A Listen to two telephone conversations. Check the correct information.

1.

WES: [phone rings] Hello?

LAURA: Hi, Wes. This is Laura.

WES: Oh, hi, Laura. How are you?

LAURA: Pretty good, thanks. Listen, would you like to come to a beach party on Saturday? Amy and Terry are going to be there.

WES: Amy and Terry? Great! Uh, what time on Saturday?

LAURA: Well, we want to start around 6:00 in the evening.

WES: Oh, no! I start work at 6:00. I have a part-time job in a restaurant.

LAURA: Oh, that's too bad, Wes. Well, maybe another time.

WES: Yeah, I hope so. Thanks for thinking of me.

LAURA: No problem. I'll talk to you soon. Bye.

WES: Bye, Laura.

2.

RITA: [phone rings] Hi, this is Rita.

CHARLIE: Hey, Rita. This is Charlie. How're things?

RITA: Not bad. How are you doing, Charlie?

CHARLIE: Fine. Say, would you like to come to a dance performance this weekend?

RITA: I'd love to, but I'm pretty busy this weekend. I have to study for a test on Monday morning.

CHARLIE: Hmm. Are you going to study all weekend?

RITA: Well, no. I'm going to a basketball game on Saturday night with Lucinda. But I really have to keep some time on the weekend for studying.

CHARLIE: OK. I see. How about tomorrow evening then? The tickets are half price during the week.

RITA: That's a good idea! Let's do it.

CHARLIE: Great! Meet me outside the Odeon Theater at about 7:45, OK?

RITA: Excellent! See you there! Bye. Oh, and thanks.

CHARLIE: You're welcome. See you tomorrow.
