The third man went down on his knees and asked Marlowe to forgive him. 'Take me to the cow and I'll forgive you' the farmer said. Marlowe followed the man into the forest. The man pointed to the cow and said, 'There's your cow, kind sir. We didn't hurt her.'

‘Now you have to do something for me,’ said Marlowe. ‘As punishment for stealing my cow. This is a potato field. You have to dig up all the potatoes by hand.’ The man dug the field for a whole week while Marlowe watched him. ‘I’ll always be honest in the future.’ The man said to himself.

(Sample answer)

It was at the end of the school year. We were all sitting in the playground and we were waiting for the school play to start. Finally, the actors came out and the play started. It was Romeo and Juliet. Romeo was kneeling in front of Juliet when the sky turned really black. Only a short time later, it started to rain really hard. All the actors and the audience ran into the school to escape from the rain. We never saw the end of the play.

Oceans cover about 70% of Earth's surface. They contain more than 90% of Earth's water. There are five oceans. The smallest is the Arctic Ocean around the North Pole. The biggest is the Pacific Ocean between Asia and America. The Atlantic Ocean lies between west Africa and Europe and North and South America. The Indian Ocean borders east Africa, south Asia, west Australia and Antarctica. Finally, there is the Southern Ocean, which is around Antarctica.

(Sample answer)

The weather was terrible. Ian McIver, the Captain of the Adventure, an old sailing boat, was really worried. The weather was getting bad and the waves were getting bigger. Suddenly one of the sailors saw that the boat was breaking. He shouted to the captain and they got the lifeboat ready. They didn't have much time to get everyone in and a few minutes later the boat sank. A few days later they saw land and they knew they were safe.
