A (Track 14)

- Pam* Neil, did you have a lot of friends to play with when you were a kid?
- Neil* Yeah, I did, actually. You know, Pam, there was this big group of kids on my street. Some were older and some were younger than me, but we used to all play together.
- Pam* What kinds of things did you do?
- Neil* Oh, we would play different sports – baseball, football. There were usually enough kids to make two teams.
- Pam* That sounds like fun. There weren't many kids in my neighborhood, so I would usually just play with my stepsisters.
- Neil* Oh, I didn't know you had stepsisters. Did you get along with them?
- Pam* Well, not really. We were about the same age, and we were very competitive. We were always arguing about our toys and things. But we get along really well now, so that's good!

B (Track 15)

- Don* Are you hungry, Irene? I can make you something if you haven't had lunch.
- Irene* Actually, I am a little hungry. But, Don, . . . I thought you didn't like to cook.
- Don* Well, that's true. I don't cook very much. I mean, I do eat out a lot.
- Irene* So do you want to go out to eat?
- Don* Oh, no, not really. I'm sure there's something here we can eat. I keep enough food in the kitchen so I can at least find something to eat if I'm hungry.
- Irene* OK. What do you have?
- Don* Well, let's see what's in the fridge. Oh. Well, I've got a carton of milk, a few eggs, . . .
- Irene* Hmm. That's not much. Do you have any . . . ?
- Don* Oh, wait! I forgot I had this. There's some chocolate cake, and . . . cream! Um, would you like some cake?
- Irene* Oh, no, thanks. I love cake, but I'm allergic to chocolate.
- Don* OK. Let me see what I have in the cupboard, then. Um, I've got, uh, potato chips, nuts, olives. . . . Oh, and some instant noodles.
- Irene* Hmm. Some noodles would be good.
- Don* Noodles? Sure, that's easy. You got it.
