Find out about your classmates. Go to Interchange 1 on page 114.

What's in a Name?

Look at the names in the article. Do you know any people with these names? What are they like?

Your name is very important. When you think of yourself, you probably think of your name first. It is an important part of your identity.

Right now, the two most popular names for babies in the United States are "Jacob" for boys and "Emma" for girls. Why are these names popular? And why are other names unpopular?

Names can become popular because of famous actors, TV or book characters, or athletes. Popular names suggest very positive things. Unpopular names suggest negative things. Surprisingly, people generally agree on the way they feel about names. Here are some common opinions about names from a recent survey.

George: average, boring
Jacob: creative, friendly
Michael: good-looking, athletic
Stanley: nerdy, serious

Betty: old-fashioned, average
Emma: independent, adventurous
Jane: plain, ordinary
Nicole: beautiful, intelligent

So why do parents give their children unpopular names? One reason is tradition. Many people are named after a family member. Of course, opinions can change over time. A name that is unpopular now may become popular in the future. That's good news for all the Georges and Bettys out there!

A	Read the article. Then check	(1	) the statements that are true.

- 1. Your name is part of your identity.
- 2. People often feel the same way about a particular name.
- 3. Boys' names are more popular than girls' names.
- 4. People are often named after family members.
- 5. Opinions about names can change.

These people need jobs. Read about their schedules, experience, and why they need a job.

I'm 16 now, and my parents don't give me an allowance anymore. I want to earn some money because I like to go out with my friends on the weekend. I go to school at 8:00 and get home around 4:30. My parents own a restaurant, so I know a little about restaurant work.

Julia Brown

I study French and want to be a teacher someday. I have classes all day on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, and on Wednesday and Friday afternoons. I usually study on weekends. I need a job because college is really expensive! I don't have any experience, but I'm a fast learner.

My husband is an accountant and makes good money, but we don't save very much. We live in a small apartment, and we have a new baby. We want to save money to buy a house. I take care of the baby, so I need a job I can do at home. I can type well, and I have a new computer.

0004 Stay-at-Home Dads Read the title of the article. Then check (/) the question you think the interviews will answer. 🍘 Why do men decide to stay at home with their children? What happens when both parents work? Families in the U.S. are changing. One important change is that many fathers are staying home with their children. They take care of the kids, and their wives go to work. Modern Family magazine asked three stay-at-home dads the question "What's it like being a stay-at-home dad?" I'm having a great time! When the kids are in school, I do housework. Our youngest child goes to school part-time. When I pick her up, I love the one-on-one time with her. Then, when my two sons get home from school, we all play together. Why do I stay home? Well, I wasn't happy at my job. It was pretty stressful, in fact. William Chan It's a challenge. We have two young children. They don't go to school yet. I never have time for myself! That's not easy. But my kids are growing up so fast. I really want to spend time with them when they're young. Also, my wife loves her job. I think most stay-at-home dads say the same thing: It's hard, but it's worth it. Daniel Evans In my neighborhood, there aren't many dads in the park with their kids on weekdays. Nearly all of the parents are moms. I had a stressful job before and didn't have a lot of free time. I hated it. We have a daughter, and now I'm spending more time with her. I love that. I'm enjoying my freedom from work, but I'm also working very hard! Roberto Garcia

- The sidewalks are crowded with people chatting in Cantonese. An Indian man sells spices from his corner shop. Brazilian music plays loudly from a café. Is it China? India? Brazil? No, it's Kensington Market, a neighborhood in Toronto, Canada. Kensington Market was once an Eastern European and Italian neighborhood, but the area changed along with its residents. First came the Portuguese, then East Asians, then people from Iran, Vietnam, Sudan, Brazil, the Caribbean, and the Middle East.
- Today, the neighborhood is truly multicultural - you can hear more than 100 languages on its streets. New residents bring many new traditions. "What's really cool about Kensington is that as soon as you're in it, you feel as though you're not in Toronto anymore," says one resident. "I think what makes Kensington Market unique is that it's always changing," says another.

- It isn't surprising that the area in and around Kensington Market is becoming a popular place to live. The rents are reasonable, the neighborhood is exciting, and it has good public transportation. There are apartments of every size and for every budget. It has inexpensive stores, fun cafés, fresh fruit and vegetable markets, and restaurants with almost every type of cuisine. As one resident says, "This place is the heart of Toronto."

DEAR KEN AND PIXIE

Your style questions answered

Look at the pictures. What is each an example of? Match the descriptions with the pictures. a. mixing old and new b. mixing baggy and slim c. mixing colors and patterns

All of your questions this week are about mixing and matching styles, patterns, and colors.

Dear Ken and Pixie, I'm reading a lot about how to mix prints in the latest fashion magazines. But when I wear different prints together, I look silly. What's the trick?

- Mixed-up

Dear Mixed-up,

It's not difficult to wear different prints together. Find the similarity in each item of clothing you want to wear. Mix two or three items with the same background color, like white or another neutral color. Mix a large print with a small one. Mix similar patterns, like stripes with plaid. But if you don't feel comfortable in it, don't wear it!

Dear Ken and Pixie, In college, I wore vintage clothes, but now I'm 30 and need a modern look. How can I wear vintage styles without looking outdated?

- Oldie but Goodie

Dear Oldie but Goodie,

Vintage clothing is always in! But mix it with something new for a modern look. Wear a vintage shirt with pants. Pair an old belt with a new bag. Wear vintage shoes with new jeans. But sometimes you need to alter the clothes. For example, take a baggy vintage skirt and make it slim, or cut the shoulder pads out of a vintage jacket.

Dear Ken and Pixie, I'm seeing both baggy pants and skinny pants on the designer runways. Also, short pants and long pants. What's in style?

- Confused Carrie

Dear Confused Carrie

It's all in style! For pants, anything goes this year. The trick is to wear something on top that is the opposite of the style of the pants. So, if you're wearing baggy pants, try a slim shirt. If slim pants are your thing, wear a baggy sweater. Short pants? Try funky shoes. Wear long pants with your shirt tucked in and a belt.

A Read the webpage. Find the words in italics in the text. Then match each word with its meaning.

- .......... 1. neutral
- ...... 2. vintage
- ...... 3. outdated
- ..... 4. alter
- 5. baggy
- .......... 6. skinny
- a. not in style
- b. change
- c. slim
- d. from the past but still in style
- e. without strong color
- f. loose fitting

B PAIR WORK Answer these questions.

- 1. Do you mix and match patterns and colors? What does your favorite outfit look like?
- 2. Do you have any vintage clothing? What time period is it from?
- 3. Do you wear clothes because they are fashionable or because they look good on you, or both?

SPEAKING Interesting places

GROUP WORK Has anyone visited an interesting place in your country? Find out more about it. Start like this and ask questions like the ones below.

A: I visited Istanbul once.

B: Really? What's the best time of year to visit?

A: It's nice all year. I went in March.

C: What's the weather like then?

What's the best time of year to visit? What's the weather like then? What should tourists see and do there? What special foods can you eat? What's the shopping like? What things should people buy? What else can visitors do there?

Scan the email messages. What city has a puppet show? What city has two personalities? What city is famous for leather?

Fez is so interesting! I've been to the medina (the old city) every day. It has walls all the way around it, and more than 9,000 streets! It's always crowded and noisy. My favorite places to visit are the small shops where people make local crafts. Fez is famous for its leather products. I visited a place where they dye the leather in dozens of beautiful colors.

I came at the perfect time, because the World Sacred Music festival is happening right now!

Kathy

I've discovered that Cartagena has two different personalities. One is a lively city with fancy restaurants and crowded old plazas. And the other is a quiet and relaxing place with sandy beaches. If you come here, you should stay in the historic district – a walled area with great shopping, nightclubs, and restaurants. It has some wonderful old Spanish buildings.

Last night, I learned some salsa steps at a great dance club. Today, I went on a canoe tour of La Ciénaga mangrove forest. Mike Hanoi is the capital of Vietnam and its second-largest city. It's a fun city, but six days is not enough time for a visit. I'm staying near the Old Quarter of the city. It's a great place to meet people. Last night I went to a water puppet show. Tomorrow I'm going to Ha Long Bay.

I took a cooking class at the Vietnam Culinary School. I bought some fruits and vegetables at a local market and then prepared some local dishes. My food was really delicious! I'll cook you something when I get home. Belinda

Check ( $\checkmark$ ) the health problems you have had recently. What do you do for the health problems you checked? How many times have you been sick in the past year?

CONVERSATION Health problems

A Listen and practice.

Joan: Hi, Craig! How are you?

Craig: Not so good. I have a terrible cold.

Joan: Really? That's too bad! You should be at home in bed. It's really important to get a lot of rest.

Craig: Yeah, you're right.

Joan: And have you taken anything for it?

Craig: No, I haven't.

Joan: Well, it's sometimes helpful to eat garlic soup. Just chop up a whole head of garlic and cook it in chicken stock. Try it!

It really works!

Craig: Yuck! That sounds awful!

Listen to advice from two more of Craig's co-workers. What do they suggest?

Rain Forest Remedies?

Look at the title, pictures, and captions What do you think the article is about?

- 1 Rodrigo Bonilla turns off the motor of the boat. We get off the boat and follow him along the path into the rain forest. Above us, a monkey with a baby hangs from a tree.
- 2 On this hot January day, Rodrigo is not looking for wild animals, but for medicinal plants – plants that can cure or treat illnesses. Medicinal plants grow in rain forests around the world.

Carol writes a column on health.

Recently she took a trip to Tortuguero National Park in Costa Rica.

A broom tree

- 3 Rodrigo is Costa Rican. He learned about jungle medicine from his grandmother. He shows us many different plants, such as the broom tree. He tells us that parts of the broom tree can help stop bleeding.
- 4 People have always used natural products as medicine. In fact, about 50 percent of Western medicines, such as aspirin, come from natural sources. And some animals eat certain kinds of plants when they are sick.
- 5 This is why medical researchers are so interested in plants. Many companies are now working with local governments and searching the rain forests for medicinal plants.
- 6 So far, the search has not produced any new medicines. But it's a good idea to keep looking. That's why we are now here in the Costa Rican rain forest.

To Tip or Not to Tip?

Scan the article. How much should you tip someone in the United States who: carries your suitcase at a hotel? parks your car? serves you in a fast-food restaurant?

he word tip comes from an old English slang word that means "to give." It's both a noun and a verb. People in the U.S. usually tip people in places like restaurants, airports, hotels, and hair salons. People who work in these places often get paid low wages. A tip shows that the customer is pleased with the service.

Sometimes it's hard to know how much to tip. The size of the tip usually depends on the service. People such as parking valets or bellhops usually get smaller tips. The tip for people such as taxi drivers and servers is usually larger. Here are a few guidelines for tipping in the United States:

Taxi drivers: 15 percent of the bill; more if they help you with bags
Servers: 15 to 20 percent of the bill (There is no tipping in fast-food restaurants.)
Barbers or hairstylists: 15 percent of the bill
Airport porters or hotel bellinoss: $1 or $2 for carrying each suitcase
Hotel door attendants: $1 or $2 for getting a taxi
Parking vallets: $2 for parking a car
Hotel maids: $2 to $5 per night

When you're not sure about how much to tip, do what feels right. You don't have to tip for bad service. And you can give a bigger tip for very good service. Remember, though, your behavior is more important than your money.
Always treat service providers with respect.

Things You Can Do to Help the Environment

Look at the pictures. Which show environmental problems? Which show solutions?

CARS

Cars are getting bigger. SUVs—large, truck-like vehicles—are now the most popular cars in the United States. Bigger vehicles burn more gas and increase air pollution. So try to walk, bicycle, or use public transportation. If you drive a car, keep it tuned up. This saves gas and reduces pollution.

PRODUCTS

Each American throws away about 1.8 kilograms (4 pounds) of garbage every day. Most of it goes into landfills. Reduce waste before you buy by asking yourself: Do I need this? Is it something I can only use once? Buy products that you can use over and over again. And try to buy products made from recycled materials.

ENERGY

The biggest use of home energy is for heating and cooling. So turn up your air conditioner and turn down the heat, especially at night. Replace regular lightbulbs with bulbs that use less energy. And remember to turn lights off.

Showers use a lot of water. In one week, a typical American family uses as much water as a person drinks in three years! Buy a special "low-flow" showerhead or take shorter showers. This can cut water use in half. Also, fix any leaky faucets.

Cell Phone Etiquette

Scan the article. Is it OK to use a cell phone in a movie theater? in a restaurant? on the street?

What do these things have in common: a stranger's personal problems, details about a business meeting, the food in someone's refrigerator, someone's medical issues, and a private argument? These are all things you hear about when the people around you don't practice good cell phone etiquette!

Most people find cell phones a necessity in their day-to-day lives. But we've all sat next to someone talking too loudly, listening to loud music, or playing a loud beeping game on a cell phone. But a recent report shows that while most people are annoyed by cell phone rudeness, most admit to doing it, too. What can you do to practice better etiquette? Here are a few rules:

- > Off means off! Respect the rules of restaurants and other public places. If a sign says "No cell phones," don't use your phone for anything.
- > Keep private conversations private!
  Speak softly and for a short time. Observe the 3-meter (10-feet) rule stay away from other people.
- Lights off, phone off! Never take calls or send text messages in a theater, at the movies, or at a performance. Turn your phone or your ringer off.
- Pay attention! Talking or texting while driving is dangerous. Listening to music with headphones while driving is dangerous. Crossing the street while playing a game or checking your email is dangerous. You get the picture.

Cell phones have become mini-computers that people depend on 24 hours a day. But don't let yours become a nuisance – or a danger – to others! Next time you're getting ready to use yours, stop and consider the people around you.

Goal Setting

Setting Personal Goals

Look at the list in the article. Which of these areas of your life would you like to change or improve?

Ask any top athlete or successful businessperson and they will tell you the importance of setting goals. Goal setting can motivate you and give your life direction. It seems easy, right? Just write down a list of things you want to achieve and then do them. Well, it's not that easy!

Effective goal setting happens on several levels. First, you create a big picture of what you want to do with your life. At this point, you decide what large-scale goals you want to achieve. Second, you divide these into smaller and smaller tasks. Third, you put the smaller tasks into a rough time line. Finally, once you have your plan, you start working to achieve it.

How do you know what your large-scale goals are? These questions can help you get started.

Career

What level do you want to reach in your career?

Family

What kind of relationship do you want with the people in your family?

Community Service

How do you want to give back to your community?

• Financial

to achieve it?

How much money do you want to earn? How much do you want to save?

Creative

Do you want to achieve any artistic goals?

• Physical

How will you stay in good physical shape throughout your life?

Education

What do you want to learn? How will you learn it?

• Recreation

How do you want to enjoy yourself?

PROCESS

Write down your goals and think about them carefully. Are they realistic?

How important are they?

Rank them in order from most important to least important.

Then follow the process above to make your longterm plan. Remember, your goals can change with time.

Look at them regularly and adjust them if necessary. And be sure your goals are things you hope to achieve, not things others want.

  - B: That's not bad. And how much is this / that sweater here?
  - A: It's / They're only $9.99.

2 Preferences; comparisons with adjectives (page 20)

- With adjectives of one or two syllables, add −er to form the comparative: cheap → cheaper; nice → nicer; pretty → prettier; big → bigger.
- With adjectives of three or more syllables, use more + adjective to form the comparative: expensive → more expensive.

Write the comparatives of these adjectives.

1.	attractive	more attractive	5. inter	resting
2.	boring	24.44.44.44.44.44.44.44.44.44.44.44.44.4	6. reaso	onable
3.	exciting		7. sad
4.	friendly		8. warr	m

- Answer the questions. Use the words in parentheses in your answer. Then write another sentence with the second word.
- Which pants do you prefer, the cotton ones or the wool ones? (wool / attractive)
   I prefer the wool ones. They're more attractive than the cotton ones
- 2. Which ring do you like better, the gold one or the silver one? (silver / interesting)
