AUDIOSCRIPT

- Interviewer Good morning, Helen. Please sit down. Thank you for coming to this interview.
- Helen Good morning. Thank you for asking me.
- Interviewer First, could you tell us how old you are, please?
- Helen Yes. I'm eighteen.
- Interviewer And what are you doing at the moment?
- Helen I'm still at school. I'm taking my final exams at the end of June.
- Interviewer Why have you applied to work at our dog rescue centre?
- Helen I want to take a year off before I go to university. I'd like to become a vet, so I thought it would be a good idea to work with animals for a while.
- Interviewer Ah, I see. Do you have any experience of working with dogs?
- Helen Yes. I used to help out at my vet's on Saturday mornings when I was sixteen. I looked after the dogs.
- Interviewer How long did you work there?
- Helen About eighteen months.
- Interviewer And what did you use to do?
- Helen Oh, I cleaned out the cages where they kept the dogs after their operations. I also used to take the dogs for short walks. I cleaned and fed the dogs too. I learned a lot.
- Interviewer So why do you want to be a vet? It's a difficult profession.
- Helen I love animals. I always have. Ever since we got a puppy when I was three years old. I'd like to help animals. I know the training is long and hard but I'd like to do it. And working with you will give me a lot of good experience. It's exactly what I want to do. And I'm very hard-working and reliable.
- Interviewer You know, Helen, that we don't pay a lot of money?
- Helen Yes. But that's OK. The money's not important.
- Interviewer Well, thank you, Helen. We'll let you know about the job in a few days.
