A (Track 16)

Waiter (The phone rings.) Hello. Alberto's Restaurant. May I help you?

Alice Hi. My name's Alice Hunter. I'm calling about my bag. I had lunch at your restaurant today, and I think I left it there.

Waiter What kind of bag is it, ma'am?

Alice It's a big blue leather bag. I really hope you have it. I'm so worried – my wallet is in it.

Waiter Hmm. I'm looking in our Lost and Found box now, and I don't see it here. . . .

Alice Well, would you mind talking with the waitress? I don't know her name, but she was tall and thin, with long dark hair. She was pretty young – about twenty, I guess.

Waiter Oh, sure, that's Rebecca. She's still here. Can you hold on a second? (pause) Ma'am? It's OK. I just talked to Rebecca, and she found your bag. She was keeping it in another place.

Alice Thank goodness! I'll come in and get it after work. About seven. Is that OK?

Waiter Sure, ma'am, that's fine. We close early tonight – at eight – but we're open until nine tomorrow.

Alice Great. I'll be there before you close. Thanks.

Waiter You're welcome.

B (Track 17)

Sue What a day! I think I'll go home after this meeting and take a nice, long, hot bath. . . .

Zach A bath right after work? Really? I usually exercise at the end of the day – especially after a long meeting.

Sue How can you exercise when you're tired, Zach?

Zach Oh, that's the best time. You should try it, Sue. If you do, you'll feel much better in the evening. I go running right after work. Would you like to come with me sometime?

Sue Uh, I could, but . . . I guess I just don't feel like exercising at the end of the day.

Zach OK. Well, if you change your mind . . .

Sue Thanks. So, uh, what do you do after you go running? I mean, then do you relax?

Zach Yeah, I go home and make dinner. And then I get on my computer. I read my messages and go to my favorite news website. I like to know what's happening in the news.

Sue I do, too, but I'm on a computer all day at work. I don't need to be online in the evening, too. I usually watch the news on TV. . . . (fades)
