A (Track 16)

Emma How was your vacation, Jack?

Jack It was amazing, Emma! I got back from South America yesterday.

Emma You did? That's great. Did you go to Brazil?

Jack No, I went to Peru, Ecuador, and Colombia.

Emma What was Peru like?

Jack Well, Lima was a really big city, and I only stayed one day there – the historic district was nice. But, I really liked Puno and Cuzco. I guess Cuzco was my favorite city.

Emma That's great! So, what did you do in Cuzco?

Jack Uh, I did a lot of sightseeing. I also ate a lot of Peruvian food.

Emma Good for you! What did you try?

Jack Oh, um, I ate ceviche a couple of times.

Emma What's ceviche?

Jack It's a kind of seafood. It has different kinds of fish, but it's not cooked.

Emma Really? Did you get sick?

Jack Uh, no, I mean, it's kind of cooked in fruit juices. It's not bad for you. Anyway, Cuzco was really great.

Emma What was the weather like?

Jack Well, let me think. It was sunny in Cuzco, but it was cold.

Emma That's too bad. Was it cold in all of South America?

Jack Oh, no. It was hot in Colombia and warm in Ecuador. The weather was perfect in Quito.

Emma Did you like Quito?

Jack Oh, yes. The Ecuadorian food was good, too.

Emma What did you eat?

Jack Well, my favorite dish was locro.

Emma What's locro?

Jack It's a kind of soup. It has potatoes and cheese in it. It's popular in Peru and Ecuador, but I didn't eat any in Peru.

Emma Well, it sounds like a great vacation!

B (Track 17)

Kyle Hello, Eva. What are you doing these days?

Eva Hi, Kyle. I'm so busy. I'm taking two English classes, and I'm working full-time. And I'm on a volleyball team! I love it, but I'm too busy. I miss the "old days."

Kyle What do you mean? Do you want to be a kid again?

Eva Well, no! But I'd like to live with my parents again. You know, they did my laundry, made my dinner. . . . Life was easy!

Kyle Well, yeah. When did you move out?

Eva I got my own apartment last year. It's funny, now I can go out with my friends when I want to, but I don't have any time!

Kyle Hey, do you remember when we went to the movies all the time?

Eva Uh-huh. We went to the movies every Saturday. We went to clubs, too.

Kyle Yeah. You know, I didn't like the clubs. They were noisy.

Eva Yeah, but I like to dance! I need to go dancing soon!

Kyle Well, I don't want to dance, but let's go to a movie this weekend. Do you have any time?

Eva Well, actually, I don't have to work this Saturday.

Kyle OK. Do you want to go in the afternoon?

Eva Well, um, I need to study. Can we go at night? I can study for my English test in the morning and afternoon.

Kyle Well, would you like to go on Sunday? Then you can study on Saturday.

Eva No, Saturday night is good. I have a volleyball game on Sunday.

Kyle Oh, good luck!

Eva Thanks. You can come to the game on Sunday, if you want. It starts at 2:00.

Kyle Well, I have a karate class at 1:00. I can come at 2:30, though.

Eva Cool! Now . . . the movies on Saturday . . .

Kyle Let's see. Let's go at 8:00. Is that good?

Eva That's great! See you then.
