AUDIOSCRIPT

Woman Thank you for phoning the Channel 6 phone line. This phone call will cost fifty pence. First you will hear a short advertisement for the show and then you will be asked to answer some questions.

Voice Are you a risk taker? When you see something dangerous on TV or in a film, do you say 'I'd love to try that!' or do you think 'They're crazy! I'd never do anything as risky as that!?' Well if you fancy trying some very risky activities, you're the person we're looking for! We're producing a new reality TV show called 'One Big Risk!' and on it contestants have to try new activities. They might be frightening, they might be dangerous, but the winner will win a lot of money.

Woman Are you still interested? OK. Now we need you to answer some questions. First, can you say your name please after the tone.

Alan Alan Masters.

Woman Thank you. Now your age. Remember you must be over eighteen.

Alan Nineteen.

Woman Thank you. Now a phone number.

Alan 04521 778356.

Woman Thank you. Now please answer the following question. Why do you think you would be a good person to have on the show?

Alan I would be good to have on the show because I love doing exciting things. I like competition and I'm not frightened of taking risks.

Woman Thank you. If we asked you to climb down inside a volcano, what would your answer be?

Alan I'd do it, if I had the right equipment. I wouldn't go down there without special clothes to protect against hot lava.

Woman Thank you. What would you say if we asked you to dive 200 metres under the sea?

Alan I'd say no. That would be a crazy thing to do. Nobody can survive at that depth. I love risks, but I'm not stupid.

Woman Thank you. Thank you very much for your interest. If our producers think you would be a good contestant, we shall contact you with further information. Please put the phone down now.
