoulder length and straight - and she always wears interesting hats, just for fun.
- 3. Victoria is pretty tall for her age. She has curly red hair and always wears a baseball cap. She just turned 10.

- 4. Justin's in his twenties. He's fairly short and wears glasses. His hair isn't very long.
- 5. Mark is middle-aged. He's going bald and has a mustache. He likes to wear sunglasses. And he always wears a leather jacket.
- 6. Hannah is very tall, and she has long black hair. She's around 25. Oh, and she's very slim. I don't think she wears glasses, but I'm not sure.

- Ask a S to read the focus question aloud. Then play the audio program. Ss listen for the answers.
- Ss compare answers in pairs. Elicit their answers. Play the audio program again if needed.

Answers

- 1. Chris is 30.
- 2. Courtney is 18.
- 3. Victoria is 10.
- 4. Justin is in his twenties.
- 5. Mark is middle-aged.
- 6. Hannah is around 25.

INTERCHANGE 9

See pages T-123 and T-124 for teaching notes.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write an email describing someone

- Set the scene. Say: "Imagine you're organizing a special event at your school and a celebrity – a famous person like a singer, actor, or sports star - will be the surprise guest. You will write an email to a friend describing the celebrity without naming him or her. How will you describe the celebrity?"
- Ask a S to read the model email. Elicit or explain any new words or expressions.
- Explain the task. Each S writes an email describing a celebrity. Point out that Ss should not write the name of the celebrity.
- Option: Ss write the email for homework.

B Group work

- Explain the task and read the question.
- Ss take turns reading their descriptions in small groups. Their classmates guess which celebrity they are describing.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss clothing styles

- Books closed. Ask: "What kind of clothing is in fashion now?" Help Ss with vocabulary as needed.
- Write these clothing styles on the board: boho, classic prep, hipster, and streetwear. Elicit or explain their meanings.

Vocabulary

boho: short for "bohemian"; an informal style flowy: moves in a floating manner floral print: a pattern made from flowers classic: always fashionable prep: short for "preparatory school";

a traditional style pastel: pale, soft colors hipster: someone who is influenced by the latest ideas hip: short form of "hipster"; fashionable logo: a company's symbol or design

- Ss brainstorm examples of clothing for each style.
- Books open. Ss compare their ideas with the Snapshot.
- Ask different Ss to read the questions.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then they compare answers in pairs or small groups. Elicit Ss' answers.
- Option: Bring fashion magazines to class. Ss discuss which styles are boho, classic prep, hipster, or streetwear.
- Option: Assign classes of younger Ss to make their own Snapshots. Ss cut pictures of clothing from fashion magazines, put them on cards, and label the items and styles. Then display the Ss' work. Or Ss can create online picture boards and share them with the class

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use modifiers, prepositions, and participles in a conversation about identifying people

A [CD 2, Track 35]

- Write these questions on the board:
 - 1. Where are these people?
 - 2. What are they doing?
 - 3. What are they wearing?
 - 4. What do they look like?
- Focus Ss' attention on the picture. Have Ss ask each other the questions about the people in the picture. Then elicit possible answers.
- Set the scene. Diego comes to a party alone. He meets his friend Brooke. She tells him about some people at the party.
- Write these focus questions on the board:
 - 1. Where's Cora?
 - 2. Where's Paula?
 - 3. Does Paula know anyone at the party?
- Play the audio program once or twice. Elicit Ss' answers to the focus questions. (Answers: 1. She's at a concert. 2. She's standing near the window. 3. No, she doesn't.)
- Play the audio program again. Ss look at the picture and read the conversation silently.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

couldn't make it: wasn't able to come

- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.
- For a new way to teach this Conversation, try the Musical Dialog – download it from the website.

B [CD 2, Track 36]

- Explain the task.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen and label the people in the picture individually.
- Ss compare answers in pairs. Then go over answers with the class. Play the audio program again if needed.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use modifiers with participles and prepositions to describe people

[CD 2, Track 37]

Modifiers with participles and prepositions

- Write these five sentences on the board:
 - 1. He's the man dancing in the living room.
 - 2. She's the one wearing a red dress.
 - 3. She's the one with glasses.
 - 4. He's the one in gray pants.
 - 5. She's the tall person next to the window.
- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 61. Ss identify each person in pairs.
- Go over the answers as a class. (Answers: 1. Matt 2. Sierra 3. Hina 4. Liam 5. Paula)
- Explain the form of a present participle (verb + -ing). Then elicit the participles in the sentences on the board (dancing and wearing) and underline them.
- Elicit the prepositions in the sentences on the board (with, in, and next to) and circle them.
- Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Point out that one replaces man or woman and ones refers to more than one person.
- Play the audio program. Answer any remaining questions.

A

- Explain the task and ask two Ss to read the example statement and rewritten statement.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then they compare answers in pairs.
- Ask different Ss to write the answers on the board. Then go over them with the class.

Answers

- 1. Kyle is the tall guy wearing a yellow shirt and brown pants.
- 2. Mark and Eve are the middle-aged couple talking to Michael.
- 3. Alexis is the young girl in a white T-shirt and blue ieans.
- 4. Britney is the woman in the green dress sitting to the left of Javier.
- 5. J.P. is the serious-looking boy playing a video game.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss complete the task using the names of classmates.
- Ss complete the task individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ss take turns asking and answering their questions in pairs. Go around the class and note any grammar errors.
- Option: For more practice, Ss change partners and complete the task again.

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural by using contrastive stress

A [CD 2, Track 38]

- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the stressed words.
- Focus Ss' attention on the conversations. Point out that people use more stress when they correct information. Ask: "What words does Student B stress?" (Answers: black, Jen)
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen and clap when they hear the stressed words.

B [CD 2, Track 39]

- Focus Ss' attention on the conversations. Ask them to mark the words they think Student B will stress.
- Play the audio program. Ss check and correct their guesses.

• Check answers as a class. Then Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

Answers

(Contrastive stress is in boldface.)

- 1. A: Is Sophie the one sitting next to Judy?
 - B: No, she's the one standing next to Judy.
- 2. A: Is David the one on the couch?
 - B: No, he's the one behind the couch.
- Option: Ask Ss to write questions about classmates or classroom objects with incorrect information (e.g., Is the teacher the one sitting in the back? Is your backpack the one on the floor?). Then Ss ask each other the questions in pairs. Go around the class and check their use of contrastive stress.
- For a new way to teach this Pronunciation, try Walking Stress – download it from the website.

READING

Learning Objective: read for main ideas and details in a reading about selfies

A

- Books closed. Write The Age of Selfies on the board. Ask Ss to write down words related to this topic in pairs. If Ss don't know anything about the topic, ask them to write questions they have about it. Elicit Ss' answers and questions.
- Books open. Go over the task. Read the descriptions with the class.
- Ss match the descriptions with the pictures individually. Then check the answers.

Answers

This picture is out of this world!: B My life in fashion.: D An old idea meets the twenty-first century.: A The real me or the "perfect" me?: C

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-3

In Unit 10, students describe recent activities and experiences from the recent and distant past. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to describe recent activities using the present perfect, already, and yet. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to describe experiences from the recent and distant past using the present perfect, simple past, for, and since.

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss activities one has done or would like to try

- Books closed. Explain that this unit is about fun and unusual activities. Elicit fun or unusual activities Ss like to do and write them on the board.
- Books open. Ss look at the Snapshot and compare their ideas. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

theme park: a park with rides, entertainment, and restaurants, usually about one subject (such as cartoon characters or superheroes) space center: a center for human spaceflight

- Point out that this information is from an online travel guide, a website that lists things to do. Explain the task and read the questions.
- Ss do the task individually. Go around the class to give help as needed. Then elicit the answers from the class.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use the present perfect in a conversation about recent activities

A [CD 2, Track 40]

- Books closed. Ask: "Where is Orlando? What famous theme parks are there? What space center is there?" (Answers: Florida, Disney World and Universal Studios, NASA's Kennedy Space Center)
- Books open. Set the scene. Carlos is visiting Orlando. His friend Erin wants to show him the city.
- Draw this chart on the board:

Activities Yes No

- 1. Go to a theme park
- 2. Go shopping
- 3. Visit the space center
- 4. Relax

Ask Ss to copy the chart.

- Explain the task. Ss listen to the audio program and check (✓) Yes if Carlos has done the activities and No if he hasn't.
- Play the audio program and Ss complete the task. Then elicit their answers. (Answers: 1. yes 2. yes 3. yes
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read along silently.
- Ask these comprehension questions: "When did Carlos arrive in Orlando? Who has he met?" Elicit Ss' answers. (Answers: about a week ago, an astronaut)
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

I can't wait to: I'm excited about; I'm looking forward to take it easy: relax

My feet are killing me!: My feet really hurt!

• Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

B [CD 2, Track 41]

- Explain the task and read the focus question.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answer individually. Then elicit the answer.

Audio script

Carlos Thanks, Erin. We can plan something for tomorrow.

Erin Great! Have you been to a Cuban restaurant yet?

Carlos No, I haven't. But I've heard Cuban food is delicious. Let's have lunch at a Cuban restaurant tomorrow. Erin Good idea. I know a great little place on Orange Blossom Trail.

Carlos Cool! Maybe in the evening we can go listen to some jazz. Do you know a good club?

Sure, I've been to several. We can go Erin to Casey's on Central. I've been there a couple of times. It's really good.

Carlos OK! Sounds like a plan!

Answers

They plan to have lunch at a Cuban restaurant and listen to jazz in the evening.

3 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objectives: ask and answer questions using the present perfect with regular and irregular past participles; use already and yet with the present perfect in responses

CD 2, Track 42]

Present perfect

Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 64.
 Ask: "What has Carlos done in Orlando?" Elicit Ss' answers and write them on the board:

been to three theme parks.

He has been to many stores.

been to the Kennedy Space Center.

- Ask: "When did he do these things?" (Answer: sometime in the past week)
- Explain that these sentences are in the present perfect. We use this tense with past actions when the exact time is not important.
- Draw this time line on the board:

CARLOS ARRIVED theme park NOW

Explain that Carlos has been to a theme park sometime in the past week. We don't know the exact time, and it's not important.

- Say: "Carlos said he's been to three theme parks this week." Draw two more X's on the time line and say: "Carlos has been to a theme park three times this week"
- Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box.
 Elicit or explain the rules for forming present perfect statements and yes/no questions:

Subject + has/have + past participle.

Has/Have + subject + past participle?

- Point out the placement of yet and already and explain the meaning. Yet goes at the end of present perfect questions and at the end of negative statements. Already goes before the past participle and means "earlier than expected."
- Play the audio program and answer any questions.

Α

- Explain the task and read the examples. Elicit adverbs of frequency such as once, twice, and a couple of times. Then ask different Ss and elicit their answers.
- Call on Ss to read the regular and irregular past participles. Then point out the list of irregular past participles in the appendix.

• Ss complete the task individually and compare answers in pairs. Then ask different Ss to write their answers on the board.

Possible answers

- 1. I've cooked dinner every day/four times this week. I haven't cooked dinner this week.
- 2. I've washed the dishes once/five times this week. I haven't washed the dishes this week.
- 3. I've listened to music every day/three times this week. I haven't listened to music this week.
- 4. I've done laundry once/twice this week. I haven't done laundry this week.
- 5. I've gone to a restaurant once/twice this week. I haven't gone to a restaurant this week.
- 6. I've cleaned the house once/twice this week. I haven't cleaned the house this week.

В

- Explain the task and model the first conversation with a S.
- Ss complete the task individually. Encourage Ss to use contractions in their answers. Go around the class and give help as needed. Then elicit Ss' answers.

Answers

- 1. A: Have you done much exercise this week?
 - B: Yes, I've already been to Pilates class four times.
- 2. A: Have you played any sports this month?
 - B: No, I haven't had the time.
- 3. A: How many movies have you been to this month?
 - B: Actually, I haven't seen any yet.
- 4. A: Have you been to any interesting parties recently?
 - B: No, I haven't gone to any parties for quite a while.
- 5. A: Have you cooked any food this week?
 - B: Yes, I've already made dinner twice.
- 6. A: How many times have you gone out to eat this week?
 - B: I've eaten at fast-food restaurants a couple of times.

C Pair work

- Ss take turns asking and answering the questions in part B in pairs.
- For more practice with present perfect questions, play Hot Potato download it from the website.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use the present perfect and simple past in a conversation about past experiences

A [CD 2, Track 43]

- Set the scene. Carlos and Erin are discussing where to eat dinner. Elicit ideas and vocabulary from the
- Write this focus question on the board: What does Carlos learn about Erin?
- Books closed. Play the audio program and Ss listen for the answer. (Answer: She went to college in Miami.)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss read the conversation silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.
- For a new way to practice this Conversation, try the Moving Dialog – download it from the website.

B [CD 2, Track 44]

- Explain the task and read the focus question. Encourage Ss to make predictions.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answer. Then elicit the answer from the class.

Audio script

Carlos So, what would you like to do this afternoon? Let's see . . . Have you ever been close to an alligator?

Carlos What? No, I haven't! Why?

There's a new alligator park that I haven't Erin been to yet. I've heard it's very exciting! You can see alligators up close and take pictures with them.

Carlos OK. Just let me finish my sandwich. Maybe this will be my last meal. . . .

Erin Haha! Wow. I've never seen you this scared before.

Answer

They decide to go to an alligator park.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objectives: ask present perfect questions about experiences and answer in the present perfect and simple past; use the present perfect with for and since to describe past experiences

[CD 2, Track 45]

Present perfect

- Write these questions on the board:
 - 1. Has Carlos ever had a Cuban sandwich?
 - 2. Has Erin ever eaten rice and beans?
- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation in Exercise 4 and elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. No, he hasn't. 2. Yes, she has.)
- Ask a few Have you ever questions around the class (e.g., "Have you ever eaten a Cuban sandwich? Have you ever eaten rice and beans?"). Elicit Ss' answers.
- Write this on the board:
 - Have you ever eaten a Cuban sandwich? (No,) I've never eaten a Cuban sandwich.
- Point out that ever means "at any time in your life." We use it in present perfect questions, but not in answers. Never means "not ever," and we use it in present perfect statements.

Simple past

• Ask: "When did Erin eat rice and beans?" Then elicit possible answers (e.g., She ate it several years ago/as a college student.).

- Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Point out that we use the simple past to talk about a specific event in the past.
- Play the audio program.

- Explain the task and model the first conversation with a S.
- Ss complete the task individually. Go around and encourage Ss to use contractions in short answers.
- Elicit the answers. Then Ss practice with a partner.

Answers

- 1. A: Have you ever sung in public?
 - B: Yes, I have. I sang at a friend's birthday party.
- 2. A: Have you ever lost something valuable?
 - B: No, I haven't. But my brother lost his cell phone on a trip once.
- 3. A: Have you ever gotten a traffic ticket?
 - B: Yes, I have. Once I got a ticket and had to pay $50.
- 4. A: Have you ever seen a live concert?
- B: Yes, I have. I saw Adele at the stadium last year.
- 5. A: Have you ever been late for an important event?
 - B: No, I haven't. But my sister was two hours late for her wedding!

B Pair work

• Explain the task. Then Ss complete it in pairs.

[CD 2, Track 46]

For and since

- Write this on the board:
 I lived in Miami for four years.
 I've lived in Miami for four years.
- Elicit or explain the difference. The first sentence is in the simple past. It means "I lived in Miami in the past, but I don't live in Miami now." The second sentence is in the present perfect. It means "I moved to Miami four years ago, and I still live in Miami now."
- Focus Ss' attention on the two expression boxes. Ask:
 "When do we use for? When do we use since?"
- Elicit or explain that we use for with periods of time and since with points in time. Elicit other expressions that go with for (e.g., a day/a week/a year), and since (yesterday/last week/2 P.M.).
- Play the audio program.

C

• Explain the task and model the first sentence. Then Ss complete the task individually. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

2. for 4. for 6. since 8. since		3. since 4. for
---------------------------------	--	--------------------	--	--	--

For more practice with for and since, play Run For It! – download it from the website.

D Pair work

- Explain the task and ask the first question. Elicit different answers with for and since.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and note any errors. Then write the errors on the board and correct them with the class.

6 PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural by linking final /t/ and /d/ sounds in verbs with the vowels that follow

A [CD 2, Track 47]

 Explain the task. Focus Ss' attention on the linked sounds in the example conversations. Then play the audio program.

B Pair work

- Explain and model the task. Elicit the linked sounds in the answers (i.e., cut it, tasted it, tried it, lost it, looked at it). Ask Ss to repeat the linked sounds.
- Ss work in pairs. They ask and answer the questions.
 Go around the class and check their use of linked sounds.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about recent events

CD 2, Track 48]

- Ask: "What's the most interesting thing you've done recently?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Set the scene and explain the task. Ss listen to find out where Nicole went, what she did there, and whether Tyler had been there before.
- Play the audio program. Ss complete the first column of the chart individually. While they listen, draw the chart on the board. Then elicit the answers and ask Ss to write the answers on the board.
- Play the audio program again. Ss complete the second and third columns of the chart individually. Then elicit the answers.

Nicole	It's awesome! The prices are always very low, but when something's on sale, it's so cheap you can't believe it.
Tyler	What was on sale?
Nicole	Skateboards. I got a really nice one. It has a picture of the city on it.
Tyler	Nice! Will you show it to me sometime? I love skateboard art.
Nicole	Of course I will. And speaking of art, I went to the City Museum last week.
Tyler	Oh, nice. I went there once when I was a kid.
Nicole	Oh, cool. It's such a beautiful building.
Tyler	Yeah! What kind of art did you see?
Ňicole	They had an exhibit of modern Mexican art. It was wonderful.
Tyler	Oh, I love modern art. I definitely want to see that.
Nicole	Well, don't wait too long! The exhibit ends next week.

Audio script Tyler Hi, Nicole! Great to see you! What have you been up to lately? Nicole Hey, Tyler. Well, let's see . . . I went shopping at a discount store last week. It's called The Sports Discount Center. Have you ever shopped there? Tyler No, I haven't. What's it like?

Answers
Places Nicole went	What she did there	Has Tyler been there before?
The Sports Discount Center the City Museum	bought a skateboard saw modern Mexican art	No Yes

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: discuss activities using common collocations

- Explain the task. Ss find two phrases in the list that go with each verb. Model the first example (eat + sushi). Then elicit other words or phrases that go with eat (e.g., octopus).
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. While they work, draw the chart on the board. Then go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: Allow Ss to use their dictionaries.
- Elicit Ss' answers. Ask different Ss to write their answers on the board.

Answers

eat sushi/octopus/lobster/cake drink iced coffee/chocolate soda/iced tea/ginger ale drive a truck/a sports car/an electric car/a new car lose your phone/your English books/your keys/ride a bike/a motorcycle/the train/a skateboard wear a costume/a uniform/a swimsuit/a hat

(Note: Possible answers are italicized.)

- Elicit the past participle forms of the verbs. (Answers: eaten, drunk, driven, lost, ridden, worn)
- For more practice with these collocations, play Concentration – download it from the website. Ss match each verb and a phrase to make collocations.

- Explain the task.
- Ss complete the task individually or in pairs.
- Elicit Ss' answers.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions about past experiences

A Group work

- Write these expressions on the board: Really? I'm impressed! You're kidding! Point out that we use these expressions to show interest or surprise. Model how to say them. Ss repeat.
- Option: Ss find more examples of responses in previous conversations. Practice them as a class.
- Explain the activity and model the example conversation with two Ss. Focus Ss' attention on the - picture and ask: "Where was she?" Encourage Ss to make guesses.

- Elicit other follow-up questions and write them on the board.
- Ss complete the activity in small groups. Go around the class and encourage Ss to ask follow-up
- Option: Ss get one point for each follow-up question they ask. The S in each group with the most points

B Class activity

• Ss share things they learned about their classmates with the class

WRITING

Learning Objective: write an email to someone one hasn't seen recently

- Ask the class: "Who haven't you seen in a long time?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Explain the task. Then Ss read the example email silently.
- Ss write their emails individually. Remind Ss to check their use of present perfect and simple past.

B Pair work

• Ss exchange emails in pairs. They imagine they are the "old friend" and write a response.

INTERCHANGE 10

See page T-125 for teaching notes.

12 READING

Learning Objective: skim and read blog posts for specific information

A

- Books closed. Write Unique Experiences on the board. Elicit or explain that unique means "very unusual" or "one of a kind."
- Ss brainstorm unique experiences in small groups.
 Then ask different Ss to write them on the board.

TIP

To prepare Ss for a Reading, ask Ss to brainstorm things they already know about the topic.

- Books open. Go over the task. Elicit ideas from the pictures.
- Ss skim the blog posts and complete the task.

Answers

Jennifer Aniston set off the burglar alarm in her house by sleepwalking. Mervyn Kincaid crossed the Irish Sea in a bathtub with an engine.

B

• Elicit, explain, or ask Ss to look up new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

underground: below the ground Guinness Book of Records: a collection of interesting records covering a wide variety of topics, e.g., most expensive pizza, world's tallest man, or most hot dogs eaten in a minute burglar alarm: a system to alert the people in a house that someone (like a burglar) is moving around inside

sail: to travel in a boat engine: a motor that powers a vehicle like a boat raise (v): to collect money from people charity: a group or organization that helps people who need help donation: money or goods that are given to help people

TIP

To avoid confusing Ss, only pre-teach the words they need to complete the task. They can look up the other words later.

 Explain the task. Ss read the blog posts and answer the questions. Then go over the answers with the class.

Answers

1. F 2. T 3. T 4. F 5. F 6. T 7. T 8. F

C Group work

• Explain the task and read the discussion questions. Ss discuss the questions in pairs.

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

Progress check

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one's learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: "What did you learn in Units 9 and 10?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) A little.
- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
 - 1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
 - 2. Ask Ss: "What do you need to practice?" Then assign exercises based on their answers.
 - 3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to ask about and describe a person's appearance

- Read the instructions aloud and explain the task. Student A makes a report about a lost classmate and Student B completes the Missing person report. Point out that Student A should not give the name of the classmate. Then Student B guesses the identity of the lost classmate.
- Go over the information in the report. Elicit different things Ss can write in the report.
- Write this example conversation on the board:
 - A: Excuse me, Officer. Can you help me? One of my classmates is lost.
 - B: Sure. Um, is the person a man or a woman?
 - A: A woman.
 - B: OK. I need to know her age. How old is she?

A: I think she's 19 or 20.

B: All right. And how tall is she?

Model the conversation with a S. The S is person A and you are person B. Whenever the S gives additional information, pretend to write it in the

- Ss complete the task in pairs. Then Student B looks around the room and identifies the lost classmate.
- Set a time limit of about three minutes. Then Ss change roles. Go around the class and give help as needed.

TIP

If you don't have enough class time for the speaking activities, assign each S a speaking partner. Then have Ss complete the activities with their partners for homework.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to identify people by describing what they're wearing, what they're doing, or where they are

- Focus Ss' attention on the picture. Ask a S to read the example sentences.
- Ss write sentences about each person individually.
- Option: Go around the class and check Ss' work.

Possible answers

Demi is the woman/one with a scarf/in jeans/ wearing a hat.

Adele is the woman/one with blond hair/in the long dress.

Allen is the man/one eating popcorn/in jeans and

Mia and Derek are the people/ones in sunglasses/ looking at the tablet/sitting in chairs.

B Pair work

- Write the names Demi, Adele, Allen, and Mia and Derek on the board.
- Books closed. Explain the task. Ss ask questions about the people on the board in pairs (e.g., Which one is Allen?). They answer using their memory of the picture. If they have difficulty, they can look at their sentences.
- Model the example conversation with a few Ss. Elicit different ways Ss can answer.
- Ss complete the task.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to use the present perfect to ask and answer questions about whether things have been done

• Explain the task. Ss imagine they are preparing for three situations. Read the situations and the example.

• Ss list four things they need to do for each situation.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss exchange lists. Student A asks Student B what he or she has done in each situation. Student B gives responses using already or yet.
- Ss complete the task in pairs.

LISTENING

Learning Objectives: demonstrate one's ability to understand descriptions of experiences; demonstrate one's ability to ask and answer questions about one's experiences

A [CD 2, Track 49]

- Set the scene. Alyssa has just met a friend in San Diego and is talking about things she has done.
- Go over the chart and explain any new vocabulary. Then play the audio program. Ss complete the task.

Matthew Alyssa? What are you doing here in San Alyssa Matthew! What a surprise meeting you here! Actually, I'm here because I won a contest, and the prize was one week at the Seaside Resort Hotel, right on the beach.

Matthew Wow, that's fantastic! Just one night in that hotel costs over $400. Did the contest pay for your flight to San Diego?

Alyssa Actually, I'm afraid of flying. I've never flown on a plane. But I didn't need to pay for the train fare from Los Angeles to San Diego and back.

Matthew That's great.

Alyssa Yeah, it is. Oh, and I think I saw Mario Lopez here yesterday. You know, the actor.

Matthew Maybe you did. He was born here, you know.

Alyssa Really? Wow. I'd love to meet him. I've never met a famous person.

Matthew Well, keep your eyes open and maybe you will. Famous people sometimes stay at the Seaside Resort Hotel. I've heard that it's very beautiful and that there are lots of cool things to do there.

Alyssa Oh, yeah. The hotel activities are lots of fun. I even tried windsurfing.

Matthew Oh, awesome!

Alyssa Yeah, it was. But I did something stupid. I took my wallet with me and almost lost it. I'm always very careful with my wallet, and I have never lost it. It almost fell into the ocean. Luckily, I caught it.

Matthew That was lucky! Well, it sounds like you've really enjoyed your trip.

Alyssa For the most part. I mean, I got sunburned – as you can see – but I'll remember this trip forever. I've even been posting on a blog. I'll email you the Matthew Nice! I look forward to reading it. Well, enjoy the rest of the week.

Alyssa Thanks. I will.

Answers

SURVEY

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to use the present perfect, for, and since to describe one's experiences

• Ss complete the My answers column individually. Point out that they should use for or since.

B Class activity

- Model the task. Ask several Ss the first question until one gives the same answer. Explain that you will write that S's name in the Classmate's name column.
- Ss go around the room and complete the task.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one's learning

- Focus Ss' attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: "How well can you do these things now?"
- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: "What did you underline? How can you review it?"
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss' answers.

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-5

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: describe places using adjectives

A Pair work

- Books closed. Elicit adjectives that describe places (e.g., beautiful, ugly) and write them on the board.
- Books open. Ss check (✔) the adjectives they listed. Then they read the other words silently.
- Elicit words Ss don't understand or know how to pronounce. Explain or pronounce these words.
- Explain the task and elicit the first example. Pairs complete the matching task.
- Go over answers with the class.

Answers

2. d 3. f 4. a 5. e 6. g 7. c 8. b In Unit 11, students describe hometowns, cities, and countries, and make recommendations about places to visit. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to describe their hometowns using adjectives, adverbs, and conjunctions, and make suggestions about places using can and should. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to make suggestions about places using can and should.

• Then pairs add two more sets of opposites. Ss may use their dictionaries if they wish. Go over possible answers.

Possible answers

modern/traditional, large/small, hot/cold

- Ask Ss to write the new adjectives in their notebooks and check (✔) the ones that describe their city
- For more practice matching opposite adjectives, play Concentration – download it from the website.

B Pair work

• Ss choose two cities or towns that they know and describe them in pairs. Encourage them to use the adjectives in part A.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objectives: use adjectives, adverbs, and conjunctions in a conversation about a city

A [CD 3, Track 1]

- Books closed. Set the scene. Ron is asking Camila about her hometown of Punta Cana, Dominican Republic.
- Ask: "What do you know about the Dominican Republic? Where is it? What's it like?"
- Write this on the board:
 - 1. Weather: OK or great?
 - 2. Beaches: polluted or fantastic?
 - 3. Prices: reasonable or expensive?
- Play the audio program. Ss listen to the audio program to find the answers. Then they compare answers with a partner.
- Go over the answers with the class. (Answers: 1. great 2. fantastic 3. reasonable)
- Books open. Play the audio program again.
- Ss listen and read silently. Then they practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- For a new way to teach this Conversation, try the Disappearing Dialog – download it from the website.

B [CD 3, Track 2]

- Explain the task and read the focus question.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answer. Then they compare answers in small groups. Go over the answer with the class.

Audio script

Ron	So what kinds of things are there to do in Punta Cana?
Camila	Oh, there's so much to do! There are beautiful beaches, of course. You can go scuba diving, see dolphins, ride a horse on the beach
Ron	Really? I've never ridden a horse on the Camila	beach. It sounds fun! Anything else? Yes! There are a lot of nightclubs. Dominicans love to dance!
Ron	That's great. I love to dance, too!

Possible answer

There are beautiful beaches and a lot of nightclubs.

Option: Ask Ss: "Would you like to visit Punta Cana? Why or why not?"

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use adjectives, adverbs, and conjunctions to describe cities

[CD 3, Track 3]

Adverbs before adjectives

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 72. Ask: "What has Ron heard about Punta Cana?" (Answer: It's really beautiful.) Then ask: "How far is it from Santo Domingo?" (Answer: It's not too far.)
- Explain that sometimes we use adverbs like too, really, and pretty to modify adjectives.
- Ask Ss to find more examples of adverbs that modify adjectives in the Conversation and underline them (e.g., really cool, really clear, pretty reasonable, very interesting). Elicit other adverbs.
- Focus Ss' attention on the adverbs box. Point out that they are organized from the most to the least.
- Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Point out the position of the adverb and elicit the rule: X is adverb + adjective.

X is a/an adverb + adjective + noun.

- Explain that too means "more than you want," so we usually use it with negative adjectives (e.g., too bad, NOT too nice). Also, we cannot use too with an adverb + adjective + noun (e.g., too expensive, NOT a too expensive city).
- Play the audio program.
- Option: Focus Ss' attention on part B of the Word Power on page 72. Ss describe a place again, using adverbs + adjectives.

- Explain the task. Ss match the questions with the
- Go over answers with the class. Then Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

Answers

2. d 3. a 4. b 5. c 1 e

🛂 For practice asking questions about cities, play Twenty Questions – download it from the website.

[CD 3, Track 4]

Conjunctions

- Focus Ss' attention on the first sentence in the second Grammar Focus box. Ask: "Are big and nice positive or negative?" (Answer: Both are positive.)
- Point out that we use and to connect two positive or two negative ideas. Elicit a sentence with two negative ideas (e.g., The city is ugly, and the weather is terrible.). Ask: "What punctuation comes before and?" (Answer: a comma)

- Focus Ss' attention on the other three sentences. Ask: "Are they positive + positive, negative + negative, or positive + negative?" (Answer: positive + negative) Explain that we use but, though, and however to connect a positive idea with a negative
- Tell Ss to look at the position of but, though, and however. Ask: "How are though and however different from but?" (Answer: But is in the middle of the sentence. Though and however are at the end.)
- Ask: "What punctuation comes before each conjunction?" (Answer: a comma) Point out that and and but connect two complete sentences.
- Play the audio program.

- Explain the task and model the first answer. Ss complete the task individually. Go around the class and check Ss' use of punctuation.
- Ask different Ss to write their answers on the board. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

- 1. Kyoto is very nice, and everyone is extremely friendly.
- 2. The streets are crowded during the day. They're very quiet at night, though.
- 3. The weather is nice. Summers get pretty hot, however.
- 4. You can rent a bicycle, but it's expensive.
- 5. It's an amazing city, and I love to go there.

C Group work

Write these topics on the board:

Shopping People Food Weather Crime Things to do

- Explain the task and ask two Ss to read the example conversation. Point out that Ss can discuss the topics on the board.
- Ss complete the task. Ask Ss to name the negative statement in each description.
- Go around the class and note any errors. Then write them on the board and ask Ss to correct them.

To check if Ss have understood the grammar, write their errors on the board. Then ask Ss to correct

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about people's hometowns

A [CD 3, Track 5]

- Books closed. Set the scene. Abby and Christopher are talking about their hometowns.
- Books open. Explain the task. Play the audio program and Ss circle the correct words.
- Ss compare answers in pairs. Then go over answers.

Audio script

Man So tell me about your hometown, Abby. Abby Well, not many people live there, but it's actually a fairly large town. It has some large farms, a river, two lakes, and even a mountain.

Man Do you like those kinds of things?

Abby Oh, yes. I love nature. I think it's extremely beautiful. And the fresh food from the farms is delicious.

Man Is it an expensive town? Abby No, it's very cheap.

Man It sounds like a great place.

Abby It was OK growing up, but I couldn't live there now.

Man Really? Why?

Abby It's too quiet for me. I've lived in the city for a long time now. I like to hear the sounds of cars and people and things around me.

Woman Where did you grow up, Christopher? Christopher I grew up in a city. So I guess you could say my hometown isn't really a town - it's a city. For me, it's a really stressful place, though.

Why do you say that? Woman

Christopher Well, for one thing, it's too crowded. The streets and the subways are full of people day and night.

Really? Is it a polluted place? Woman

Christopher I wouldn't say that. But it's not very clean.

Like many cities, I guess. Woman Christopher

Right. And like many cities, it's somewhat expensive. My parents still live there, and they always talk about the high prices.

not very clean

Answers

Abby's hometown a fairly large town extremely beautiful very cheap

Christopher's hometown a really stressful place too crowded

B [CD 3, Track 6]

- Explain the task. Play the audio again.
- Ss write another adverb they hear in the chart. Check the answers.

Answers

Abby's hometown too quiet

Christopher's hometown somewhat expensive

WRITING

Learning Objective: write an article about interesting places to visit in one's hometown

- Explain the task. Then Ss read the example silently.
- Ss write their article in class or for homework.

B Pair work

• Explain the task. Ss complete the task in pairs.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

Cycle 2, Exercises 6-13

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss popular places to visit

- Books closed. Write the six countries from the Snapshot on the board. Ask: "Which country would you like to visit? Why?"
- Books open. Ss read the Snapshot. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

The Grand Canyon: a steep canyon created by a river in the western U.S.

The Louvre: the world's largest museum The pyramids at Giza: a wonder of the ancient

The Colosseum: a famous stadium of ancient Rome Sugarloaf Mountain: a famous mountain with panoramic views

Taj Mahal: a famous building built to contain an emperor's wife's tomb

• Explain the tasks. Ss complete the tasks individually. Then they discuss their answers in small groups.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use can and should in a conversation about sightseeing suggestions

♠ [CD 3, Track 7]

- Books closed. Set the scene. Two friends are talking about a city. Ask: "What city is it?" Play the first part of the audio program and Ss listen for the answer. (Answer: Mexico City)
- Write these focus questions on the board:
 - 1. What's the Museum of Anthropology like?
 - 2. What are the Diego Rivera murals like?
 - 3. How many kinds of street food does Claudia recommend?
- Play the rest of the audio program. Then elicit Ss' answers to the questions on the board. (Answers: 1. amazing 2. incredible 3. three)
- Books open. Play the audio program again and Ss read the conversation silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

Vocabulary

Anything else?: Is there anything more? you shouldn't miss: you should see

B [CD 3, Track 8]

• Explain the task and read the focus questions. Play the audio program. Elicit Ss' answers.

Audio script

Claudia Where are you from again, Jason? I'm from Montreal, Canada. Claudia Oh! I've always wanted to go there.

What's it like? What can you do there? Jason Well, there's a lot to do. Visitors should definitely plan to spend a day visiting museums. At Space for Life, you can learn a lot about nature and the world.

Answers

He's from Montreal, Canada. You should definitely visit Space for Life.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask for recommendations and make suggestions about places using can and should

[CD 3, Track 9]

Can and should

• Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation in Exercise 7. Ask: "How does Jason ask for advice about Mexico City?" Write his question on the board:

Can you tell me a little about Mexico City?

• Ask: "How does Claudia suggest what to see?" Elicit the answers and write them on the board:

You should definitely visit ... You shouldn't miss the ...

You can ...

- Point out that can and should are modals. They show a speaker's attitude or "mood." People use can and should to ask for and give advice.
- Elicit or explain the rule for using can and should in Wh-questions and statements:

Wh-question + modal + subject + verb? Subject + modal (+ not) + verb

Point out that modals do not take a final -s.

 Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box and play the audio program.

- Explain the task and model the first conversation with a S. Ss complete the task individually.
- Go over answers with the class. Then Ss practice the conversations in pairs.

Answers

- 1. A: I can't decide where to go on my vacation.
 - B: You should go to Morocco. It's my favorite place to visit.
- 2. A: I'm planning to go to Puerto Rico next year. When do you think I should go?
 - B: You can go anytime. The weather is nice almost all year.
- 3. A: Should I rent a car when I arrive in New York? What do you recommend?
 - B: No, you should definitely use the subway. It's fast and not too expensive.
- 4. A: Where can I get some nice jewelry in Istanbul?
 - B: You shouldn't miss the Grand Bazaar. It's the best place for bargains.
- 5. A: What can I see from the Eiffel Tower?
 - B: You can see all of Paris, but in bad weather you can't see anything.

- Explain the task and read the questions. Ss complete the task individually. Then they compare answers in
- Elicit answers from the class.

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural when pronouncing can't and shouldn't

A [CD 3, Track 10]

- Books closed. Play the audio program. Ask: "What do you notice about the pronunciation of t in can't and shouldn't?" (Answer: It is not strongly pronounced.)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and repeat. Go around the class and check their pronunciation of can't and shouldn't.

B [CD 3, Track 11]

• Explain the task. Play the audio program, and Ss circle the modal verb. Then elicit the correct answers.

Answers

1. can't 2. should 3. can 4. shouldn't

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about suggested things to do in major world cities

A [CD 3, Track 12]

- Books closed. Write Japan on the board. Ask: "What do you know about this country?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Books open. Explain the task. Ss listen for the names of three countries. Play the audio program, pausing after each country. Ss write the names of the countries in the chart individually. Elicit Ss' answers.
- Explain the task. Play the audio program again. Ss complete the chart individually. Then they compare answers in pairs. Elicit answers from the class.

Audio script

- 1. Japan has several big islands and many smaller islands. The largest city is Tokyo. There are many beautiful Buddhist temples in Japan. Visitors should try Japanese food, especially sashimi, which is raw fish. And here's a fun fact: the highest mountain in Japan is Mount Fuji.
- 2. Argentina is a large country in South America. The largest city is Buenos Aires. People visiting Buenos Aires shouldn't miss the downtown area. Many interesting people gather in this area. Argentina is also a good place to buy leather. And by the way, the people there all speak Spanish.

3. The capital of Turkey is Ankara, but its largest city is Istanbul. There are many colorful markets in Istanbul where visitors should definitely buy some souvenirs. Then they should try the delicious Turkish street food. They should also try Turkish coffee. It's thick, dark, and delicious. Most of Turkey is in Asia, but a small part is in Europe.

Answers
Country	Largest city	What visitors should see or do
1. Japan	Tokyo	go to temples; eat Japanese food, especially sashimi
2. Argentina	Buenos Aires	see the downtown area; buy leather
3. Turkey	Istanbul	go to markets and buy souvenirs; try Turkish street food and coffee

D B [CD 3, Track 13]

• Explain the task and read the focus question. Play the audio program, and Ss listen for the answers.

Answers

- 1. Japan's highest mountain is Mount Fuji.
- 2. Argentineans speak Spanish.
- 3. Most of Turkey is in Asia.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: describe a place using can and should

Group work

• Explain the task and ask three Ss to read the example conversation. Go over the discussion questions.

- Option: Brainstorm additional discussion questions with the class. Write them on the board.
- Ss complete the activity in small groups.

NTERCHANGE 11

READING

Learning Objective: scan and read for specific information about places

- Books closed. Write these questions on the board:
 - 1. When on vacation, do you ever write to people?
 - 2. Do you send emails, texts, or postcards?
 - 3. Who do you write to?
 - 4. What do you write about?

Ss discuss the questions in pairs. Then elicit their

- Books open. Write Barcelona, Cartagena, and Bangkok on the board. Then go over the task. Ss complete the task individually.
- Ss skim the emails to check their guesses.

Answers

famous for small plates of food: Barcelona a good place to ride your bike at night: Bangkok

• Ask Ss to underline any new vocabulary and look it up before class. Elicit or explain any words Ss cannot find.

Vocabulary

church: a place where people go to practice their tapas: small plates of Spanish food district: a specific area of a country or town salsa steps: the movements of the South American dance called salsa mangrove: a tropical tree found near water bike path: a special part of the road for people riding bikes

For a new way to teach the vocabulary in this Reading, try Vocabulary Mingle – download it from the website.

B

- Explain the task and go over the activities in the chart. Tell Ss to only check (✓) the cities first. Model the first example. Tell Ss to look quickly through the emails for words related to swim with sharks. Ss complete the task individually.
- Tell Ss to look through the emails in detail for specific examples. Ss complete the task individually. Then they go over answers in pairs.
- Ask different Ss to write their answers on the board, using sentences with can (e.g., You can swim with sharks in Bangkok.).

Answers

- 1. Bangkok: surf or swim with sharks
- 2. Barcelona: La Sagrada Familia
- 3. Bangkok: pad thai a spicy noodle dish
- 4. Cartagena: old dance club
- 5. Cartagena: canoe tour of a mangrove forest
- 6. Barcelona: tapas

My Plan for Unit 12

Use the space below to customize a plan that fits your needs.

With the following SB exercises	I am using these materials in class	My students are using these materials outside the classroom
With or instead of the following SB section	I am using these materials for assessment

It's important to get rest.

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-6

In Unit 12, students state health problems and give advice, and ask for advice and give suggestions about health products. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to state health problems and give advice using adjective + infinitive and noun + infinitive. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to ask for advice and give suggestions about health care products using can, could, and may.

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: identify and discuss common health problems

- Books closed. Elicit common health problems from the class and write them on the board.
- Books open. Ss compare their ideas with the Snapshot. Explain any new vocabulary, using gestures if needed.
- Explain the tasks. Ss complete the tasks in small groups. Go around the class and give help as needed
- Ask the class: "How many of you have had a headache recently? Raise your hands." Ask about each health problem. Count the number of Ss who have had each one.
- For a new way to practice the vocabulary in this Snapshot, try Vocabulary Steps – download it from the website. Ss rank the health problems according to most/least serious or most/least common.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use adjective + infinitive and noun + infinitive in a conversation about advice for a health problem

A [CD 3, Track 14]

- Ss cover the text and look at the picture. Elicit or explain vocabulary. Ask: "What health problem do you think Keith has? How do you know?"
- Play the first part of the audio program. Ss listen to check the answer. (Answer: a cold)
- Write this focus question on the board: What does Mila suggest for Keith's cold?
- Play the audio program and ask Ss to listen for the answer. Elicit the answer. (Answer: garlic tea)
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

get some rest: relax or sleep

Have you taken anything for your cold?: Have you taken any medicine? chop up: cut into small pieces

Yuck!: an expression of dislike, especially about

- Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

TIP

To encourage Ss to look at each other while practicing Conversations, ask them to stand up and face each other. This also makes the conversation more active and natural.

D B [CD 3, Track 15]

- Read the task and focus question. Ask Ss to make predictions. Write their ideas on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the answers individually. Then elicit answers from the class.

1.
Keith	[coughs]
Woman	That cold sounds pretty bad, Keith!
Keith	Yeah, it is, Mrs. Gray. Don't get too close.
Woman	Well, you know, it's important to drink a lot of liquids. Can I get you some orange juice? I have some in the refrigerator.
Keith	Oh, OK. That sounds good. Thanks a lot.
2.
Man	How's that cold, Keith?
Keith	Not so good. [sneezes] I've still got it.
Man	Oh, too bad. Well, listen, it's a good idea to take some cold medicine. And you should take a long, hot bath.
Keith	You're right. Maybe I should. Thanks for the advice.

Answers

The woman suggests orange juice. The man suggests cold medicine. He also says Keith should take a long, hot bath.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask for and give advice using adjective + infinitive and noun + infinitive

[CD 3, Track 16]

- Books closed. Write these sentences on the board: You should get some rest. You should drink garlic tea.
- Point out that these sentences give suggestions with should. We can also give suggestions using an adjective or a noun followed by an infinitive. Cross out the words You should and replace them with It's important to and It's helpful to.
- Books open. Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rule for forming adjective or noun + infinitive structures: It's important/helpful/a good idea to + verb.
- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 78. Ask Ss to underline the two examples of adjective or noun + infinitive structures.
- Play the audio program.
- Option: Present additional positive adjective or noun + infinitive structures (e.g., It's useful to . . . , It's best to . . . , It's essential to . . .) and also negative infinitives (e.g., It's important not to . . . , It's best not

- Explain the task. Ss read the problems and advice silently. Use the picture or gestures to explain new vocabulary (e.g., a sore throat, a fever, a toothache, a burn)
- Read the first problem. Elicit different pieces of advice

• Ss complete the task individually. Then go over answers with the class.

Possible answers

1. c, e, f, h 2. a, c, i 3. d, f, h 4. a, b, h 5. a, c, h, i 6. a, c, h, i, j 7. a, b, c, h, i, j 8. g, i

B Group work

- Explain the task. Then model the example conversation with two Ss.
- Ss take turns giving advice in small groups. Go around the class and check their use of adjective or noun + infinitive structures.

Use your fingers to help Ss self-correct their errors. For example, if the error is in the fourth word in a sentence, show four fingers and point to the fourth finger.

C

- Explain the task and elicit endings for the first example. Write them on the board.
- Ss complete the task individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- For a new way to practice the vocabulary in this Grammar Focus, try Mime – download it from the website.

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural by reducing to in conversation

A [CD 3, Track 17]

- Model the reduction of to. Then play the audio program. Ss listen for the reduction of to.
- Play the audio program again. Ss take turns practicing the conversation in pairs.

If you are concerned about your pronunciation and intonation, always use the audio program to present material.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. They ask for and give advice using their sentences from part C of Exercise 3. Ask a few pairs of Ss to model the task.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and check their reduction of to. Then elicit the most popular advice for each problem.

INTERCHANGE 12

See page T-127 for teaching notes.

DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: ask for and give advice using adjective + infinitive and noun + infinitive

A Group work

- Books closed. Ask: "What should you do when you forget someone's name?" Elicit Ss' answers, encouraging them to use should, adjective + infinitive, or noun + infinitive.
- Books open. Explain the task and ask different Ss to read the example situations. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary. Then ask three Ss to read the example conversation.
- Ss discuss the situations in small groups. Go around the class and write down any errors you hear.

- Write the most common errors on the board. Ask Ss to correct them in pairs.
- For a new way to practice this Discussion, try the Onion Ring technique - download it from the website.

B Class activity

• Read the question to the class. Elicit Ss' answers. Encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

Cycle 2, Exercises 7–13

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: match types of containers to health care products

- Books closed. Write the names of the various products from the Word Power on the board. Ask Ss which ones they use. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.
- Option: Bring some of the products to class (e.g., toothpaste, deodorant). Elicit the vocabulary.

To teach the vocabulary for small everyday objects, bring the actual objects to class.

- Books open. Focus Ss' attention on the picture. Elicit or present the words for containers.
- Ss complete the task individually.
- Go over answers with the class. Point out that we don't stress the word of.

Answers

- 1. a bottle of pain medicine
- 2. a box/pack of bandages
- 3. a bag of cough drops
- 4. a stick of deodorant
- 5. a jar of face cream
- 6. a can of shaving cream
- 7. a box/pack of tissues
- 8. a tube of toothpaste

B Pair work

- Explain the task and ask a S to read the model sentence. Point out that Ss can include any items (e.g., foods).
- Ss work in pairs. Then Ss write their ideas on the board.

Possible answers

- 1. a bottle of vitamins/shampoo/juice
- 2. a box of herbal tea/cereal/candy
- 3. a bag of breath mints/potato chips/rice
- 4. a stick of gum/butter
- 5. a jar of coffee/mayonnaise/jam
- 6. a can of hair spray/foot spray/soda
- 7. a pack of lozenges/gum/mints
- 8. a tube of ointment/hand cream/hair gel

C Pair work

• Read the question. Ss complete the task in pairs.

8 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use can, could, and may for requests and suggestions in a conversation about suggestions for health problems

A [CD 3, Track 18]

- Books closed. Ask: "Where do you think the speakers are?" Play the audio program and Ss listen for the answer. Elicit the answer. (Answer: a pharmacy)
- Books open. Ss cover the text and look at the picture. Then ask: "What problems do you think the man has?" Encourage Ss to guess. Then play the audio program and elicit the answers. (Answers: a backache, sore muscles, a bad cough (his wife), insomnia)
- Ask: "What four things does the pharmacist suggest?" Play the audio program again. Ss listen for the answers. Elicit the answers. (Answers: a heating pad, cream, cough drops, chamomile tea)
- Option: Ss work in two groups. Group A listens for the problems the man talks about. Group B listens for the things the pharmacist suggests. Then they share information.
- Ss uncover the text. Then they read the conversation silently.
- Ss stand and practice the conversation in pairs.
 Encourage them to role-play the conversation, as if they are in a pharmacy.

For a new way to practice this Conversation, try SayIt with Feeling! – download it from the website.

D B [CD 3, Track 19]

- Write these phrases on the board:
 tired eyes a headache insomnia
- Ask: "What problem does the customer have?"
 Play the audio program. Ss listen to find the answer.
 (Answer: a headache)
- Explain the task and read the focus question. Then play the audio program again. Elicit the answer.

Audio script

Customer Excuse me.

Pharmacist Yes? How can I help you? Customer What do you suggest for a headache?

Pharmacist Well, you should take some pain medication. And it's important to see a doctor if it doesn't go away. Oh, and where is the pain medication?

Pharmacist Right over there, near the door.

Customer Thanks a lot.

Answer

Customer

She wants some pain medication.

9 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask for advice and give suggestions using can, could, and may

[CD 3, Track 20]

- Explain that it's impolite to say Give me or I want when asking for things in a store. People usually use modal verbs such as can, could, and may.
- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation in Exercise 8. Ask: "How did Mr. Peters ask for things?" Ask Ss to underline the examples. (Answers: Could I have . . . ? Can you suggest . . . ? May I have . . . ? . . . what do you suggest?)
- Focus Ss' attention on the example questions in the first column of the Grammar Focus box. Point out that the first question (Can/May I help you?) is an offer of help. The other three questions are requests for help. Explain that people can use can, could, and may to make a request, but may is the most formal.
- Elicit the rule for questions with modals: Modal + subject + verb?
- Focus Ss' attention on the three ways to make suggestions in the second column. Ask Ss to find similar examples in the Conversation in Exercise 8 and underline them twice.

- Play the audio program.
- Explain the task and model the first conversation with a S.
- Ss circle the correct modal verbs individually. Then they compare answers in pairs.

Answers

- 1. A: Can I help you?
 - B: What do you suggest for dry skin?
 - A: Why don't you try this lotion? It's excellent.
 - B: OK. I'll take it.
- 2. A: May I have something for itchy eyes?
 - B: Sure. You could try a bottle of eyedrops.
- 3. A: Could I have a box of bandages, please?
 - B: Here you are.
 - A: And what do you suggest for insomnia?
 - B: You should try this herbal tea. It's very relaxing.
 - A: OK. Thanks.
- Ss practice the conversations in pairs.
- For a new way to practice the conversations in this Grammar Focus, try the Substitution Dialog download it from the website. Ss replace the health problems and suggestions with ideas of their own.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for specific information about health problems and health care products

[CD 3, Track 21]

- Explain that four people are going to talk about their problems and someone will offer advice. Draw Ss' attention to the chart. Then play the audio program. Ss listen for the problems and write them in the chart.
- Play the audio again and have Ss write the advice in the correct column.

Audio script

Rachel	I really am. I'm so excited, it's difficult to work.
Don	Well, it's already 3:00. You should go home now and start getting ready.
Rachel	Really? Thanks, Don!

• Ss go over their answers in pairs. Then go over answers with the class.

Answers
1. John	Problem He is stressed about his final	Advice He should take a break.
2. Ashley	exam. She is hungry and the cookies aren't ready.	She should have some salad.
3. Brandon	His eyes are red from spending time on the computer.	He should use eyedrops.
4. Rachel	She is excited about her trip and can't work.	She should go home.

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: use can, could, and may for requests and suggestions in a conversation about a health problem

- Set the scene and explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Student A is a customer in a drugstore, and Student B is a pharmacist. The customer asks for six things and the pharmacist makes suggestions.
- Option: If Ss need help getting started, refer them to the first few lines of the Conversation on page 81.
- Ss complete the role play in pairs.
- Ss change roles. Go around the class and take notes on their grammar, pronunciation, fluency, and ideas.
- For a new way to teach this Role Play, try Time Out! download it from the website.

WRITING

Learning Objectives: write a blog post giving health advice; respond to a blog post

А

- Ask: "Do you ever feel stressed? What can you do to help relax?" Elicit ideas from the class.
- Ss read the blog post suggestions silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

В

• Explain the task. Ss complete the task individually in class or for homework.

C Group work

• Explain the task. Then Ss complete the task in small groups. Groups share their most interesting suggestions with the class.

13 READING

Learning Objective: skim for the main idea and read for details in an article about natural medicine

• Focus Ss' attention on the article. Tell Ss to look at the title and pictures. Elicit Ss' ideas about what they think they will learn about in the article.

A

- Explain the task. Tell Ss to skim the article for the answer. Point out that they shouldn't worry about any new vocabulary.
- Allow about three minutes for Ss to complete the task. Then Ss check the best description of the article. Elicit the answer.

Answer

The article gives information and facts.

B

• Present or ask Ss to look up key vocabulary from the reading.

TIP

To save time, have Ss look up the vocabulary in a dictionary before class. To encourage peer teaching, assign each S a few words to look up. Then have them teach each other the words in class.

Vocabulary

rain forest: a tropical forest research: scientific discoveries appointment: a scheduled meeting with someone, often a dentist or doctor remedy: a treatment or substance that cures an illness village: a group of houses and shops that is smaller than a town

gel: a thick substance that is part liquid and is clear, unlike cream

- Explain the task. Then answer the first question and identify the paragraph as a class.
- Ss complete the task individually and compare answers in pairs. Go around the class and check their answers. Help Ss with pronunciation as needed.

Answers

1. C 2. D 3. B 4. C 5. D 6. B

• Option: Ss read the article again and underline any words they still don't know. Explain the words.

C Group work

• Ss discuss the question in small groups. Go around the class and help with vocabulary as needed. Then elicit Ss' answers. (Possible answers: They're a source of oxygen, wood, rubber, and food. They're a home for many animals.)

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

Progress check

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one's learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: "What did you learn in Units 11 and 12?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) A little.
- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
 - 1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
 - 2. Ask Ss: "What do you need to practice?" Then assign exercises based on their answers.
 - 3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to listen to and understand a description of a city and compare it to one's hometown using adjectives, adverbs, and conjunctions

A [CD 3, Track 22]

- Set the scene and explain the task. Megan is talking about Honolulu, her hometown. Ss listen and write the size of the city, weather, prices of things, and what she says about Waikiki Beach in their chart.
- Play the audio program once or twice. Ss listen and complete the chart.

Audio script

Man So, you're from Hawaii, Megan?

Megan That's right. Man Where in Hawaii?

Megan I'm from Honolulu - on the island of Wow! Honolulu! That's a fairly big city, Man isn't it?

Megan No, not really. It's not too big.

The weather is great, though. Right?

Megan Oh, yes. It is. It's very comfortable the whole year. Warm, but not too hot.

Man I've heard that Honolulu is an expensive city. Is that true?

Megan Well, yes, it is pretty expensive. Rents are high and food is expensive, too. That's because everything comes in from the mainland.

What's that beach in Honolulu? Man Megan Well, Waikiki Beach is really famous.

That's where all the tourists go.

Man Yeah, that's it. Waikiki Beach.

Go over answers with the class.

Answers

1. size of city not too big very comfortable; warm but 2. weather not too hot pretty expensive 3. prices of things

4. Waikiki Beach really famous

- Explain the task. Ss write sentences comparing Honolulu with their hometowns. Point out the conjunction, adjectives, and adverbs in the example.
- Ss write sentences individually. Then they compare their sentences in pairs.

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objectives: demonstrate one's ability to ask questions about hometowns; demonstrate one's ability to describe one's hometown and give suggestions for sightseeing

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Student A is planning to visit Student B's hometown and asks questions about it. Student B answers the questions.
- Go over the possible questions. Model the example conversation with a S.
- Ss practice the role play in pairs. Then they change roles and practice again. Go around the class and give help as needed.

3 DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to ask for and give suggestions and advice

A Group work

- Explain the task and model the example conversation with two Ss.
- Ss write advice and remedies for the problems individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ss compare their ideas in small groups. Encourage Ss to use expressions of advice (e.g., it's useful to, it's helpful to, you should).
- Go around the room and check Ss' use of adjective + infinitive and noun + infinitive.

B Group work

- Read the questions and explain the task.
- Ss discuss the questions in small groups. Encourage them to add follow-up questions.

4 SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to give advice

A Group work

- Set the scene. The three problems are from an advice column.
- Ss read the problems silently. Then elicit or explain any new vocabulary.
- Explain the task. In small groups, Ss suggest advice for each problem and choose the best advice. Model the example conversation with two Ss.
- Ss complete the task.

B Class activity

• Ask different Ss to share their group's advice.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one's learning

- Focus Ss' attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: "How well can you do these things now?"
- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review.
 Ask: "What did you underline? How can you review it?"
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss' answers.

What would you like?

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-4

In Unit 13, students agree and disagree about food preferences and order food in a restaurant. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to agree and disagree about food preferences using so, too, neither, and either. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to use would and will to order food at a restaurant.

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss food and food preferences

• Books closed. Write these foods on the board:

ice-cream cone apple pie chocolate pasta french fries the sandwich hamburger sushi

- Ask Ss to guess where each food item is from.
- Books open. Ss check their answers with the
- Ask different Ss to read the facts. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

around: about that time CF: common era

earl: a British man of high social rank

- Point out that the Earl of Sandwich's real name was John Montague, and he loved to play cards. He created the first sandwich so he could eat neatly during card games.
- Ask: "Does any information in the Snapshot surprise you?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Explain the tasks. Then Ss complete the tasks in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use so, too, neither, and either in a conversation about deciding where to go for dinner

A [CD 3, Track 23]

- Books closed. Set the scene. Simon and Kristin are discussing where to go for dinner. Write these focus questions on the board:
 - 1. What two kinds of food do they talk about?
 - 2. What kind of food do they decide to eat?
- Play the audio program. Then elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. Thai and Japanese 2. Japanese)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

I'm not in the mood for: I don't really want a bit: a little spicy: with a hot or strong flavor, like pepper or curry

- Ss practice the conversation in pairs. Then ask Ss to role-play the conversation for the class.
- For a new way to practice this Conversation, try Say It with Feeling! - download it from the website.

B [CD 3, Track 24]

• Explain the task and read the focus questions. Then play the audio program. Elicit the answers.

Audio script

Simon Wow, that was delicious, but I'm full! Kristin So am I. I'm in the mood for something relaxing. What about a movie?

Simon Good idea. What do you want to see? Kristin Anything, really. We can see what's playing.

Simon OK, but no romance! I promised to see the new Ryan Gosling movie with my sister. One romance movie is enough.

Kristin [chuckles] You're a good brother. Simon It's her birthday next week. That's the only reason why!

Answers

They decide to see a movie. They don't want to see a romance movie.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: agree and disagree about food preferences using so, too, neither, and either

[CD 3, Track 25]

 Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Ask: "Which statements are positive? Which statements are negative?" (Answers: The top three statements are positive (I'm crazy about/I can/I like), and the bottom three statements are negative (I'm not in the mood/I can't stand/I don't like).)

So and too

- Focus Ss' attention on the first three responses in the second column. Point out that we can use so or too to agree with a positive statement.
- Write these responses on the board:

So am I. So can I. So do I.

Ask: "When do we use each response?" Elicit or explain the rule. (Answer: The verb in each response matches that of the sentence before it.)

Focus Ss' attention on the difference between so and too. Point out that so is at the beginning of the response and too is at the end:

So + am/can/do + I.I + am/can/do. + too.

- Ask Ss to find responses in the third column that disagree with positive statements. (Answers: Oh, I'm not./Really? I can't./Oh, I don't.)
- Play the audio program for the first column.
- Option: Drill So am I, So can I, or So do I responses. Read a list of ten positive statements to the class (e.g., I am smart. I can speak English. I live near here.). Ss respond chorally and then individually.

Neither and either

• Focus Ss' attention on the last three responses in the second column of the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rules for agreeing with a negative statement: Neither + am/can/do + I.

I'm not/l can't/l don't + either.

- Point out different ways to disagree with negative statements (e.g., Really? I am./Oh, I love it!/Oh, I like it a lot.).
- Play the audio program for the second column.
- Option: Drill Neither am I, Neither can I, or Neither do I responses. Read a list of ten negative statements to the class (e.g., I'm not hungry. I can't cook French food./I don't like fish ice cream.). Ss respond chorally and then individually.

A

- Ask different Ss to read the adjectives describing food. Help with pronunciation as needed.
- Explain the task. Ss write responses to show agreement with the statements. Point out that each statement has two correct responses.
- Read the first two statements and elicit Ss' responses. Write correct responses on the board.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then they compare answers in pairs. Go over answers with the class.

Possible answers

- 1. Neither am I./I'm not either.
- 2. So can I./I can, too.
- 3. So do I./I do. too.
- 4. Neither can I./I can't either.
- 5. Neither do I./I don't either.
- 6. So am I./I am, too.
- 7. So am I./I am. too.
- 8. Neither do I./I don't either.
- 9. So do I./I do. too.
- 10. Neither can I./I can't either.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. They take turns reading the statements in part A and responding with their own opinions.
- Go around the class and check Ss' use of grammar.
- For more practice, play Concentration download it from the website. Ss match cards with the same meaning (e.g., So do I. and I do, too.).

 Elicit different ways to say I like and I don't like. Write them on the board:

I don't like I really like I don't really like I'm in the mood for I'm not in the mood for I like ... very much I don't like ... very much I'm crazy about I'm not crazy about I hate

- Explain the task. Model the first example by writing two sentences on the board.
- Ss complete the task individually. Don't ask Ss to compare statements at this time. They will do this in Exercise 4.

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural when responding with so, too, either, and neither

A [CD 3, Track 26]

- Explain the task. Then play the audio program. Point out the stress by clapping your hands on the last word of each response.
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen and practice.

B Pair work

• Explain the task. Then Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and check Ss' pronunciation.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

Cycle 2, Exercises 5-12

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: categorize food items

- Explain the task. Explain what the different food categories are and any new vocabulary.
- Ss complete the chart individually.
- Draw the chart on the board. Ask different Ss to complete the chart.

Answers

Fruit	Vegetables	Grains	Meat	Seafood
grapes	corn	bread	chicken	fish
mangoes	peas			octopus
strawberries	potatoes	rice	turkey	shrimp
apples	broccoli			salmon
bananas	spinach	muffin	hot dog	ceviche

(Note: Possible answers are italicized.)

B Group work

- Read the questions and explain the task.
- Ss discuss the questions in small groups. Encourage them to add follow-up questions.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use would and will in a conversation to order food at a restaurant

A [CD 3, Track 27]

- Ss cover the text. Elicit ideas and vocabulary from the picture. Ask: "What kind of restaurant is this? What kinds of food do they serve?"
- Set the scene. A server is taking a customer's order. Write this summary sentence on the board:
 - The customer orders a veggie burger / chicken burger and cream of potato soup / onion soup, and an iced tea / lemonade.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the correct answers. Ask different Ss to circle the correct answers on the board. (Answers: veggie burger, onion soup, lemonade)
- Ss uncover the text. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

B [CD 3, Track 28]

• Explain the task and read the focus question. Then play the audio program. Elicit the answer.

Audio script

Server Are you ready to order?

Yes, I think so . . . I'd like the chicken curry,

Server Would you like today's special, chicken

curry and mango salad?

Yes, I'll have the curry and salad, please. Man

Server OK. Anything to drink?

Yeah. I'll have a large orange juice, please.

Server And how about some dessert? We have pie, cake, and ice cream. Man No dessert for me, thanks.

Answers

He orders chicken curry and a mango salad. To drink, he orders a large orange juice.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use would and will to order food at a restaurant

[CD 3. Track 29]

Modal verbs would and will

- Write these sentences on the board:
 - 1. And do you want soup or salad with your burger?
 - 2. And do you want anything to drink?
 - 3. I want the onion soup, please.
 - 4. I want a lemonade, please.

Explain that people don't usually say want in formal situations.

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 88. Ss find and underline sentences and questions with the same meaning as those on the board. Ask different Ss to write them on the board. (Answers: 1. And would you like soup or salad with your burger? 2. And would you like anything to drink? 3. I'll have the onion soup, please. 4. I'd like a lemonade, please.)
- Focus Ss' attention on the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the structure for making Wh- and yes/no questions with would:

Wh-question + would + subject + verb? Would + subject + verb?

Point out that the word would does not have strong stress.

- Elicit or explain that we can order in a restaurant with I'd like or I'll have. Point out the contractions. Play the audio program.
- Explain the task and model the first two lines of the conversation. Ss complete the conversation individually. Then they compare answers in pairs.
- Go over answers by asking different Ss to read the conversation.

Answers

Server: What would you like to order?

Customer: I'll have the spicy fish.

Would you like salad or potatoes? Server:

Customer: I'd like potatoes, please.

OK. And would you like anything to drink?

Customer: I'll just have a glass of water. Server: Would you like anything else? Customer: No, that's all for now, thanks.

(Later)

Server:

Server: Would you like dessert? Customer: Yes, I'd like ice cream. Server. What flavor would you like?

Customer: Hmm. I'll have mint chocolate chip,

For a new way to practice the conversations in this Grammar Focus, try the Substitution Dialog download it from the website. Ss replace the food and drink items with their own ideas.

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: use would and will to order food at a restaurant

- Ss work in pairs. Set the scene and explain the task. Student A is a customer in a coffee shop. Student B is a server. Student A orders lunch and Student B takes the order. If possible, Student A sits at a table and Student B stands. Model the pronunciation of the food items if needed.
- Model taking the order with a S. Show how to add follow-up questions (e.g., Would you like dressing on your salad? Would you like anything else?). Ss complete the role play in pairs.
- Provide useful feedback. Then ask Ss to change roles and use their own information. Go around the class and encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions.
- Option: Ss complete the role play in small groups. One S is the server and the other Ss are customers.

To make role plays more authentic, bring props to class. For example, in a restaurant role play you can bring real menus, pens, and notepads.

For a new way to practice this Role Play, try Time Out! - download it from the website.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about a food order

A [CD 3, Track 30]

- Set the scene and explain the task.
- Play the audio program. Ss fill in the chart individually.
- Ss compare answers in pairs. Play the audio program again if needed. Then go over answers with the class.

For a new way to practice this Listening, try Prediction Bingo – download it from the website.

Steven I don't even need to look. I love their sausage pizza. I'd like a small one.

And I'd like a small pizza with peppers, please. Sarah OK, great. The pizzas come with salads. What Luis kind of dressing would you like?

I'll have Italian dressing. Sarah Steven I'd like vinaigrette, please.

Great. Now, what would you like to drink? Luis

Some coffee, maybe?

Steven That sounds good. I'll have a coffee.

OK. How do you take it? Steven With cream and sugar.

Sarah I'd like an iced tea with lemon, please. Perfect. Have you looked at the desserts? Luis They're really good.

Are they? Well, then, I'd like a slice of Sarah blueberry pie.

And how about you, Steven? Luis Steven Hmm. I don't usually eat dessert. Are you sure? Remember, I'm paying. Luis Steven Well, OK. I'll have a piece of chocolate cake. Good choice! That's my favorite. OK, I'll order Luis everything online. The food will probably be

Answers

Steven: sausage pizza, salad with vinaigrette Drink: coffee with cream and sugar Dessert: a piece of chocolate cake

Sarah: pepper pizza, salad with Italian dressing Drink: iced tea with lemon

Dessert: a slice of blueberry pie

D B [CD 3, Track 31]

- Ask: "Has a server ever made a mistake with your order? What happened?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Play the audio program. Ss complete the task individually. Then go over answers with the class.

Audio script

OK, guys. Here's the food from City Table. Luis

That was quick! Sarah Steven Wow, it smells so good.

Let's see. . . . Two small pizzas, one sausage Luis

OK. And two salads, one with Italian dressing and one with vinaigrette.

Steven The one with vinaigrette is mine.

OK. And there's a coffee and an iced tea. Luis The iced tea is mine, and the coffee is his. Sarah Steven Umm, this has sugar in it, but no cream. Is there any in the bag?

Let me see. Maybe it's in the bottom of the bag. . . . No, I don't see any cream.

Steven Well, that's all right. I think we have some in the office kitchen.

Oh, that's good. And finally, a piece of Luis chocolate cake. That's everything. Sarah Oh, but I ordered a slice of blueberry pie.

Hmm. It's not on the receipt. Sorry, Sarah! I Luis think I forgot to order it.

Oh well, that's OK. Sarah

Steven Would you like some of my chocolate cake,

Sarah? This piece is huge.

Really? Thanks, Steven! That's so nice of you.

Answers

The missing items are Steven's cream and Sarah's blueberry pie.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write a restaurant review

- Explain the task and read the questions. Ss read the example review silently. Ss then discuss the questions in pairs.
- Ss complete the task individually in class or for homework.

For a new way to teach this Writing, try Mind Mapping - download it from the website.

B Group work

- Explain the task. Ss read their reviews in small groups. Then they choose a restaurant they would like to try.
- Option: Put the reviews on the walls around the class. Ss read them and choose one they would like to try.

READING

Learning Objectives: scan for specific information; make inferences from context in a reading about tipping in the United States

- Focus Ss' attention on the picture. Ask: "Where are these people? What are they doing?" Elicit Ss' answers and explain new vocabulary. (Answers: They are customers at a restaurant. The customers are paying for the meal/paying the bill/paying the check.)
- Explain that this article is about tipping around the world. Ss read the first paragraph silently. Ask: "What is a 'tip'?" (Possible answer: extra money you pay to say thank you)

- Explain the task and read the guestions. Ss scan the article for the answers.
- Go over answers with the class. Ask: "What helped you find the answers?" (Possible answers: Scanning for 15-20% and negative words like "isn't")

Answers

15–20% tip on food: United States Tipping unnecessary: Japan

- Option: Ask Ss if they ever tip at home or when traveling
- For a new way to teach this Reading, try Running Dictation – download it from the website. Use the first paragraph only.

B

- Explain the task. Encourage Ss to guess the answers by choosing the meaning of each word that best fits the sentence in the article.
- Ss complete the task individually. Then they compare answers in pairs.
- Go over answers with the class. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

slang: informal spoken language service: help that someone gives a customer bellhop: hotel employee who carries your bags for you

Answers

- 1. change
- 2. need
- 3. regular pay for a job
- 4. difficult to understand
- 6. giving more than enough

- Explain the task. Ss complete the task individually and compare answers in pairs.
- Ask different Ss to write the answers on the board. Then ask the class to correct the answers if needed.

Answers

- 1. not checked You leave about 11-12%.
- 2. checked
- 3. not checked You don't usually tip in Japan.
- 4. checked
- 5. checked

D Group work

• Ss discuss the questions in small groups. Then they share their information with the class.

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: give examples of types of geographical features

- Option: Bring in a world map, globe, or atlas to
- Explain that this unit is about world geography.
- Explain the task. Ss label the picture with words from the list. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ss compare their pictures in pairs. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary or pronunciation.

Answers

2. e 3. f 4. d 1. i 5. l 6. h 7. a 8. j 9. c 10. b 11. k 12. g

B Pair work

• Ss brainstorm to see how many words they can think of that relate to geography. Ask different Ss to write their words on the board under these headings:

Water-related words Land-related words Climate-related words Other

• Go over the words and ask Ss to copy them into their vocabulary notebooks.

Possible answers

Water-related: sea, stream, coast, pond, coral reef Land-related: continent, plateau, canyon, rain forest

Climate-related: weather, storm, rain, snow, cloud, fog

Other: country, city, town, village

TIP

Create a Vocabulary Box. As a new word is taught, a S writes the word on a slip of paper and puts it in the box. Review words as a warm-up activity in future classes, or use them in games.

In Unit 14, students describe and compare different places in the world and describe temperatures, distances, and measurements. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to describe geography using comparative and superlative forms of adjectives. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to describe distances and measurements, and ask and answer questions with how.

• Option: Review vocabulary with Odd Man Out. List geography words, and ask Ss to find which word is different from the others (e.g., hill, mountain, volcano, ocean; ocean is the only water-related word).

C Group work

- Explain the task. Read the example conversation. Tell Ss that the words Mount (for names of mountains) and Lake come before the name (e.g., Mount Fuji, Lake Victoria). The other terms come after the name (e.g., Waikiki Beach, the Nile River, the Sahara Desert).
- Ss work in small groups to think of other examples. Ask groups to share their examples with the class.
- Point out that seas, rivers, and mountain ranges (but not most lakes) use the definite article (e.g., the Black Sea, the Rhine River, the Himalayas), but bring this up only if Ss ask you.

Possible answers

beach - Waikiki, Copacabana, Maho desert - Sahara, Atacama, Gobi forest – Black Forest, Sherwood Forest hill - Capitol Hill, Bunker Hill, Beverly Hills island – Puerto Rico, Java, Hokkaido lake – Michigan, Superior, Baikal mountain – Aconcagua, Everest, Kilimanjaro ocean – Atlantic, Indian, Arctic river - Amazon, Rhine, Mekong valley - Silicon, Loire, Death volcano - Cotopaxi, Etna, Pinatubo waterfall – Angel Falls, Iguaçú Falls, Niagara Falls

For a new way to practice this vocabulary, try Picture Dictation – download it from the website. Describe a scene similar to the one in the picture.

2 CONVERSATION

Learning Objectives: use comparative and superlative adjectives in a conversation about geography

A [CD 3, Track 32]

- Set the scene. Claire is asking Steve some questions from a geography quiz. Point out that Steve might get some answers wrong.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen to Steve's answers and underline them in the conversation.
- Ask: "How many questions do you think Steve got right? One? Two? Three? All four?"

D B [CD 3, Track 33]

- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the correct answers to the geography quiz. (Answers: Australia, the Amazon, Malta, Hong Kong)
- Ask: "How many answers did Steve get right?"

Audio script

Claire So, let's see how you did on this quiz. The first question: Which is larger, Mexico or Australia? You said . . .

Steve Australia.

Claire And you're right! Both are large, but Australia is larger. Next: What's the longest river in the world? You said the Nile. Sorry, that's wrong.

It's the Amazon.

Steve Oh, of course. I knew that!

Claire This next question I didn't know. Malta is more crowded than England.

Steve So I got it right? I remember hearing that Malta is the most crowded country in Europe.

Claire And finally, you said that Paris is the most expensive city.

Steve Yeah, and it is, right?

Claire Sorry, Steve. Actually, Hong Kong is the most expensive of the three!

Steve Really? Wow, I guess I didn't do so well – two right, but two wrong!

Claire: No, come on. You did OK!

Answer

He got two questions right.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions using comparisons with adjectives

D [CD 3, Track 34]

Comparative and superlative forms of adjectives

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation in Exercise 2.
 Ask Ss to identify the first two questions that compare things. (Answers: Which country is larger, Mexico or Australia? What's the longest river in the world?)
- Ask Ss to make sentences comparing two things in their country (e.g., mountains, rivers, cities). If necessary, review comparative adjectives using Exercise 10 in Unit 3.
- Draw a chart on the board, like this:

- Explain the reasons for the numbers 1, 2, 3+ (e.g., 3+ is used when we are comparing three or more things).
- Elicit or explain the rules for forming the superlative:
 - 1. use the definite article (e.g., the largest country)
 - 2. when the adjective has only one syllable or two syllables ending in y, use: the + adjective + -est + noun (e.g., the longest river, the prettiest lake)
 - 3. when the adjective has two or more syllables, use: the most + adjective + noun (e.g., the most crowded country)

- Refer Ss to the appendix in the back of their book (page T-151 of the Teacher's Edition) for spelling rules. Go over with the class.
- Give Ss a list of adjectives. Ss write comparative and superlative forms in the circles on the board.
- Point to the examples in the Grammar Focus box.
 Play the audio program.

Δ

- Go over the task. Ss complete the sentences individually. Then they ask and answer the questions in pairs.
- Elicit the Ss' answers.

Answers

- 1. Which country is smaller, Monaco or Vatican City?
- 2. Which waterfall is higher, Niagara Falls or Victoria Falls?
- 3. Which city is more crowded, Hong Kong or Cairo?
- 4. Which lake is larger, Lake Michigan or Lake Baikal?
- 5. Which is the highest: Mount Aconcagua, Mount Everest, or Mount Fuji?
- 6. What is the longest river in the Americas: the Mississippi, the Colorado, or the Amazon?
- Which city is the most expensive: London, Tokyo, or Moscow?
- 8. What is the deepest ocean in the world: the Pacific, the Atlantic, or the Arctic?

(Note: Answers to questions are underlined.)

B Class activity

• Explain the task. Ss write four questions and take turns asking them around the class.

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural when asking questions of choice

A [CD 3, Track 35]

- Point out that intonation changes in questions of choice. Play the audio program.
- Option: Model the intonation by humming. Ss repeat.
- Play the audio program again. Ss listen and practice.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Then Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and check Ss' pronunciation.
- Check the answers as a class by having pairs model the intonation of each question and then give their answer.

Answers

the Gobi, La Paz, the Arctic, the Himalayas

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: give recommendations using comparisons with adjectives

Group work

- Set the scene. Ss imagine that three people are planning to visit their country.
- Ask a S to read Jana's statement. Elicit recommendations from the class. Ask: "Where do you think Jana should go? What should she do?"

Discussions are difficult for many Ss. Allow Ss time to plan what they are going to say.

• Ss from the same countries should work in groups if possible. Ss discuss where the visitors should go and why. Go around the class and give help as needed.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about geographical facts

[CD 3, Track 36]

- Set the scene. Explain that Ss are going to hear three people on a TV quiz show.
- Write these focus questions on the board:

2 1. Which is the 2. What is the waterfall in the world? 3. Which is the 4. Which of the world's oceans is the population? 5. Which city has the _ 6. Which continent is the

- Play the audio program. Ss listen for the guiz show questions and fill in the blanks. (Answers: oldest, tallest, heaviest, smallest, largest, driest)
- Play the audio program again. Ss check their answers.

Angel Falls is the highest. It's over Rachel 1,000 meters high. Hostess That's right! [applause] Question number three: Which is the heaviest: a pound of gold, a pound of butter, or a pound of feathers? Andrew. Andrew They all weigh the same. Hostess Yes! [applause] Question number four: Which of the world's oceans is the smallest: the Southern Ocean, the Arctic Ocean, or the Indian Ocean? Nobody knows? Does anybody want to guess? Joshua. Joshua Uh . . . the Indian Ocean is the smallest. Hostess No, sorry! Joshua Oh, shoot! Hostess Andrew. Andrew The Arctic Ocean is the smallest. Hostess Correct! [applause] Question number five: Which city has the largest population: Seoul, São Paulo, or Mexico City? Rachel. São Paulo has the largest population. Rachel Hostess Very good! [applause] Question number six: Which continent is the driest, meaning which gets the least rain: Africa, Antarctica, or Australia? Rachel. Antarctica is the driest of the three. Rachel Hostess That's right! [applause] OK, contestants, the

Audio script

Hostess [music and applause] Our contestants this evening are Joshua, Rachel, and Andrew. And now, contestants, let's get right to our first question. Question number one: Which is the oldest: the Statue of Liberty, the Eiffel Tower, or the Panama Canal? Joshua? Joshua I think the Statue of Liberty is the oldest. I'm pretty sure they built the Eiffel Tower and the Panama Canal later. Hostess That's correct! [applause] Question number two: What is the tallest waterfall in the world? Is it Niagara Falls, Angel Falls, or Victoria Falls? Rachel.

Answers

winner is . . .

4. the Arctic Ocean 1. the Statue of Liberty 5. São Paulo 2. Angel Falls 3. They all weigh the same. 6. Antarctica

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

Cycle 2, Exercises 8-12

8 SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: read and discuss facts about the world

- Books closed. As a warm-up, ask some questions about items in the Snapshot (e.g., What's the hottest place in the world?). Ss guess the answers in teams.
- Books open. Ss read the Snapshot individually. Help Ss with vocabulary.
- Read the questions to the class. Have a brief class discussion.
- Option: Ss underline all the superlative forms of adjectives in the Snapshot. (Answers: hottest, largest, coldest, windiest, most watched, largest, most popular, highest, best-selling, most, largest)

9 CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use questions with how in a conversation about temperatures and distances

A [CD 3, Track 37]

- Books closed. Ask: "What do you know about Toronto, Canada? What do you know about Fairbanks, Alaska? Which city do you think is colder?" Ss work in small groups to discuss the questions.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen for information about the weather in Toronto and Fairbanks. (Answer: Fairbanks is colder.)
- Write these focus questions on the board:
 - 1. Where is Alberto going in January?
 - 2. Where is Lily from?
 - 3. How far is Fairbanks from Toronto?
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss read the conversation silently. They write down the answers. (Answers: 1. Toronto, Canada 2. Fairbanks, Alaska, U.S.A. 3. about 3,000 miles/4,800 kilometers)
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.
- For a new way to practice this Conversation, try Look Up and Speak! download it from the website.

B [CD 3, Track 38]

• Write the following on the board:

northern lights large university ice hockey ice fishing 24-hour sunlight snowboarding good skiing volcanoes baseball games

 Play the audio program. Ss listen to find the things mentioned in the conversation. • Elicit answers from around the class. Then have a brief follow-up discussion. Ask: "Would you like to visit Fairbanks? Why or why not?"

Audio script

Alberto Tell me a little more about Fairbanks, Lily. Well, it's one of the biggest cities in Lily Alaska. We have a large university, the University of Alaska Fairbanks, and the people there love ice hockey. Alberto I can imagine! What other winter sports are there? Lily Well, there's good skiing in Fairbanks. Lots of people go there to ski. Alberto Cool! I really like skiing. And in the summer there's the famous Lily Midnight Sun baseball game. In June, it's still sunny at midnight! Alberto Wow! Sun at midnight? That sounds amazing. Lily Yeah, it is! Also, you should definitely try to see the northern lights between August and April. Alberto I'd love to do that. That sounds so beautiful. Lily So, that's Fairbanks. But don't forget the low temperatures . . . Alberto You know, Fairbanks sounds perfect. I think I should spend a month there. Well, maybe not in January . . .

Possible answers

No, Fairbanks is one of the biggest cities in Alaska. She mentions the University of Alaska Fairbanks, ice hockey, skiing, the Midnight Sun baseball game, the northern lights, and the low temperatures.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: ask and answer questions with how

[CD 3, Track 39]

How + adjective

- Option: Find out which systems Ss are familiar with for distances (e.g., meters and kilometers or feet and miles) and for temperature (Celsius or Fahrenheit). Use the most suitable system during the class.
- Write this on the board:

How far is Toronto

from Fairbanks? It's 8,848 meters high.

How big is Seoul? It's about 1,828 meters deep.

How high is

Mount Everest? It's about 4.800 kilometers.

How deep is the Grand Canyon? It's 605 square kilometers.

- Ask Ss to match the questions with the correct answers. Ss check their answers in the Grammar Focus box.
- Point out the use of how + adjective (e.g., how far, how big) in questions. Elicit more examples. Ask Ss to write them on the board in visual form:

Visual and spatial Ss find structures and vocabulary easier to remember if they store the language in a pictorial form.

- Focus Ss' attention on the answers in the Grammar Focus box. Ask: "What is different about high, deep, and long?" (Answer: They are repeated in the answer.)
- Use the audio program to present the questions and answers
- Option: Give your Ss practice with large numbers by having them repeat the answers line by line.

A

• Explain the task. Ss complete the task individually. Check Ss' answers before they work in pairs to practice the conversations.

Answers

- 1. How high is Niagara Falls?
- 2. How big is California?
- 3. How long is the Nile?
- 4. How far is Osaka from Tokyo?
- 5. How hot is Mexico City in the summer?

B Group work

- Option: Ss can find facts in advance of this activity from the Internet, an atlas, or a guidebook.
- Explain the task. Elicit an example question. Ss write five questions with how.
- Ss work individually to write the questions. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ss ask and answer questions in groups.
- Option: Organize the class into teams and prepare a class quiz show using the Ss' questions.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write an article recommending a place to tourists

- Option: Ss check the Internet or other sources for information about their country. Tell Ss to look at real examples of country websites.
- Explain the task. Ss will write about their country and places to visit.
- Ss read the example article silently. Elicit the topics included in the article.
- Ss choose a place in their country to write about. Brainstorm with the class details to include in the articles (e.g., location, landscape, weather, history, how to get there, and when to go).

- Ss compose their first drafts. Then ask Ss to correct their grammar and spelling after writing the content.
- Option: Ss prepare attractive articles and display them on the wall for others to read.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. They exchange articles and read them silently. Then the reader asks questions to get more information (e.g., What else is it famous for?).
- Encourage Ss to give each other helpful peer feedback. Then Ss revise their articles.

READING

Learning Objectives: make inferences about an author's intent; read for specific information in an article about three places

- Books closed. Write these questions on the board: Where in the world is the cleanest lake? Where in the world is the cleanest air? Where in the world is the cleanest city?
- Ss discuss the questions in pairs. Encourage students to guess general areas, continents, and countries.
- Books open. Explain that this article is about the Earth's cleanest places. Ss look at the pictures and guess why these places are so clean. Help Ss with vocabulary.

B

- Explain the task. Ss read the article. Then they check what the goal of the article is.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.
- Ask a few Ss to tell you the reason for their answers. Then go over the answer with the class.

Vocabulary

exist: to be real

pure: clean and healthy strict: a rule or law that must be obeyed fine: money you have to pay when you break a rule or law

respect: to show something is important to inform people

Answer

C

- Explain the task. Read aloud the first question in part C. Ask: "Where should we look for the answer?" (Answer: the section about Lake Vostok)
- Ss continue the task individually. Go over answers with the class.

Possible answers

- 1. People discovered Lake Vostok in 1956.
- 2. It's been hidden for fifteen million years.
- 3. It's famous for its clean air and water.
- 4. The Roaring Forties bring clean air and water.
- 5. About 5.7 million people live in Singapore.
- 6. They have to pay fines.

D Group work

- Ss work in groups to discuss the questions. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Groups share their descriptions with the class.

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

Progress check

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one's learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: "What did you learn in Units 13 and 14?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (1) A little.
- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
 - 1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
 - 2. Ask Ss: "What do you need to practice?" Then assign exercises based on their answers.
 - 3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to agree and disagree about likes and dislikes

• Ss write answers to the questions in the My answers column individually. Then they add one more question to the chart.

B Class activity

• Explain the task. Then model the example conversation with a few Ss. Point out that the S begins the conversation by making a statement.

- Elicit how to make statements from the remaining questions in the chart.
- Explain that Ss write the name of a classmate with the same opinion or habit in the Classmate's name column. Then they move on and talk to another classmate.
- Ss complete the task. Encourage them to respond with expressions of agreement or disagreement (e.g., So am I. Oh, I'm not.).
- Go around the class and note any grammar, vocabulary, or pronunciation errors.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to understand questions asked in a restaurant

[CD 3, Track 40]

- Explain the task. Ss listen to restaurant requests and check (✓) the correct responses.
- Play the audio program once or twice. Ss complete the task individually.
- Go over answers with the class.

Audio script

- 1. Could we have a table for two, please?
- 2. Can I get you anything to drink?
- 3. What would you like for dinner?
- 4. What kind of dressing would you like?
- 5. What vegetable would you like?
- 6. Would you like dessert?

Answers

- 1. Yes. This way, please.
- 2. Yes, I'll have tea, please.
- 3. I'd like the fish, please.
- 4. Italian, please.
- 5. Broccoli, please.
- 6. No, I don't think so.

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to order a meal in a restaurant

- Set the scene and explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Student A is a server in a restaurant and Student B is a hungry customer. Student B orders a meal and Student A writes the order on the check.
- Ss practice the role play in pairs. Then they change roles.
- Go around the class and check Ss' use of would and will.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to describe a place using comparative and superlative adjectives

A Pair work

- Explain the task and read the example fact and question.
- Ss write six facts and six related Wh-questions in pairs. Encourage Ss to use comparisons with adjectives.

B Group work

- Explain the task. Each pair joins another pair. Ss take turns asking and answering their questions. Tell each pair to write down how many questions the other pair answers correctly.
- Ss complete the task in groups. Go around the class and check Ss' use of comparisons with adjectives. Then ask which pair got the most correct answers.
- Option: Ask Ss to share their facts. Find out who has the most unusual facts.

GAME

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to make comparative statements and ask questions using comparatives

- Explain the task and ask different Ss to read the example statements.
- Point out that all the statements can be answers for Wh- or how questions. Elicit possible questions (e.g., Which are the coldest months in our city? Which desert is drier, the Atacama or the Sahara? How far is your house from the school?).

• Ss complete the task. Go around the class and give help as needed.

B Class activity

- Explain the task and model the example conversation with a S.
- Ss play the game as a class.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one's learning

- Focus Ss' attention on the Self-assessment again. Ask: "How well can you do these things now?"
- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review. Ask: "What did you underline? How can you review it?"
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss' answers.

By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to discuss future activities and plans using the present continuous, be going to, and time expressions. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to give messages using tell and ask.

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss common excuses for declining invitations

- Books closed. Write the following excuses on the board. Ask Ss to guess what this Snapshot is about. Elicit or explain that these are all excuses.
 - I'm sorry, I can't. Thanks, but I'm busy that night. I'm not feeling well. Maybe another time? I have to work.
- Books open. Call on Ss to read the polite excuses.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

shoot for: (slang) to try to do something take a rain check: a saying when you can't accept an invitation and would like to do it at another time

- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs to discuss the questions. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Ask Ss for feedback on the second question. Which excuses are effective? Which ones are not?
- Elicit Ss' opinions for the third question and their reasons.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use the present continuous and be going to in a conversation about making plans

A [CD 3, Track 41]

- Ask Ss to look at the picture and invent a story about the two people. To guide Ss, ask: "Who are they? Where are they? What is their relationship? What is she asking him? What is he saying?"
- For more practice with vocabulary, play Picture It! download it from the website.
- Set the scene. Alicia and Mike are college students. Alicia is asking Mike out on a date./Alicia is asking Mike to hang out.
- Books closed. Write these focus questions on the board:
 - 1. What is Alicia inviting Mike to do?
 - 2. Why can't Mike go?
 - 3. When are they going to meet?
- Play the audio program. Then elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. go to a photo exhibit 2. He's going to have dinner with his parents. 3. tomorrow at five)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read along silently.

For a new way to practice this Conversation, try Say It with Feeling! - download it from the website.

B [CD 3, Track 42]

- Read the focus questions aloud. Ask Ss to guess the answers. Write some of their ideas on the board.
- Play the audio program. Ss work individually. Then go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Alicia After the exhibit, do you want to go to the Korean House for dinner?

Mike Sure. I love their food. We can go around 7:00. Look, there's Garrett! Maybe he can Alicia Yeah. Hey, Garrett! What are you doing tomorrow after class? Do you want to go to a photo exhibit with me and Mike then dinner at the Korean House? We're meeting at 5:00.

Garrett Oh, I have class till 6:30. But why don't I meet you for dinner later? Can you text me the address?

Alicia Sure.

Answers

They are going to have dinner at the Korean House. They are going to meet their friend Garrett for dinner.

• Option: Have a brief class discussion. Ask: "Do young people go on dates in your country? Where do people usually go on dates? What do friends do when they hang out?"

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use the present continuous and be going to to discuss future activities and plans

[CD 3, Track 43]

Present continuous with future meaning

• Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 100. Write these sentences on the board:

Alicia: What _		_you_	tonight?
Mike:	you _		anything tomorrow?

- Call on Ss to fill in the blanks. (Answers: are/doing, Are/doing) Ask: "Do you recognize this tense?"
- Explain that earlier we used this tense to talk about what is happening right now. Now we are going to use it to talk about the future.
- Point to the first column in the Grammar Focus box. Elicit the rule for forming the present continuous: Question: (Wh-question +) be + subject + verb + -ing? Statement: Subject + be + verb + -ing.

Be going to

- Explain that we can also use be going to + verb for future plans. Focus Ss' attention on the second column in the Grammar Focus box.
- Draw a calendar for the week, and point to today's date. Ask questions like these:
 - T: Are you going to do anything on Friday? (pointing to Friday)
 - S1: Yes. I'm going to study.
 - T: What about you, Pablo? What are you doing on
- Play the audio program. Ask Ss to repeat or mouth the words as they hear them.

- Explain the task. Model the first answer in both
- Ss complete the conversations individually. Ask early finishers to write their answers on the board.

Answers

- 1. What are you doing tonight? Would you like to
- 2. Are you doing anything on Friday night? Do you want to see a movie?
- 3. We're having friends over for a barbecue on Sunday. Would you and your parents like
- 4. Are you staying in town next weekend? Do you want to go for a hike?
- a. I'm going to be here on Saturday, but not Sunday. Let's try to go on Saturday.
- b. Well, my father is going to visit my brother at college. But my mother and I are going to be home. We'd love to come!
- c. Sorry, I can't. I'm going to work late tonight. How about tomorrow night?
- d. Can we go to a late show? I'm going to stay at the office till 7:00.

B

• Explain the task. Ss match the invitations to the responses. Go over answers with the class.

Answers

2. d 3. b 4. a 1. c

Ss practice the invitations in pairs.

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: discuss types of free-time activities

- Explain the task. Model with several activities from the list.
- Ss work in pairs. Go around the class, giving help with vocabulary.
- Ss add one more example to each category. To check answers, write the chart on the board.

Answers

Sports and games

a soccer game a video game tournament a car race a baseball game

a football game

Friends and family

a birthday party a class reunion a wedding a barbecue

a beach party

Art and performances

a rock concert a musical

a film festival a hip-hop dance performance an opera

(Note: Additional examples are italicized.)

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Ss talk about the activities in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- To review the vocabulary in this Word Power, play Vocabulary Tennis – download it from the website.

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objectives: invite someone to go to a free-time event; accept or refuse an invitation

- Divide the class into groups A and B. Ask Students B to look at the excuses in the Snapshot on page 100 while you explain the task to Students A.
- Explain the task to Students A. Model the example questions. Elicit additional questions that Ss can use to invite someone out (e.g., What are you doing on . . .? Are you busy on . . .?). Write these cues on the board for Students A to use in their invitations: day/date/time activity/event
- While Students A plan their invitations, explain the task to Students B. Model how to accept or refuse an invitation. Elicit more examples from Ss (e.g., Wow! That sounds great! Thanks, I've really wanted to do that!).
- Model the role play with Ss. Show Ss how to ask for more information and use their own words.
- Ss work in pairs to do the role play. Remind Ss to use the cues in the book and on the board.
- Provide feedback. Then Ss change roles and do the activity again.

Cycle 2, Exercises 7-13

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use tell and ask in a conversation about making requests over the phone

A [CD 3, Track 44]

- Ask Ss to cover the text. Have Ss describe the picture. Then ask: "Have you ever taken a message? Who for? What information did you get?"
- Write this focus question on the board: What are Jake's two messages?
- Play the audio program. Then elicit the answers. (Answers: I'm not going to make it to class tonight. Could Brittney take pictures of the whiteboard?)
- Ask Ss to uncover the text. Play the audio program again. Ss read the conversation silently.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs. Tell Ss to sit back to back.

B [CD 3, Track 45]

- Explain the task. Ss listen to find out the names of the three callers. Play the audio program.
- Elicit answers from around the class.

Audio script

Caitlin Hello? Vanessa Hi Caitlin, it's Vanessa. Are you in class yet? Caitlin No, not yet. Is everything OK? Vanessa I think I have the flu. I can't go to class today.

Oh, I'm sorry! You need to rest! Vanessa Could you tell Mr. Eaton that I'm sick? Of course. I'm sure he'll understand. Feel Caitlin better, Vanessa! Caitlin Hello? [coughs] Caitlin, it's Scott. Scott Caitlin Oh, no. Are you sick, too? Scott Yeah, I feel terrible. I'm not going to Caitlin Well, you're not the only one. Scott Hey, Rob isn't answering his phone. Would you ask him to call me after class? He has my book. Caitlin Of course. Feel better, Scott! Caitlin Hello? Danny Hey, Caitlin! Hi, Danny! Don't tell me that you're sick, Caitlin Danny No, I feel fine! Caitlin Great! So, what's going on? I'm having car trouble, so I'm running Danny late to class. Can you tell Mr. Eaton that I'm going to be about 20 minutes late? Caitlin Oh, good! I'm not going to be the only one in class. Sure, I'll tell him!

Answers

Vanessa, Scott, Danny

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: give messages using tell and ask

[CD 3, Track 46]

Tell with statements

- Focus Ss' attention on the "statement" part of the Grammar Focus box. Ask these four questions:
 - 1. "What is the message?" (I'm going to miss class tonight.)
 - 2. "Do we use tell or ask with statements?" (tell)
 - 3. "Does the message change when we use tell?"
 - 4. "What are three ways to ask someone to relay a message?" (Please tell X . . . /Could you tell him/ her . . . ?/Would you tell him/her . . . ?)
- Elicit the rule for forming messages with a statement: Tell + person + (that) + the statement.

Ask with requests

- Repeat the above steps for requests with the "request" part of the Grammar Focus box.
 - 1. "What is the message?" (Could she take a picture of the board?)
 - 2. "Do we use tell or ask with requests?" (ask)
 - 3. "Does the message change when we use ask?" (no, but we use to)
 - 4. "What are three ways to ask someone to relay a message?" (Please ask X . . . /Could you ask him/ her . . . ?/Would you ask him/her . . . ?)
- Elicit the rule for forming messages with a request: Ask + person + to + the request.
- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 102. Ask: "What structures does Jake use when he gives his two messages?" (Answers: Could you tell Mr. Eaton that . . . ? Could you ask Brittney to . . . ?)
- Use the audio program to present the language.

A

- Present messages 1–6. Model how to unscramble the first sentence. Point out that both statements and requests begin with the words please, could, or would.
- Ss complete the task individually.
- Option: If Ss have difficulty with the patterns for tell and ask, ask them to read each message and find the ask examples (2, 5, 6). Ask Ss: "Are these requests?"
- Ss compare messages in pairs. Then elicit and check Ss' answers around the class.

Answers

- 1. Please tell Haru that the barbecue is on Saturday.
- 2. Could you ask Caitlin to call me at 4:00?
- 3. Could you tell Mia that the dance performance is tonight?
- 4. Would you tell Casey that the picnic is in the park?
- 5. Would you ask Maika to meet me at the
- 6. Please ask Garrett to bring the tickets to the rock concert.

B Pair work

- Explain the task and model the example conversation.
- Have pairs of students sit back to back to complete the task.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write texts with requests

A Pair work

• Explain the task. Ask Ss to read the example messages silently. Using the example messages, demonstrate writing "texts" on a piece of paper with a S.

TIP

For timed activities such as this one, tell Ss to write quickly and not worry about correcting their text.

- Give Ss three minutes to write their messages. Ss write their messages.
- Option: Ss can text their messages to their partner using their phones.

B Class activity

- Explain the task and read the example dialogue
- Ss exchange their notes with a partner. Then everyone gets up to deliver each message.
- Option: Ss can use the messages on their phones to tell the other Ss the message.

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: sound more natural using could you and would you in reduced forms in questions

A [CD 3, Track 47]

- Play the audio program. Model the consonant sounds d + y in could you and would you. Ss repeat.
- Call on different Ss to try the reductions.

B Pair work

2

• Read out the four questions for the class. Ask Ss to repeat.

For a new way to practice this Pronunciation, try Walking Stress - download it from the website.

LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details in messages

[CD 3, Track 48]

- Explain the task. Read the guestions and point out the different parts of the messages.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen and write down the messages. Then Ss compare answers with a partner.
- Play the audio program again. Pause after every few lines to give Ss time to complete the messages.

Hi, John. Where are you? Class is starting Fatima

John I know. I missed the bus, so I'm going to be late.

Fatima But we're giving our class presentation today.

John Don't worry! Would you tell the teacher that I'm going to be late? We can do our presentation at the end of class.

Fatima OK, but hurry up!

William Hi, Samantha.

Samantha Hi, William. Martin asked me to call him today, but he's not answering his phone.

Is he in the office?

William Yes, but he's in an important meeting.

Samantha Oh, . . . Well, when he's free, would you ask him to call me?

William Yes, of course. Samantha Thank you, William.

3.
Amanda	Hi, Ryan. Where are you?
Ryan	Hi, Amanda. We're on Main Street. We just passed the high school.
Amanda	The high school? Oh, you've gone too far.
Ryan	Sorry. Jennifer's never driven to your house before.
Amanda	No problem. Could you tell her to turn around and turn left on Summer Street?
Ryan 4	OK, Amanda, no problem. See you soon.
Brandon	Hi, Brittany. What's up?
Brittany	Hi, Brandon. I'm calling to see if you and Emily would like to come to our house for dinner tomorrow night.
Brandon	Thanks! I'd love to go, but Emily might be working late tomorrow.
Duittan
Brittany	Well, when you see her, could you tell her that I invited you both?
Brandon	Sure. I hope we can come.

Call on Ss to write their answers on the board.

Answers

1. Message from: John Message for: the teacher

Message: John is going to be late.

2. Message from: Samantha Message for: Martin

Message: Call Samantha when you're free.

3. Message from: Amanda Message for: Jennifer

Message: Turn around and turn left on Summer St.

4. Message from: Brittany Message for: Emily

Message: Brittany invited you and Brandon to dinner tomorrow.

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: leave and take messages

- Divide the class into pairs and assign A/B roles. Explain the roles and go over the A/B cues. Elicit or explain that a motherboard is the main part that makes a computer function.
- Model the role play with a S. Have Ss sit back to back. Change roles if necessary.
- Option: Before starting the activity, tell Ss to reread the Conversation on page 102. Or Ss can listen again to the audio program in Exercise 11 to review phone language. Ask Students A to find expressions callers use and Students B to find expressions receivers use.
- Ss do the first role play, sitting back to back. Provide feedback after they finish.
- Explain the second role play and go over the A/B cues. Pairs change roles and do the new role play.

To maintain interest, it's best to ask only one pair to demonstrate the role play to the class.

READING

Learning Objectives: develop skills in summarizing; read for specific information in an article about cell phone accidents

- Books closed. To set the scene, ask Ss to brainstorm mistakes that cell phone users make while using their phones (e.g., They bump into people. They talk too loudly about personal things.).
- Books open. Call on a S to read the title aloud.
- Read the focus question. Tell Ss to read the cell phone article quickly to find the answer to the question. (Answer: The map app on the phone led to the wrong address.)

- Explain the task. Ss read the article silently. Remind Ss to try to guess the meanings of any words they
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

embarrassing: something that makes you feel ashamed or shy accident: something bad that happens (not on security camera: a camera, often hidden, that is meant to keep people safe capture: get throw: (irr., past tense threw) to push something out of your hand and through the air track: the metal rails a train or subway moves lamppost: a tall post with a light on top to light roads and sidewalks reaction: how you respond to something that has happened

- For a new way to teach the vocabulary in this Reading, try Vocabulary Mingle - download it from the website.
- Ss choose the best summary. Then go over the answer with the class. (Answer: 2)

C

- Explain the task. Ss check () the facts that are in the
- Ss complete the task individually. Then they compare answers with a partner.
- Go over answers with the class.

Answers

2, 3, 5, 7, and 8 should be checked.

D Pair work

• Explain the task. Ss work in pairs to discuss the first question. Then they discuss advice they would give to a child about using a cell phone. Have pairs share their best stories and advice with the class.

How have you changed?

Cycle 1, Exercises 1-5

In Unit 16, students describe life changes and describe plans for the future. By the end of Cycle 1, students will be able to describe changes in their lives using the comparative and present, past, and present perfect tenses. By the end of Cycle 2, students will be able to describe plans for the future using verb + infinitive.

SNAPSHOT

Learning Objective: discuss life-changing experiences in one's life

- Books closed. Explain that this unit is about important changes in our lives.
- Ss brainstorm things that change our lives (e.g., get married, have a child, change schools). Help with vocabulary as needed.
- Books open. Ss compare their ideas with those in the Snapshot.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

driver's license: a document that proves you are legally allowed to drive a car graduate: complete your studies abroad: to a foreign country retire: to stop working, usually because one is old

- Explain the tasks. Ss discuss the questions in pairs or small groups. Remind Ss they don't have to share personal information. They can respond by saying "I prefer not to talk about that."
- Have a brief class discussion about changes that have occurred in Ss' lives.

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use the comparative and present, past, and present perfect tenses in a conversation about changes in one's life

A [CD 3, Track 49]

- Set the scene. Two old friends run into each other and "catch up" on changes in their lives.
- Books closed. Play the audio program. Ask: "Has Thomas's life changed for the better or for the worse?" (Answer: for the better)
- Write these focus questions on the board:

True or false?

- 1. Thomas is still in school.
- 2. His hair is longer than before.
- 3. He's in a band.
- Play the audio program again. Then elicit the answers. (Answers: 1. false 2. true 3. false) For the false ones, ask Ss what really happened. (Answers: He finished school. He's in a play.)
- Books open. Play the audio program again. Ss listen and read along silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

business administration: the study of how to run a business

drama: plays and acting contacts: short for contact lenses

For a new way to practice this Conversation, try Say It With Feeling! - download it from the website.

- Ss practice the conversation in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: Ss write their own conversation, based on the one in the book. They practice the new conversation in pairs.

B [CD 3, Track 50]

- Play the audio program once or twice. Ss listen to find out how Hayden has changed.
- Ss compare answers in small groups. Then go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Thomas So tell me, Hayden, what else have you been up to?

Hayden Well, let's see. I've just bought an apartment on Market Street, near the park. It's less noisy than downtown.

Thomas Really? That's a very nice area. So you don't live with your sister anymore? Hayden Oh, yes, I still do. I'm going to move into my new place in two months.

Thomas Are you going to live alone?

Hayden No, actually, I got engaged to Paul.

We're going to get married in July.

Thomas Wow! That's great news!

Congratulations!

Answers

Hayden bought an apartment and got engaged. She's going to get married in July.

3 GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use the comparative and present, past, and present perfect tenses to describe changes in one's life

CD 3, Track 51]

- Option: Ask Ss to bring in some old photos that show how they have changed. Ss can show each other their photos and discuss them.
- Write these four categories on the board:

Present tense Present perfect
Past tense Comparative

- Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 106.
 Ask Ss to find examples in each category. Call on Ss to write them on the board.
- Option: Divide the class into four groups and assign each group a different tense.

Possible answers

Present tense

Are you still in college?
Actually, I'm in a play right now.
What's the name of play?

You look different. My character has long hair. And I wear contacts. Well, you look fantastic!

Past tense

I majored in business administration/drama. I finished school.

Present perfect

I haven't seen you since you changed schools! How have you been? Have you finished college? I've just started a new job. Have you changed your hair?

Comparative

It's longer now.

• Play the audio program to present the grammar. Then ask Ss to describe the changes to the woman in the picture (e.g., She wears different clothes now. Her hairstyle is different now.).

• Option: If needed, review the tenses. For the past tense, see Unit 7; for the present perfect, see Unit 10; and for comparatives, see Unit 14.

Δ

- Explain the task. Ss check ( ) true statements and correct any false statements. Put this example on the board:
 - (✓) 1. I dress differently now.

2. I've changed my My hairstyle is the hairstyle. same.

• Ss complete the task individually. Go around the class and give help as needed.

B Pair work

 Explain the task. Then Ss work in pairs to compare their part A responses. Ask the class: "Who has changed in similar ways?"

C Group work

- Explain the task. Ss work individually. They write five sentences describing other changes in their lives.
- Ss work in groups to compare answers. Allow about five minutes for discussion. Remind Ss to decide who in the group has changed the most.

4 LISTENING

Learning Objective: listen for details about changes in people's lives

[CD 3, Track 52]

- Set the scene. Madison and Zachary are looking through online photo albums and discussing how they have changed over the years.
- Play the audio program. Ss listen and take notes on three changes they hear. Go over answers with the class.

Audio script

Madison
Zachary
Oh, just one of our online photo albums.
Oh, look – it's our wedding picture.
Yeah. Just think, we'll be celebrating our fifth wedding anniversary this month.

Madison
Madison
Yeah, and I remember we didn't get along so well when we first met. But a year later, we fell in love and got married

Zachary And here's a picture of our honeymoon.
Wow! We sure look different now, don't we?

Madison Yes. My hair is much shorter now. And you wore glasses back then. Oh, and look. Here's a picture of the day we brought Maggie home from the hospital.

Zachary She's so cute. And now we have two kids. Who would have guessed?

Madison Yeah. We're just lucky that they look like me.

Possible answers

They didn't get along when they first met. They're married now. Madison's hair is shorter. Zachary doesn't wear glasses. They have two kids now.

WORD POWER

Learning Objective: discuss types of life changes

A

- Explain the task. Ss complete the word map with phrases from the list.
- Call on Ss to read the phrases. Explain any vocabulary.
- Ss complete the word map. Remind them to add two more examples to each category.
- Draw the word map on the board. Ask Ss to write answers and add more examples to each category.

Answers

wear contact lenses	open a savings account	learn how to dance start a new online get a haircut dress better	get a mortgage support a charity	course learn how to paint take an art class

(Note: Additional examples are italicized.)

B Pair work

- Explain the task and model the example with a S. Elicit additional responses and write them on the hoard
- Ss discuss their changes in each category.

End of Cycle 1

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle.

Cycle 2, Exercises 6-12

CONVERSATION

Learning Objective: use verb + infinitive in a conversation about planning for the future

A [CD 3, Track 53]

- Have Ss cover the text. Use the picture to set the scene. Ask: "What's happening? What do you think they are discussing?" Elicit ideas.
- Write this chart on the board (without the answers). Ask Ss to listen for three future plans for each person. Future plans

Robin: play the guitar, take guitar lessons, learn to play Latin music

Matt: learn how to dance salsa, take a trip to Puerto Rico, get a new job

- Play the audio program. Ss write their answers. Ss compare answers in pairs. Then go over answers with the class. Have Ss fill in the chart on the board.
- Have Ss uncover the text. Play the audio program again. Ss read the conversation silently.
- Elicit or explain any new vocabulary. A resolution is something a person "resolves" or intends to do in the future. Resolutions are often made for the new year.
- Ss practice the conversation in pairs.

B [CD 3, Track 54]

- Play the audio program. Ss listen to find out the answers to the focus questions.
- Elicit answers from around the class.

Audio script

Robin	So, what kind of job are you looking for?
Matt	Um, I've thought about it a lot. I have a minor in computer science, so I hope to get a job with a big computer company.
Robin	Well, good luck!
Matt	Thanks. Do you have any other plans for the new year, Robin?
Robin	Well, I'd like to travel around the United States a bit. There are so many places that I've never seen. I guess the guitar will have to wait a couple of months.
Matt	Well, don't forget to take lots of pictures and post them online.
Robin	Don't worry, I won't. And I hope you get the job.
Matt	Me, too!

Answers

Matt wants to get a job with a big computer company. Robin would like to travel around the United States.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Learning Objective: use verb + infinitive to ask and answer questions about plans for the future

[CD 3, Track 55]

Books closed. Write these sentences on the board:

Robin: I'd	learn how to play the guitar.
Robin: I	take lessons.
Matt: I'd	learn how to dance.
Matt: I	get a new job soon.

- Books open. Focus Ss' attention on the Conversation on page 108. Call on Ss to find the answers and to fill in the blanks on the board. (Answers: love to, plan to, like to, hope to)
- Ask Ss to look at the Grammar Focus box.
- Ask: "What do these structures have in common? What other structures follow this pattern?" (Answers: They are verb + infinitive; going to, want to)
- Play the audio program. Then have Ss make sentences of their own (e.g., I don't plan to get married this year.).
- For more practice with verb + infinitive, play Line Up! download it from the website. Ss line up according to the age when they hope to marry, how many children they hope to have, etc.

A

- Explain the task. Tell Ss to write true information about themselves. Encourage Ss to use each verb from the Grammar Focus box at least once.
- Ss work individually to complete the sentences. Remind Ss to add two more statements for numbers 9 and 10. Go around the class and give help. (Note: Don't check Ss' answers until the end of part B.)

B Pair work

- Ss work in pairs to discuss their responses. Tell pairs to check () the statements on their lists that are the same and to put an X next to the ones that are different.
- Elicit some "same" and "different" responses from pairs.

C Group work

- Explain the task. Call on Ss to read the guestions. Check for correct intonation.
- Ss work in small groups. They take turns asking and answering the questions. Tell Ss to ask the questions in any order they want. Also encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions and to respond to group members' plans.
- Option: Encourage Ss to use all of the Wh-words as follow-up questions at least once: Why, Where, When, Who, and How.

PRONUNCIATION

Learning Objective: recognize the differences in pronunciation in words spelled with o

A [CD 3, Track 56]

- Explain that words spelled with o are pronounced in different ways in English. Point out the two examples in the book.
- Play the audio program and let Ss listen to the two sounds and practice.
- Elicit more words that contain the two sounds (e.g., grow, oh, son, from).
- Option: If Ss are having problems, ask them to find words spelled with o in the unit. Say the words, and ask Ss which have the $\langle ov \rangle$ sound, which have the $\langle v \rangle$ sound, and which have some other sound.
- For more practice with this Pronunciation, play Bingo – download it from the website.

B [CD 3, Track 57]

• Explain the task. Model the first word.

- Play the audio program. Ss check () the sound they hear.
- Option: Ss first check (✓) the sound they think is represented by the letter o. Then play the audio program. Ss check if their guesses were right or wrong.
- Check Ss' answers on the board.

Ansv	Answers
			home money

• Option: Ss work in pairs. They write a conversation with at least five words from part A or B. Then Ss practice the conversation.

TIP

Each week, select a "sound of the week" and focus specifically on that (or, in this case, the two sounds).

See page T-131 for teaching notes.

SPEAKING

Learning Objective: describe plans about a future trip

A Group work

- Explain the task. Groups make plans to take an English course abroad. The whole group has to agree on the destination. Go over the details they need to think about (e.g., place, time, length, housing, coursework, tourist places to visit). Model the conversation with three Ss.
- Encourage Ss to use a variety of verb + infinitive
- Ss work in small groups to discuss their plans. Set a time limit of about ten minutes. Tell groups to choose one person to take notes.

If you notice that you always monitor groups in the same order (e.g., you always start at the front of the class), change your routine. Try starting from another direction so that some Ss do not get ignored.

B Class activity

- Explain the task.
- Groups present their plans to the class. Encourage the whole class to try to agree on one of the trips.

WRITING

Learning Objective: write about plans for a class trip abroad

A Group work

- Explain the task. Ask Ss to read the example plan silently. Ss write a similar plan, based on their discussion in Exercise 10.
- Ss form the same small groups as in Exercise 10. They write their plan for an English course abroad. Go around the groups and give help as needed. Each S should write their group's plan.

B Pair work

- Ss pair up with a S from another group and read each other's trip ideas.
- Pairs discuss how their trips are similar.

READING

Learning Objectives: make inferences about audience; read for specific information in an article about a person's goals

- Go over the question. Ask Ss to read the article to find out what it is about.
- Ss read the article individually. Then have Ss tell you what the article was generally about.

Answer

An important invention

- Explain the task. Ss read the article silently. Remind Ss to try to guess the meanings of any words they don't know.
- Ask: "Who do you think the article was written for?" Go over the answer with the class.

Answer

People who care about the environment

Elicit or explain any remaining new vocabulary.

Vocabulary

benefit: to help someone or something else accomplish: achieve; to get something done or make something happen garbage: unwanted things that are thrown away plastic: a light, artificial substance, such as is used to make water bottles century: 100 years extraordinary: very special or unusual donate: to give money, goods, or services freely, without being paid

C

- Read aloud the questions in part C. Then ask Ss to look for the answers. (Encourage Ss to look for the information quickly, without reading the whole article again.) Give Ss a time limit.
- Ss compare answers in pairs or groups. Have the Ss who finish first write their responses on the board.

Answers

- 1. He was on vacation in Greece.
- 2. He left school to start The Ocean Cleanup.
- 3. It takes centuries to break down.
- 4. He asked people to donate money online.
- 5. He hopes the oceans will be clean in 20 or 30 years.

D Group work

• Explain the task. Ss work in pairs to discuss a personal goal that they've achieved or a goal that someone else has achieved. Have a few Ss share their goals with the class.

End of Cycle 2

See the Supplementary Resources chart at the beginning of this unit for additional teaching materials and student activities related to this Cycle and for assessment tools.

Progress check

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Learning Objectives: reflect on one's learning; identify areas that need improvement

- Ask: "What did you learn in Units 15 and 16?" Elicit Ss' answers.
- Ss complete the Self-assessment. Encourage them to be honest, and point out they will not get a bad grade if they check (✓) A little.
- Ss move on to the Progress check exercises. You can have Ss complete them in class or for homework, using one of these techniques:
 - 1. Ask Ss to complete all the exercises.
 - 2. Ask Ss: "What do you need to practice?" Then assign exercises based on their answers.
 - 3. Ask Ss to choose and complete exercises based on their Self-assessment.

DISCUSSION

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to discuss future plans

A Group work

• Explain the task. Ss work in groups of four. Each S writes the names of the other three Ss in the first column. Ss then ask each other about their weekend plans. Encourage them to ask follow-up questions to find out details. Model the example with two Ss.

• Ss complete the task. Go around the class and check their use of the present continuous and be going to.

B Group work

• Explain the task. Ss discuss the questions in groups and share their results with the class.

ROLE PLAY

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to make and accept or decline invitations

- Elicit different ways to make invitations, accept invitations, refuse invitations, and make excuses. Write them on the board.
- Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Student A invites Student B to an event from Exercise 1. Student B accepts or refuses.
- Model the role play with a S.
- Ss complete the role play in pairs. Then they change roles and practice again. Go around the class and give help as needed.

3 LISTENING

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to take phone messages

[CD 3, Track 58]

- Set the scene and explain the task. Ss will hear two telephone calls. They listen and write the name of the person the message is for, the caller, and the message.
- Play the audio program once or twice. Ss listen and complete the messages.

Audio script

1.

Mr. Daniels Hello?

Alyssa Hi, Mr. Daniels. This is Alyssa Jenkins.

Is Matthew there? I've tried calling his cell, but he's not answering.

Mr. Daniels I'm sorry, Alyssa. Matthew isn't here.

May I take a message?

Alyssa Oh, um. Sure. Would you tell him to meet me at the theater at 7:00? The play starts at 7:30.

Mr. Daniels OK, let me just write this down. So, you want him to meet you at the theater at 7:00, right?

Alyssa That's right.

Mr. Daniels And the play is at 7:30, right? Alyssa Yes, that's right. Thanks so much. Mr. Daniels No problem. Have a good time! 2.

Man Hello. Kayla Hi. Jacob?

Man No, sorry. Jacob isn't here right now. Can I take a message?

Kayla Yes, thanks. Do you have a pen?

Man Yeah. Go ahead.

Kayla OK. This is Kayla. Could you tell him that I'm still at the barbecue? Please ask him to pick me up here. Not at home.

Man OK. So, you're still at the barbecue, right?

Kayla Yes, that's right.

Man And he should pick you up there. Not at home. Right?

Kayla That's right. Thanks.

Man No problem.

• Go over answers with the class.

Possible answers

1. Message for: Matthew

Caller: Alyssa

Message: Meet her at theater at 7:00. The play is at 7:30.

2. Message for: Jacob

Caller: Kayla

Message: Pick her up at barbecue, not at home.

4 SURVEY

Learning Objective: demonstrate one's ability to ask and answer questions about changes in one's life

A Class activity

- Explain the task and go over the chart. Explain any new vocabulary. Then elicit how to make questions with the phrases in the chart (e.g., Do you not wear glasses anymore?).
- Set a time limit of about ten minutes. Ss complete the task. Go around the class and note any grammar or vocabulary errors.

B Class activity

• Ss compare their information as a class. Ask: "Who has changed the most?"

5 SPEAKING

Learning Objectives: demonstrate one's ability to set goals; demonstrate one's ability to decide how best to accomplish goals

- Ss check (
) the goals they want to accomplish individually. Then they add two more goals.
- Explain the task. Each S chooses one goal. Then they plan how to achieve the goal in pairs.
- Model the example conversation with a S. Then Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and check their use of verb + infinitive.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Learning Objective: become more involved in one's learning

- Focus Ss' attention on the Self-assessment again.
 Ask: "How well can you do these things now?"
- Ask Ss to underline one thing they need to review.
 Ask: "What did you underline? How can you review it?"
- If needed, plan additional activities or reviews based on Ss' answers.

Interchange activities

INTERCHANGE 1

Learning Objective: interview classmates to learn more about their backgrounds

A Class activity

- As a warm-up, ask a S: "What's your name? What city are you from?"
- Go over the questions in the chart. Help Ss with vocabulary and pronunciation. If necessary, review hobbies and the months of the year.
- Explain the task. Model the questions with a S. Point out that Ss will write one more question and then interview three classmates.
- Ss complete the task. Go around the class and give help as needed. Write down any grammar or vocabulary errors and go over them after Ss complete the task.

B Group work

- Explain the task. Go over the questions and review the vocabulary if needed. Ask, "Who has a long first name?" Have a S answer.
- Ss discuss the questions as a group.
- Option: Elicit interesting information that Ss found out about their classmates.

Interchange activities

INTERCHANGE 1 Getting to know you

A CLASS ACTIVITY Add one more question to the chart. Go around

	Classmate 1	Classmate 2	Classmate 3
What's your first name?
What's your last name?
What city are you from?
When's your birthday?
What's your favorite color?
What are your hobbies?

B GROUP WORK Compare your information. Then discuss these questions.

Who . . . ?

has a long first name has the next birthday has a long last name likes orange or brown is not from a big city has an interesting hobby

114 Interchange 1

- Explain the rest of the task. Ss go around the class and interview two classmates. They write each classmate's name at the top of the column and ask the questions in the chart. They write a time for each response.
- Model the task with a S.
- Set a time limit of about 15 minutes. Then Ss complete the task. Go around the class and give help as needed. Write down any errors you hear for Ss to correct later.

TIP

At beginning levels, sometimes instructions are difficult to understand. It is much more effective to model the task than to explain it.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Go over the useful expressions and model the example conversation with a S.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Encourage them to explain why their schedules are similar.
- Elicit answers from the class.

INTERCHANGE 2

Learning Objective: survey classmates to learn more about their routines

A Class activity

- Focus Ss' attention on the pictures at the bottom of the page. Ask: "What does the man do every day? What time does he do each thing?"
- Go over any new vocabulary in the list. Teach or review how to write and say times.
- Explain the first part of the task. Ask Ss: "What time do you get up during the week?" Ss complete the first line in the Me column. Then they complete the rest of the column individually. Allow about three minutes. Go around the class and give help as needed.

Learning Objective: talk more fluently when asking about prices of items for sale

- Point out the title. Explain that a flea market is a place where people sell used things. Sellers have an "asking price," but people bargain.
- Ask: "Are there flea markets in your country? Do people bargain for better prices?" Encourage discussion.
- Focus Ss' attention on the pictures on both pages. Ask: "What do you see here? What are these people doing?"
- Divide the Ss into pairs and assign pages A and B. Explain the task.
- Focus Ss' attention on the tablet. Ask: "What is a good price for a used tablet?" Tell Ss with page A to choose an "asking price" and write it down. Then focus Ss' attention on the mugs. Ask: "What is a good price for mugs?" Tell Ss with page B to choose an "asking price" and write it down.
- Ss work individually to make up prices for the remaining items.

TIP

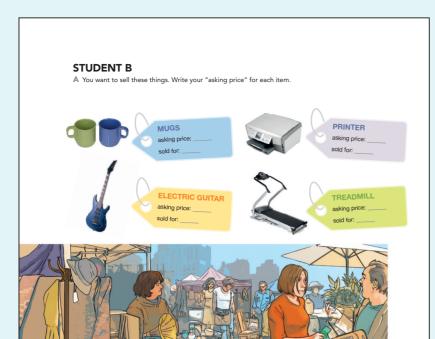

If Ss have difficulty with a specific task, try a different grouping for the task. For example, have them work in small groups instead of pairs.

B Pair work

• Explain the task. Ss work in pairs. Students A and B take turns as buyer and seller. The buyers choose three things they want to buy from their partner's page. Buyers decide on a good price for each thing.

- Model the example conversation with a few Ss, showing that A is the buyer and B is the seller. Remind the class to vary the conversation and to bargain.
- Give Ss a time limit of about ten minutes. Explain that partners need to take turns starting the conversation so that each S is both buyer and seller.
- Continue until both partners buy and sell at least three things. Tell the Ss to write down the prices they bought the things for.
- Go around the class and give help as needed.

STUDENTS A AND B

- B PAIR WORK Now choose three things you want to buy. Get the best price for each one. Then write what each item "sold for" on the price tag.
 - A: How much is the tablet computer?
 - B: It's only $70.
 - A: Wow! That's expensive!

 - B: Well, how about $35?
 A: No. That's still too much. I'll give you $30 for it.
 - B: Sold! It's yours.
- C GROUP WORK Compare your earnings in groups. Who made the most money at the flea market?

Interchange 3 117

- Option: Ask a pair of Ss to perform their role play for the class. Alternatively, Ss can change partners and try the activity again.
- Option: Ss make a list of six to eight things to sell at a flea market. They can also bring in two or three things and role-play a sale at a flea market.

C Group work

- Ss look at the "sold for" part of their page and add up the amount of money they made individually.
- Ss work in groups to take turns comparing who made the most money at the flea market. Go around the room and encourage Ss to talk about their sales with useful expressions from Unit 3.
- Option: Elicit the best bargains Ss got.

Learning Objective: speak more fluently when making plans

- Explain the task. Ss read the directions. Ss write three things they need to do and three things they want to do this weekend and the days and times. Model an example for need to and want to for the class.
- Ss complete the task individually.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Model the example with a S. Review invitations and polite refusals if necessary. Point out that Ss should give a reason if they decline an invitation.
- Ss work in pairs to agree on two activities to do together.

C Group work

- Explain the task. Pairs work with another pair to take turns making and responding to invitations.
- Go around the room and encourage Ss to respond politely.

D Class work

- Explain the task. Read the example. Groups share their choices with the class.
- Option: Elicit interesting refusals that Ss made.

INTERCHANGE 4 Are you free this weekend?

A Write three things you need to do and three things you want to do this weekend Include the days of the week and the times.

I need to	I want to

- B PAIR WORK Invite your partner to do things on the weekend. Accept or decline invitations. If you decline an invitation, explain why. Agree on two activities to do together.
 - A: Would you like to see a movie on Saturday at 8:00 P.M.?
 - B: I'd like to, but I need to study for a test. Would you like to go to the park on Sunday at 10:00 A.M.?
 - A: Yes, I would. And would you like to . . . ?
- C GROUP WORK Get together with another pair. Can you agree on two things to do together?
- D CLASS WORK Explain your group's choices to the class. "Eu-jin wanted to go to the park on Sunday at 10 ${\tt A.M.}$, but Serhat needs to visit his aunt on Sunday morning, so we're going out for lunch on Sunday at . . . "

118 Interchange 4

INTERCHANGE 5 Is that true?

CLASS ACTIVITY Go around the class telling your classmates three activities that members of your family are doing these days. Two activities have to be true, but one needs to be false! Can your classmates guess which activity is false with only two questions?

- A: My brother is working in Berlin and his wife is studying German there. My niece is learning three languages at school: German, English, and Spanish.
- B: Is your brother really working in Berlin?
- A: Yes, he is.
- B: Is your niece really learning Spanish?
- A: No, she's not! She's learning German and English, but she isn't learning Spanish.

Interchange 5 119

INTERCHANGE 5

Learning Objective: speak more fluently when asking and answering questions about family members

Class activity

- Focus Ss' attention on the pictures. Explain the task. Point out that Ss can use the pictures to say what their family members are doing these days. Two things they say will be true and one will be false.
- Model the dialogue with a S. Point out that Ss can only ask two questions to guess which statement is false.
- Set a time limit of 10 to 15 minutes. Ss complete the activity with at least three other classmates, taking turns to speak and guess.
- Go around the room. Note any errors, but don't point them out.
- Have Ss share what they learned about their classmates' family members. Go over any errors you noticed by writing them on the board and asking Ss to correct them.

Learning Objective: speak more fluently about free-time activities

A Class activity

- Focus Ss' attention on the chart. Read through the list of items. Explain any unfamiliar vocabulary.
- Have Ss add two of their own ideas to the chart.
- Explain the task. Ss ask each other who does these activities, how often they do them, and how well they do them. Point out that Ss must try to find one person who does each thing. Also, they cannot use the same name twice.
- Model the task with a S at the front of the class, using the example conversation.
- Set a time limit of 10 to 15 minutes. Ss go around the room and complete the activity.

B Group work

- Focus Ss' attention on the picture. Ask: "What is a fundraiser?" Elicit ideas. If needed, explain that it is an event where people raise money to get something or to benefit a charity or other organization. Sometimes people make things or perform services to get the money.
- Explain the task. Tell Ss to imagine the class is participating in a fundraiser. Ss choose three people from the class to help raise money at the fundraiser. Ask: "What will each person do for the fundraiser? Why?"

INTERCHANGE 6 What's your talent?

A CLASS ACTIVITY Add two items to the chart. Does anyone in your class do these things? How often and how well? Go around the class and find one person for each activity

	Name	How often?	How well?
bake cookies cook cut hair do card tricks fix things play an instrument sing do yoga

- A: Do you bake cookies?
- B: Yes, I do.
- A: How often do you bake cookies?
- B: Once a month
- A: Really? And how well do you bake?
- B GROUP WORK Imagine there's a fundraiser to buy new books for the school library this weekend. Who do you think can help? Choose three people from your class. Explain your choices.
 - A: Let's ask Lydia to help with the fundraiser
 - B: Why Lydia?
- A: Because she bakes cookies very well.
- C: Yes, she really does. And Mariana is very good at fixing things. Let's ask her, too!

120 Interchange 6

- Model the conversation with two Ss. Then Ss complete the task in small groups.
- Ask the groups to share and explain their choices with the class. Have the class agree on the three people.

INTERCHANGE 7 Memories

GROUP WORK Play the board game. Follow these instructions.

- 1. Write your initials on small pieces of paper. These are your game pieces
- 2. Take turns by tossing a coin: If the coin lands face up, move two spaces If the coin lands face down, move one space.
- 3. When you land on a space, answer the question. Answer any follow-up questions.
- 4. If you land on "Free question," another player asks you any question.
- A: I'll go first. OK, one space. Last night, I met my best friend.
- B: Oh, yeah? Where did you go?
- A: We went to the movies

Interchange 7 121

INTERCHANGE 7

Learning Objective: speak more fluently about past events using the simple past

Group work

- Focus Ss' attention on the board game and read the instructions. Show Ss how to write their initials on small pieces of paper and use them as markers.
- Option: Ss can use other small items as markers (e.g., pen caps or erasers).
- Show Ss how to toss a coin. Point out which side is face up and which side is face down.
- Have different Ss read the questions in each space. Explain that a "free question" can be any question another player wants to ask you. Remind Ss they can make up an answer if they don't want to answer truthfully.
- Then ask two Ss to model the example conversation. Point out that Ss should ask follow-up questions.
- Show how to play the game with a group of three Ss.

In low-level classes, it is more effective to model a game or activity than to explain it.

- Ss play the game in small groups. Go around the class and encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions.
- Option: Ask Ss to share any interesting information they learned about their classmates.

Learning Objective: describe places in a neighborhood with there is/there are and quantifiers

Class activity

- Explain that Ss will play a guessing game. Read the locations. Elicit or explain any location meanings.
- Read the instructions. Put Ss into two teams, A and B. Explain that each team will choose a location and keep it secret for now.
- Explain that one S from each team will go to the front of the class. Those two Ss will guess the other team's location.
- Teams then show the opposite team the location but keep it secret from that team's guesser. Teams take turns giving clues to the other team's guesser. Point out that Ss will use there is/ there are and quantifiers. Model an example: "There are a lot of people waiting at this place." is one clue, and "There are a lot of planes." is a second clue.
- Explain that teams can give up to ten clues. The teams try to guess the location in as few guesses as possible. Each clue is worth one point. Teams don't want many points.
- Have three Ss model the example conversation at the bottom of the page.
- Show how to play the game with a group of three Ss.

TIP

In low-level classes, it is more effective to model a game or activity than to explain it.

• Put the class into two teams to play. Listen to make sure that Ss use there is/there are + quantifiers. Give help as needed.

INTERCHANGE 8 Where are we?

CLASS ACTIVITY Play a guessing game. Follow these instructions.

- 1. Get into two teams, A and B
- 2. Each team chooses one of the locations below. Keep it a secret!
- 3. Each team chooses a teammate to guess the other team's location. He or she is the guesser.
- 4. Show your location to all the students on the other team, except their guesser
- 5. Take turns giving your guessers one clue at a time until they guess the location. Use There is/ There are plus a quantifier. You cannot give more than 10 clues. Your team can get 1 to 10 points, depending on how many clues you need to give your guesser (1 clue = 1 point) before he or she guesses the right location. Remember: you don't want to get many points!
- 6. At the end of the game, the team with fewer points wins

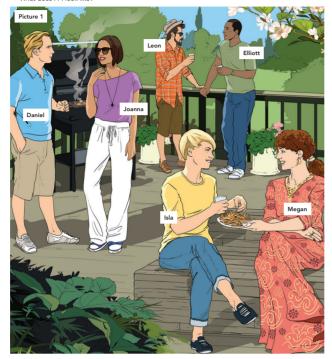

- B: You're in a grocery store
- C: No. There aren't any walls here. This isn't a building.
- B: You're at an outdoor market!
- A: Correct! We're at an outdoor market

INTERCHANGE 9A Find the differences

STUDENT A

A PAIR WORK How many differences can you find between your picture here and your partner's picture? Ask questions like these to find the differences How many people are standing / sitting / wearing . . . / holding a drink? Who? What color is . . . 's T-shirt / sweater / hair? Does ... wear glasses / have a beard / have long hair? What does . . . look like?

B CLASS ACTIVITY How many differences are there in the pictures? 'In picture 1, Daniel's T-shirt is . . . In picture 2, it's . .

Interchange 9a 123

INTERCHANGE 9A

Learning Objective: speak more fluently about people's appearance

A Pair work

- Ss work in pairs. One S looks at Interchange 9A and the other S looks at Interchange 9B.
- Explain the task. Both Ss have pictures of a party, but there are some differences in the pictures. Ss ask each other questions to find the differences without looking at their partner's picture.
- Ask different Ss to read the questions at the top of the page. Point out that Ss can use these questions to find the differences.

• Model the task with one pair. Ask: "What is Daniel wearing in Picture 1? in Picture 2?" Elicit answers. (Answers: Student A: In Picture 1, Daniel is wearing a blue shirt. Student B: In Picture 2, he's wearing a light brown/beige shirt.)

TIP

With information gap activities, tell Ss to sit across from their partners and put a textbook between them. That way, they can hear each other but not see each other's pictures.

• Ss complete the task in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.

B Class activity

- Tell pairs to look over their answers (i.e., the differences between the two pictures) and to choose one to write on the board. Encourage them to come to the board quickly by making it a rule that no answer can be written twice.
- To check the answers written on the board, ask the pair who wrote an answer to read it aloud for the class. Then find out if other Ss agree. If they do agree, go on to the next answer until all of them have been checked. If Ss don't agree, ask the class to look at both pictures again to check it.

INTERCHANGE 9B

Possible answers

- 1. In Picture 1, Dave is wearing a blue shirt. In Picture 2, he's wearing a light brown/ beige shirt.
- 2. In Picture 1, Dave has blond hair. In Picture 2, he has brown hair.
- 3. In Picture 1, Joanna's hair is short. In Picture 2, it's long.
- 4. In Picture 1, Joanna is standing. In Picture 2, she's
- 5. In Picture 1, Joanna is wearing pants and sneakers. In Picture 2, she's wearing a dress and shoes.
- 6. In Picture 1, Leon is wearing an orange shirt and shorts. In Picture 2, he's wearing a denim jacket and jeans.
- 7. In Picture 1, Isla's T-shirt is yellow. In Picture 2, it's red.
- 8. În Picture 1, Isla has short blond hair. In Picture 2, she has long light brown hair.
- 9. In Picture 1, Megan has long curly red hair. In Picture 2, she has short curly red hair.
- 10. In Picture 1, Megan is wearing a long dress. In Picture 2, she's wearing a short dress.
- 11. In Picture 1, Elliott is wearing a green shirt and long pants. In Picture 2, he's wearing a gray shirt and shorts.

INTERCHANGE 9B Find the differences

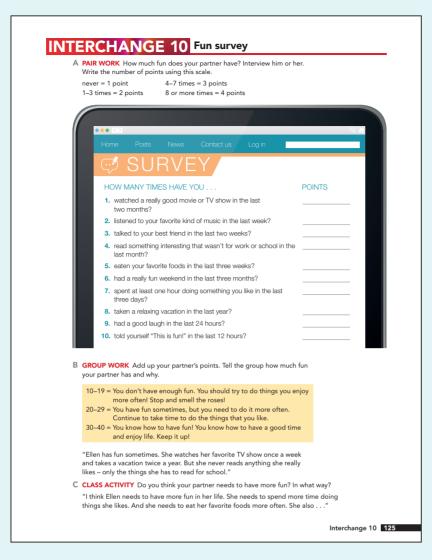

STUDENT B

A PAIR WORK How many differences can you find between your picture here and your partner's picture? Ask questions like these to find the differences. How many people are standing / sitting / wearing . . . / holding a drink? Who? What color is . . .'s T-shirt / sweater / hair? Does . . . wear glasses / have a beard / have long hair?

124 Interchange 9b

Learning Objective: speak more fluently about one's lifestyle

A Pair work

- Focus S's attention on the survey. Ask a few Ss to say what they think is fun and how many times they've done something fun in the last week.
- Explain the task. Then Ss read the questions silently. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary.
- Model the activity by asking a S the first interview question. Explain that the S should answer with the number of times he or she has done the thing asked about.
- Show how to use the chart at the top to calculate the number of times into points. Based on Ss' responses, show where to write the number of points.
- Ss complete the survey in pairs. Go around the class and give help as needed.
- Option: To make Ss listen more carefully, tell them to ask the questions in a different order.

B Group work

- Explain the task and demonstrate how to add up the points. Then ask a few Ss to read the results chart and the example reading. Point out that Ss will use the results chart to create their own explanation about how much fun their partner has.
- Ss use their surveys to make notes about how much fun their partner has.
- In groups, Ss take turns talking about how much fun their partner has.

C Class activity

- Explain the task and read the example.
- Ask the class: "Who knows how to have fun? Why? Who needs to have more fun? In what way?" Elicit Ss' answers.

Learning Objective: speak more fluently when giving suggestions about one's city

A Pair work

• Ask: "What are some fun and exciting places and things for tourists to do in your city?" Elicit Ss' answers.

To get Ss' attention, give them instructions from different places. Sometimes give them from the back of the classroom; other times give them from the middle of the classroom.

- Explain the task. Ss make a city guide for tourists, such as for a travel website. Have them choose their own city or a city they know well.
- Focus Ss' attention on the photos and the text. Point out that this guide is from a city's website. Go over the text. Point out that the photos provide ideas about topics to write about. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary. Explain that a reasonable price is one that isn't too expensive.
- Ss complete the guide in pairs in class or for homework.

B Class activity

- Explain the task. Ask different Ss to read the follow-up questions aloud. Then elicit additional questions and ask a S to write them on the board.
- Ss compare their city guides in small groups. (If possible, Ss should work with classmates who wrote about different cities.)
- Go around the class and encourage Ss to ask follow-up questions.

INTERCHANGE 11 Welcome to our city!

C Class activity

• Ask groups to share their favorite guides and give examples of details they found interesting. Have the class choose their favorite guides overall.

INTERCHANGE 12 What should I do?

- A GROUP WORK Play the board game. Follow these instructions.
 - 1. Write your initials on small pieces of paper. These are your game pieces.
- 2. Take turns by tossing a coin: If the coin lands face up, move two spaces. If the coin lands face down, move one space.
- 3. When you land on a space, ask two others in your group for advice
- 4. The first person to cross the finish line is the winner.
- A: I have the hiccups, Hiroto. What should I do?
- B: Well, it's sometimes useful to hold your breath
- A: Thanks. What about you, Erica? What's your advice?
- C: You should drink some water. That always works for me.

INTERCHANGE 12

Learning Objective: speak more fluently about health problems and medical advice

A Group work

- Focus Ss' attention on the board game and read the instructions. Show Ss how to write their initials on small pieces of paper and use them as markers.
- Option: Ss can use other small items as markers (e.g., pen caps or erasers).
- Show Ss how to toss a coin. Point out which side is face up and which side is face down.
- Have different Ss read the problems in each space. Elicit or explain any vocabulary. Then ask three Ss to model the example conversation.
- Show how to play the game with a group of three Ss.

TIP

In low-level classes, it is more effective to model a game or activity than to explain it.

Ss play the game in small groups. Go around the class and encourage Ss to use the expressions in the useful expressions box.

B Class activity

• Read the question. Elicit information from each group. Encourage them to give examples.

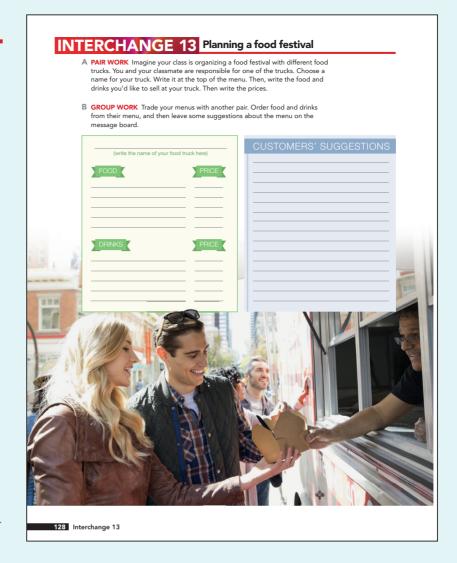

Learning Objective: speak more fluently about types of food

A Pair work

- Set the scene and explain the task. Explain that a food truck usually has a theme or specific type of food it sells, such as only foods made with bacon, or a combination of Indian curry and tacos, or savory cupcakes. They usually offer fewer dishes than a regular restaurant menu.
- Ask the class about any food trucks they have seen or eaten from. Elicit possible themes and foods for a food truck from the class. Encourage Ss to be creative and to think of their favorite foods.
- Ss complete the task in pairs. Ss choose a name for their food truck and write it at the top of the menu. To help Ss think of ideas, ask these questions: "What kind of food truck is it? What's special about it?" Then they complete the menu.
- Go around the class and give help with vocabulary, spelling, or prices.

B Group work

- Read the instructions and explain the task. Pairs trade menus with another pair and order food and drinks from each other's menu.
- Then pairs make suggestions about the other pair's menu. Tell Ss they may want to make suggestions about the prices, the most interesting dish, the healthiest dish, and the name of the food truck.
- Elicit answers from the class. Encourage Ss to explain their reasons.

Learning Objective: speak more fluently about general knowledge facts

A Pair work

• Write these subjects on the board:

biology geography science history chemistry foreign languages

• As a warm-up, ask: "Do you watch guiz shows on TV? How well would you do with these subjects?" Encourage discussion.

- Explain the task. Model the first question with its three choices. Point out the photos that refer to the question.
- Call on Ss to read through the list of questions and their choices. (It's best not to explain new words at this time as this might give away the answer.)
- Model this possible conversation with a S:
 - T: Look at question 1. Which place is the wettest: Kaua'i, Hawai'i; Manaus, Brazil; or Emei Shan, China?
 - S: I think Kaua'i, Hawai'i, is the wettest.

- T: Hmm. I think Manaus. Brazil, is the wettest.
- S: I don't agree. Actually, I think Emei Shan, China, is the wettest.
- T: OK, I guess we disagree here. So I'll check Kaua'i, Hawai'i, and you check Emei Shan, China. We'll find out later who got the correct answer for this one.
- S: Now it's my turn. Let's go on to question 2. Which country . . . ?
- Ss work in pairs. Ss take turns asking and answering the questions. Tell Ss to cover the answers.
- After pairs have completed the quiz, they write two more questions and three answer choices for each.
- Then pairs correct their incorrect answers.
- Allow five to ten minutes for the activity.

B Pair work

- Explain the task. Pairs check their answers at the bottom of the quiz. They get one point for every correct answer they had originally.
- Ask the class which pair got the most points.

C Class activity

- Explain the task. Pairs ask the class their two questions. If the class can't answer a question, the pair gets a point.
- Have pairs report their total points at the end.

INTERCHANGE 15

Learning Objective: speak more fluently about weekend plans

Class activity

- As a warm-up, ask: "What are you doing this weekend?"
- Option: Let the class ask you about your weekend plans.
- Ask Ss to look at the items in the chart. Elicit or explain any new vocabulary. Call on Ss to form the questions from the phrases (e.g., Are you going to go to a party this weekend?).
- Model by asking different Ss: "Are you going to go out of town this weekend?" When a S says "no," go on to the next person until you find someone who says "yes." Write that person's name in the chart, and ask at least two follow-up questions. Write the details in the Notes column.
- Ask two Ss to model the conversation.
- Model how to react to hearing about someone's plans (e.g., Really? That sounds great! Wow! That sounds like fun!). Ss practice the expressions.
- Ss move around the class to do the activity.

TIP

It's best not to interrupt Ss during a fluency exercise. For this type of activity, communication of real information is more important than grammatical or lexical accuracy.

• After the activity, go over any common errors.

INTERCHANGE 15 Weekend plans

CLASS ACTIVITY What are your classmates' plans for the weekend? Add two activities to the list. Then go around the class and find people who are going to do these things. For each question, ask for more information and take notes.

a city you would like to live in someday?
a job you would like to have?
a goal you hope to achieve?

- A: What is something you plan to do next year?
- B: Well, I'm going to travel to Morocco.
- A: Oh, really? Where in Morocco?
- B: I'm not sure yet! What about you? What do you plan to do next year?
- A: I'd like to get my own place.
- B: Oh, really? Are you planning to rent an apartment?
- A: No, actually I'm going to buy one.
- B: Good for you!
- B GROUP ACTIVITY Compare your information with another pair. Explain your goals and plans
- A: What are two things you plan to do next year?

Learning Objective: speak more fluently about possibilities for the future

A Pair work

- Focus Ss' attention on the picture. Elicit what kind of dreams and plans the person has.
- Explain the task and that Ss will discuss their answers in pairs. Direct Ss' attention to the first question in the chart. Model the example conversation at the bottom with a S.
- Option: Have Ss ask you the questions in the chart. Reply with your own information. If there are any problems with pronunciation or intonation of questions, review briefly.
- Then in pairs, Ss take turns asking and answering the questions from the chart. They record their own and their partner's answers on the chart. Encourage them to ask follow-up questions.
- Go around the class and give help as needed.

B Group activity

- Explain the task. Model the example conversation with two Ss.
- Pairs join another pair and take turns explaining their possible future plans.
- Option: Ask each group to choose the most interesting or unusual future plans that someone talked about. Then that S tells the rest of the class about his or her plans.
