HOUSE SITTER WANTED

Would you like to earn some easy money? We need to find a responsible person to look after the homes of our clients while they are on holiday. You will have to spend at least six hours every day in the client's house so people don't think it is empty, and you will need to sleep there at least three times a week. You will also need to do some housework, look after plants and feed fish and cats. This is the ideal job for a student who needs peace and quiet to revise for exams.

COULD YOU BE A HOME SETTLER?

How well do you know your town? Do you enjoy meeting new people? If you know your town well and are a well-organized and friendly person, you could be perfect for this new opportunity. As a 'home settler', your clients are people who have just moved to the area, and your job is to show them everything they need to know about living there. You will be expected to help them organize schools for their children and introduce them to local people.

DREAM MAKER

Could you help someone appear in a movie or play tennis on the centre court at Wimbledon? When you work as a dream maker, your customers will tell you their greatest wish and you have to make it happen for them. You will need to be good at finding information on the Internet and at planning and organizing things. Candidates must have imagination and lots of self-confidence. You will also need to be able to persuade people to do things!

PERFUME TESTER

Can you tell the difference between the smell of roses and the smell of lilac using only your nose? A famous producer of perfumes is looking for people with sensitive noses to work in their laboratory. When new perfumes are tested on people, your job will be to smell them and report on the result. You have to identify good smells from the bad ones, but you will also have to write a report describing each smell. Candidates will be asked to write a report at the interview.

The successful candidate for the job of house sitter will have to spend (at least) six hours a day in the client's house.

1 House sitting is a good job _____.

2 Home settlers must know _____ well.

3 A home settler's client is someone _____ to an area.

4 Dream makers _____ come true.

5 Dream makers must be good at _____ to find information.

6 Perfume testers work in _____.

7 During the interview candidates will have to _____.
