A (Track 18)

- Receptionist* (The phone rings.) Hello. Dr. Penzer's office. How may I help you?
- Marie* Hello. This is Marie Smith calling. I have an appointment with Dr. Penzer in about 15 minutes, but I'm a bit lost. Could you give me some directions to the office? I don't really know the town, since I just moved here last week. Anyway, do you think you could help me?
- Receptionist* Sure, no problem.
- Marie* Great, thanks! My tooth really hurts – I need to get there soon!
- Receptionist* Can you tell me where you are?
- Marie* Yeah, I am on the corner of Oak Street and Spruce Road.
- Receptionist* Hmm . . . I'm not sure I know where that is. Are there any shops?
- Marie* Oh, there's a supermarket on the corner and a pet shop across the street.
- Receptionist* Oh, I know now! You're really close. Just turn right at the pet shop onto Grove Street. Go down one block, and you'll see a bookstore on your left.
- Marie* Are there a lot of big red trees around there?
- Receptionist* Yeah, you're right. There are some big trees, and the leaves are turning red. Turn left onto Fig Street, and you'll see Dr. Penzer's office.
- Marie* OK. Is there a sign or anything?
- Receptionist* There's a café next to the office and a blue mailbox in front of the entrance.
- Marie* Great, thanks! I'll see you in just a few minutes.
- Receptionist* OK. Bye.

B (Track 19)

- Tom* Hi, my name is Tom. What's your name?
- Lin* Hi, I'm Lin. Nice to meet you.
- Tom* Nice to meet you, too. So, uh . . . do you know Karin well?
- Lin* Yeah, we're in the same classes at the community college. She's a really smart woman! How do you know her?
- Tom* Well, Karin and I were in the same high school classes together.
- Lin* Wow, really? What was she like in high school?
- Tom* Well, she was a little bit lazy. She never studied in high school, and she was always going out with her friends.
- Lin* Wow, Karin was a bad student? That's hard to believe. She's getting all A's now.
- Tom* Wow. I used to help her with her science classes. Does she take science classes now?
- Lin* Yeah, we're in biology class together. She helps me study for our tests. She is such a big help.
- Tom* I'm glad she's a good student now.
- Lin* Was she good at sports in high school? She's the best basketball player in the college!
- Tom* Oh, really? I guess she became more responsible after high school.
