

QUIZ 1: LESSONS 1–4

Speak Now 2. Quiz 1: Lessons 1–4. Listening.

- A: Hey, Julie! How's it going?
B: Oh, hello, Caroline! Pretty good. How are things with you?
A: Not too bad. So tell me—I hear your cousin is visiting.
B: Uh... well, yes. She's here with me today.
A: Really? Where is she?
B: She's here somewhere. I don't see her now.
A: What does she look like?
B: She's really pretty. She's tall and thin. And she has blond hair.
A: How tall is she?
B: Oh, not that tall. She's medium height, actually. About the same as you, I guess.
A: What's she like?
B: Well, she's an art student... so she's really creative. She has a really outgoing personality. She likes singing and dancing and all that artistic stuff.
A: That's cool. Is she from around here?
B: No. Actually, she's from Brazil.
A: Brazil? I love Brazil!
B: Really? Have you been there?
A: Yes. I went last year with my friends.
B: Oh... hey! There she is now. Let me introduce you....

QUIZ 2: LESSONS 5–8

Speak Now 2. Quiz 2: Lessons 5–8. Listening.

- A: My turn to cook tonight. What do you feel like eating?
B: Hmm... I'm not sure. I kind of feel like something spicy tonight.
A: Spicy, huh? How about Thai? My Thai noodles are delicious, and they're really spicy.
B: We just had Thai food the other day. How about something more exotic? How about something like Moroccan food? I love Moroccan food!
A: I've never tried Moroccan food. So... there's no way I can cook it!
B: Really? You've never tried Moroccan food? You have to try it. It's delicious.
A: OK. But I still can't cook it.
B: Then why don't we go out tonight?
A: OK, sure. Where?
B: There's a great new place downtown that serves really good Moroccan food. It has a really fun atmosphere, and the food is really inexpensive.
A: What's the food like?
B: Moroccan food has a lot of vegetables and grilled meats. It's a little spicy. You'll love it.
A: Sounds good to me.
B: Great! Let's go.

QUIZ 3: LESSONS 9–12

Speak Now 2. Quiz 3: Lessons 9–12. Listening.

A: What's the matter? You don't look so good.

B: Oh, it's nothing serious. I just have a sore back.

A: What happened?

B: I was doing chores at home all weekend. I rearranged the furniture, and I think I climbed too many stairs.

A: Oh, no. Did you see a doctor?

B: No, I didn't. I don't think it's serious. I just need some rest.

A: Well, I don't think you should ignore it, if it hurts. Go see a doctor.

B: Yeah. I guess you're right. Maybe I should see a doctor. So, anyway, what did you do this weekend?

A: I had a great weekend. I went skiing with my friends. We had a great time.

B: That sounds like a lot more fun than my weekend.

A: Yeah. Have you ever been skiing?

B: No, but I'd love to try it. I think it would be really exciting.

A: Oh, it is! I love outdoor activities, and skiing is the most exciting one I know. We're going again next week. You should come with us.

B: Um... I can't. Remember? I have a sore back!

QUIZ 4: LESSONS 13–16

Speak Now 2. Quiz 4: Lessons 13–16. Listening.

A: Just a few more weeks until graduation. How are your classes going?

B: Oh, pretty well, I guess. I'm not doing very well in Spanish. But I'm getting mostly A's and B's in my other classes.

A: That's great. What are your plans after you graduate?

B: I'm not exactly sure yet. I know I want to do some kind of design. But I can't decide if I want to be a graphic designer or a fashion designer.

A: Wow! Aren't they both really different jobs?

B: Well, yes, in a way, I guess. But you can learn about fashion or graphic design after you get the job. The thing is, you need to be creative if you want to be a designer.

A: Well, you are one of the most creative people I know.

B: Gee, thanks. Now the big thing is, I need to look around for some good companies.

A: What are you looking for in a company?

B: Hmm... I know I need to work long hours at first and my salary may not be very good. But I really need something near my home. Location is really important to me.

A: Well, good luck!

B: Thanks.

QUIZ 5: LESSONS 17–20

Speak Now 2. Quiz 5: Lessons 17–20. Listening.

Part 1

A: Hello?

B: Hey, Susan. It's me—Jeremy. What are you doing?

A: Oh, hi, Jeremy! Nothing much. Just watching TV.

B: I'm downtown shopping now... but I'm almost finished. Do you have any plans later?

A: Umm... no. Not really. What's up?

B: There's a new comedy playing at the Lido Theater. Do you want to see it with me? It starts at three.

A: Uh, OK... Sounds good. Let me get ready. I can meet you at two-thirty at the coffee shop across the street from the theater.

B: Great. See you later.

Part 2

A: Oh, gosh! I'm really sorry I'm late. I couldn't find my car keys.

B: No problem. There's still time. I already bought the tickets.

A: Oh great. Do you have time to buy popcorn?

B: Sure.

A: By the way, what's the name of the movie we're seeing?

B: It's called Horse on Fire.

A: Oh, no! I saw it last night!

QUIZ 6: LESSONS 21-24

Speak Now 2. Quiz 6: Lessons 21–24. Listening.

A: So, where did you go for vacation, Mariah?

B: I just got back from Paris.

A: Wow! Who did you go with? Did you go alone?

B: Yes, actually... I did go alone. I really prefer to travel alone. I really enjoy the freedom.

A: I know what you mean. So what did you see in Paris?

B: Well, of course I saw the Eiffel Tower. I went to the Louvre, too. What a great museum!

A: Did you do any shopping?

B: Of course, I did! Paris is a great place to shop. I bought so many beautiful clothes.

A: Yeah... sounds like you had a great trip.

B: Well... I did. Except for one thing. I lost my passport.

A: Huh? Really?

B: Yeah. And you're not allowed to travel without one. So I had to stay an extra three days and get a new one.

A: Oh, no. That's terrible!

B: Well... it wasn't so bad. I did get to stay in Paris longer!

QUIZ 7: LESSONS 25–28

Speak Now 2. Quiz 7: Lessons 25–28. Listening.

A: What do you think of this dress?

B: Um...it's OK. But I prefer you in a different color.

A: Really?

B: Yes... Here. What about this one?

A: Nah...Can I ask you something? What do you usually wear on a job interview?

B: Well, I guess it depends. But you know me—I like comfort. My clothes are pretty casual. I guess I usually wear a nice skirt with a nice shirt, and a pair of nice shoes or something. Why? Does someone have an interview?

A: Well, uh... yeah. Actually, I do. Tomorrow.

B: OK, then. Let's find something for you to wear.

A: Hey, how about that dress over there? Could you pass it to me?

B: Sure. Here you go. Oh... I really like the design. And the color is really good on you, too. Go behind the curtains and try it on.

A: Ta-da! What do you think?

B: It's perfect! But did you check the weather for tomorrow? I think it's supposed to rain.

A: Oh, no! I guess I should buy some boots, too...

QUIZ 8: LESSONS 29–32

Speak Now 2. Quiz 8: Lessons 29–32. Listening.

- A: I was watching TV last night when I saw a really interesting story on the news. It was about a woman who won ten million dollars.
- B: Yeah? What did she do with the money?
- A: She decided to keep her job at a fast food restaurant and put the money in a bank account for her children.
- B: Really? That's crazy! Why does she want to work, when she has so much money?
- A: She's still young. She wants to save the money for her family. She wants to keep it for when she gets older. I kind of agree with her.
- B: Really? I don't feel that way at all.
- A: Well, what would you do if you won ten million dollars?
- B: Me? Well, the first thing I would do is quit my job! Then I would travel all over the world. I would buy a big house and enjoy my life.
- A: That sounds like fun. But I'm not sure I would do the same. I think I agree with the woman. I would keep my job. I like my job.
- B: So you wouldn't spend any of the money?
- A: Well... I might buy just one little sports car for myself!
