- 1 He is a chef, food writer, host of an American TV travel program and an explorer.
- 2 He likes to learn about new cultures by exploring their cuisines.
- 3 Sharing food with people from other cultures is a great way to build relationships with them and in some cultures, it is polite to make a noise while you are eating.
- 4 He likes to visit Africa.
- 5 Zimmern met the Maasai Tribe in Tanzania and they participated in the Maasai tradition of drinking fresh cow's blood mixed with milk.
- 6 He ate raw camel meat in Ethiopia.
- 7 Zimmern drank three cups of coffee in a ceremony because it's not considered polite to drink only one or two.
- 8 He comes home with souvenirs that are much more valuable to him: memories and videos of his interactions with the people from the diverse places he visits. Of course, he also brings back food and recipes.
